Ye Smudge Pot (By Arthur Perry)

The nation is assured by any number of bankers, that "the depression can't last forever," but neither can the depressed.

The latest feat of Portland huro-artist is to skin a woman resident of the metropolis out of $1200 in a poker game.

It is rumored that the legislature "will defy the will of the people," and do nothing about the "fish industry of the Rogue."

The more one reads about Clara Bow, "the tomboy of the films," the more one wonders why she never tried to fly across the Atlantic ocean, in the dead of winter.

The guy who married Al Capone's sister a month ago, is reported to be "a model husband," and this comes under the head of cautious good judgment.

"Considerable amusement was furnished by Al Hess, who circulated among the merry throng, without knowing that his shirt-tail was out." (Painful Items.)

R. Reter has returned from Frisco with two bum stories, and a cheerful view of the future.

THE EGOTIST The beaver sometimes contemplates the dam and says "Nee job! I'm proud of that, I am!"

The arctic regards her swinging nest and flutes "Of all fine cradles, there's the best!"

The she-bear cuffs her cubs with loving paw and growls "A sweeter pair I never saw!"

Breat upon the ant heap, cries the ant: "Say! Who can make a mountain if I can't?"

So you, I trust, have similarly stood and looked upon your work and said it good. (New Yorker)

WHY PEWS ARE EMPTY (Baptist Journal) "In a single issue we find recorded four sermon subjects of the type to which we are referring: 'Can a Bobbed-Hair Woman Go to Heaven?' 'Will There Be Any Bootleggers in Heaven?' 'How Do Sons-in-Law Get Along with Mothers-in-Law in Heaven?' and 'All Aboard!'"

"Mothers should see their growing daughters at least once a week... (Home and Children Mag.)

FANCY WRITIN' Mrs. Harris Dooken of Prairie all Was Our Guest a Saturday afternoon. Mr. J. W. Baker is administrator to the estate of Mrs. Frank Deburgh whose husband was found dead by her feet; they were Old Friends.

THEY MUST BE FED

MORE than 250,000 persons in Arkansas will be dependent on the American Red Cross for food before February 15, its officials estimate. Most of them are "share-croppers" - landless tenant farmers, who raise cotton "on shares."

But why so much discussion of the trial marriage? Is there any kind of marriage that isn't a trial?

"The American," says a visiting European, "doesn't realize what a dictatorship means." He does if he has a two-year-old kid in the house.

Lynching Story Important As Showing Nation Lacks Racial Tolerance Is View

A nation cannot claim to be "civilized" until its citizens are world-minded and racial differences do not furnish motivation for acts of violence such as negro lynchings. Such is the opinion of Fred Colvig, editor of the Medford Mail-Tribune, which won the state championship among high school papers recently.

Reins Good Price. In addition the cold seasoned product is sold at an average of $5.87 per thousand more than the same grades that are air or kiln seasoned.

Appeal to County. "We are making an appeal at this time and hope the residents of Jackson county will respond promptly so that it will not be necessary to put on a drive to procure our quota. Let it be remembered Jackson county never falls down."

BROWNSBORO

BROWNSBORO, Ore., Jan. 17.—(Special)—During the Christmas holidays, Murine Voren spent several days at the home of her little friend, Doris Richardson. Leland Dyermer of Portland is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tucker.
