RECOMMENDED OUTLAWING RED PARTY

Congress Given Views of Committee for Curb On Communists in Country—Party Should Be Declared Illegal, Excluded.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Fourteen recommendations for dealing with communism, including outlawing of that party in the United States, were laid before the house today by the fish investigating committee.

Chairman Fish filed the report after an eight month study of communist activities. It was signed by himself and representatives Bachmann, Republican, West Virginia and Ewick, Tennessee, and Hall, Mississippi, Democrats, Representative Nelson, Republican, of Maine, submitted an individual report.

"That the communist party of the United States of America, section of the Communist International, be declared illegal . . . and that the executive authority of each state and the legislature thereof be informed of the revolutionary principles and objectives of the communist party and be requested to take appropriate action to have such party excluded from or denied recognition as a political entity.

"Enlarging the authority of the department of justice for the purpose of investigating . . . the revolutionary propaganda and activities of the communists in the United States.

"Strengthening of immigration laws.

"Provide for additional appropriations to the bureau of immigration.

"Amend the naturalization laws so as to forbid the naturalization of the communists.

"Amend the naturalization laws so as to cancel the United States citizenship of a communist.

"Deny re-entry to the United States to an alien who has visited Russia to receive training in communist doctrine.

"Amend postoffice laws to declare non-mailable all newspapers, magazines, pamphlets, circulars, etc., published, written or produced advocating revolutionary communism.

"Would Ban Writings.

"Amend interstate commerce laws to prohibit transportation of newspapers, magazines, pamphlets and circulars advocating revolutionary communism.

"Enactment of federal law to prosecute communists or other persons, organizations, newspapers, etc., spreading false rumors for the purpose of causing runs on banks.

"Restriction, or elimination of the use of secret codes of ciphers with any government with which the United States has no diplomatic relations and its trade agencies.

"In view of the fact the soviet government is under the control and direction of the communists request, through the state department, permission to send inspectors or agents to investigate the prison camps and the pulp wood and timber cutting District of Soviet Russia and report back regarding the alleged production of lumber and pulp wood by convict labor.

"View Prison Camps.

"That the treasury department should request through the state department, permission to send inspectors or agents to investigate the use of forced or indentured labor in soviet Russia and

"That immediate consideration be given by the congress to the placing of a embargo on the importation of manganese from soviet Russia."

"A bill to exclude entry of communists into this country was introduced by Representative Bachmann.

"The West Virginian said the measure was necessary in order to prevent an influx of communists.

"TABLE ROCK, Ore., Jan. 17.—(Sp.)—E. E. Prady, who has been in a poor state of health for some time, was taken to the Sacred Heart hospital last week for treatment.

George Russell and Henry Barnburg, Agate dairymen, were business visitors here Friday.

Much complaint is heard in this and surrounding districts about the extremely low price of butterfat.

"Viennese Nights" which comes to the Holly Sunday, is the creation of Sigmund Romberg and Oscar Hammerstein, II, the two who have created more glamorous and land prepared for a reseed in the spring.

Mr. Zuck of the Beagle district was a hay buyer here one day this week.

As very little fall grain was needed here last fall it is likely that there will be an increase in the spring acreage sown.

Work on the Seabrook dairy barn which has been in charge of Chas. Dugan will be completed during the next week.

Several land deals which seemed almost certain to be closed here have thus far failed to materialize.

The Ladies' Sewing club met with Mrs. John McBride this week with 14 ladies present.

A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Warren at the Dunlap ranch January 14.

Mrs. George Wright, who has been a patient at the Sacred Heart hospital, returned to her home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Lee Hardman and daughter, Greta, are visiting with Mrs. Hardman's mother, Mrs. Cal Pence, of Medford this week.

Mrs. H. W. Davidson's friends from Central Point gave her a handkerchief shower last Monday as a birthday surprise.

Mrs. W. E. Morris was hostess at a birthday dinner for Mrs. A. L. Seabrook at her home Saturday evening.

Mrs. Frank Cochran of Central Point spent several days this week with Mrs. George Wright.

melodious entertainment than any living collaborators. The story is one of exquisite tenderness, and the settings are gorgeous, being all in natural colors. The glamor of old Vienna, told of often in story and song, is caught with stirring vitality. Marching troops, gay ladies, street gamins, stout burghers, ample frauds, all seen in the flickering golden light of leaves blowing, horses bearing ancient vehicles, crowded with gay roysterers, all are there.

We were sorry to lose Coral Hilkey. She has moved to Wagner Creek.

Gordon Neil Forrest, a former pupil who has moved many times since he left us, returned to our school Monday.

The high school class in child care has been coming to the first grade and helping during the play time and with the giving of the milk lunch. This has been an invaluable experience for the high school girls and has been enjoyed by the first graders.

Jack Gillespie, Marion and Thelma Edmunds, started to school here last week. They are in the fifth grade.

Sixth grade: The first week in January the 431 Health club of Central Point was organized. The officers elected were: President, Ernest Lathrop; vice-president, Richard Jewett; secretary, Arlene Thompson. The first meeting was held by Miss Horney, our local club leader, in the sixth grade room, Mrs. Mack, of Medford, our county club leader, was with us. She was very glad to find to Central Point pupils enrolled as members of this club. Pupils from the sixth and seventh grades are eligible to membership in this club.

High School

Most of the high school students have been busy the past week preparing for the semester examinations and have not had much time for anything else. The failures have been very few so far and if all keep up the same standard of work they have been maintaining the results of the semester tests will be good.

A very interesting and helpful addition to the high school library is a reading table with the current magazines. The following magazines are now on the table: The Independent, Literary Digest, National Geographic, Pathfinder, Popular Science, World's Work.

The junior class has a committee working to select a class play. This will be staged sometime in April.

The basketball teams will play with Prospect next Wednesday, at Central Point. The town team will play with the Prospect town team the same evening.

Slides showing pictures of bird life were shown in the biology class this week.

Four student delegates, accompanied by Mrs. Fleischer, attended the press and student body conference at Union on January 9 and 10. The students attending were Merle Hedgpeth, Iola Carr, Donald Snyder, and John Smith. At the assembly on Friday they gave a very interesting report of their trip.

A class in journalism, to be taught by Mrs. Fleischer, is being organized for the second semester. About fifteen will be enrolled, at Mary Jane Beebe expects to attend Washington high school in Portland next semester. She will

Jackson School

Examinations and Promotions

The examinations in the department will take place next Tuesday and Wednesday. Thursday and Friday none except the 6A will return to school and they will return only for a little while at 1.00 p. m. Friday to get their report cards and go to the junior high to register for their courses. The primary children will have school as usual Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Promotions will be made next Monday.

A mid-winter football game was played on the Jackson school field last Saturday. The game was between the Washington and the Jackson schools. The Washington school won by one point. Each team scored one touchdown, and Jackson school lost its chance for the 1930 championship.

Spelling

The spelling for the week was 98.1 percent; the lowest average was 92.8, made by the 6B class, and the highest average was 99.1 made by the 6A class. The 6A class took a sudden turn for the better and wish to do a few good turns before leaving the school.

Health

The health average for the school was 99.2 percent. A mixture of mud and marbles is causing a number to do double duty during the rainy days.

Banking

Banking is still above 90 percent but only two-tenths above this week.

Next week is thrift week, so we are all trying to get above 90 so that we can get an award for the week. The National Thrift company gives a picture of a large American or Bald Eagle to all schools getting above a certain percent.

Central Point School

The grade school is starting work on an operetta to be given under the supervision of Miss Blood, music director. The operetta which has been chosen, "The Forest Court," will have a cast of nearly fifty children. It will be given sometime in April.

The boy scout with their scoutmaster, Mr. Lowe, attended the meeting at the Federated church last Tuesday evening. They heard a very interesting lecture concerning life in the South Sea islands as told by Herbert Grey, of the Medford Mail Tribune.

First grade: The first grade has been very proud of its attendance record, which has been unusually good, until the last two weeks. An epidemic of bad colds has caused many to be absent. Edgar Ross had a tonsil operation last Saturday and has had to be absent this week.

Billie Mayfield has returned from a trip to southern California. Billie saw many interesting things while on this trip. He brought back fresh fruits from the orange, lemon and olive groves to show his classmates.

We were sorry to lose Coral Hilkey. She has moved to Wagner Creek.

Gordon Neil Forrest, a former pupil who has moved many times since he left us, returned to our school Monday.
