at the lowest price since the days of Queen Elizabeth, in the 16th century. You could buy grain in Liverpool as cheaply as Drake bought it when he was provisioning his ships to rob the Spaniards. The Chicago price was better here, thanks to the San's long pocket book, stabilizing prices by buying and not selling, and thanks to the tariff.

William Rogers knows President Hoover as well as Milton knew Cromwell. You remember how powerfully Milton used to express Cromwell's thought and purpose, usually in Latin. Yesterday, Rogers revealed Mr. Hoover's unwillingness to hand twenty-five millions of public money to the Red Cross, to be used in national relief. Today you read that the Senate, in rather tricky fashion, voted for the $25,000,000 Red Cross appropriation.

The President, as a matter of course, will veto that foolishness, if it ever comes before him. When this government decided to build the Panama Canal it did not give and say: "You build it." Why burden the Red Cross with drought and unemployment relief which is much too big a job to say nothing or overhead wastage? Private philanthropic agencies with the best of intentions are expensive.

If you gave $25,000,000 for relief to the Red Cross and it passed the money on to the Salvation Army, and it in turn to the Y. M. C. A., and it to any one of the other benevolent agencies, when it came to paying out the money, after overhead, salaries, expenses, etc., there would be about enough left to buy three sandwiches.

A congressional committee investigating communism and communists, reports that those gentlemen and their theories are a grave menace to democratic government. The first natural question is WHAT DEMOCRATIC government? Where have the committee seen such a government? Communism means having things in common, "dividing up." Outside of the Bible, read on Sunday, you hear little about dividing, in our civilization and from those that have anything to divide, you hear nothing about dividing.

If we ever get a democratic government, and it ever faces a "divide and conquer" policy, those gentlemen seeking to grab everything, not from would-be dividers, but from those that have anything to divide, you hear nothing about dividing.
