BUTTER FIRMER ON GOOD DEMAND

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 23.—(P) Wholesale quotations on both butter and eggs were unchanged today.

Butter market opened with a firm tone with active demand; especially for 39 to 41 score cubes, as result of attractively low prices.

Tone of the egg market remained easy with price shading continued in some quarters to stimulate movement of more than ample supplies of fresh stock.

In the poultry market, heavy hens were quoted 1 cent lower at 19 cents a pound, due to insufficient retail demand.

Practically all lines of fresh fruit and vegetables were trading in normal volume at steady prices.
