FARMER ESCAPES ENRAGED ANIMAL

GRANDE RONDE, Jan. 30.
(4)—Gottlieb Schmidt clung desperately with two fingers to the ring in the nose of a bull, and saved himself from death under the hoofs of the enraged animal at his farm home near here yesterday. Schmidt, however, was in the McMinnville hospital today suffering a broken collar bone, which and fractured ribs caused the animal to knock him down and roll him over and over in the mud as he was leading it to water.
