

Gay Stripes and Prints Feature Spring Toggery Shown By Paris Modiste

By Adelaide Kerr.

PARIS, Jan. 30. — (AP) — Gay stripes and splashing prints designed in zigzag lines were shown by a prominent Parisian dressmaker last night as the last word in spring toggers.

ADELAIDE KERR

Even monotonous dresses of apparent simplicity revealed a regular or square pleating of the most intricate design, while others were frankly mystifying with ruffles winding from hip to hem in striking drapes and graduated petticoats.

White Scottish plaids, while several models displayed plaid silk underskirts showing several inches below the hem.

Even sports models, featuring green, blue, beige and red plaids and stripes combined with plain colors, were exhibited with complicated vests and trousers houses. The evening gowns used several materials and colors in one model.

White cotton lace combined with organic, velvet, tulle and flowers applied on net, rows of narrow lace stitched on voile, and black stitching on light crepe, were among the newest evening notes.

Brilliant large flowered chiffons designed in overlapping drapes and tiers were a favorite among the exhibits.

States Banquet Exec For Saturday Evening

Bishop Trus Lowe of Portland will be honor guest tomorrow evening at the annual States banquet to be sponsored by the women of the First Methodist Episcopal church, beginning at 6:30 o'clock. Dr. Yarns will also be among the special guests.

A large crowd is anticipated for this gathering, Mrs. Orin Schenk, who is chairman of tickets and table reservations, stated yesterday. Much interest has been shown in the event and a splendid program has been prepared by Mrs. M. N. Hogan and Mrs. A. G. Bennett.

Guests will be seated at the tables according to their birthplaces and are thus given a wonderful opportunity to meet local people, who are friends of their friends, and recall many pleasant happenings of former days. Many new friendships are made at these banquets each year. Therefore they have a special appeal for new residents of Medford and many reservations are being made with Mrs. Schenk for the affair.

Expansion in London theaters has provided 16,000 additional seats in two years.

Woman's Music Club Is Organized Here

(By Mrs. E. E. Gore) A group of musicians and music-lovers met by invitation, at the home of Mrs. C. H. Paske, Thursday morning for the purpose of listening to a short program of classic music, and also to organize a woman's music club.

After a discussion of Medford's musical needs, organization was effected with the selection of the following officers: President, Mrs. C. H. Paske; vice president, Mrs. Effie Yeoman; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. E. E. Gore.

A tribute of appreciation was paid to the Andrews and Hazelrigg families, who through a period of twenty years left nothing undone that would advance the community in musical culture.

Plans were also discussed for managing a concert by an outstanding artist, for preparing programs by local musicians, for taking active interest in the development of youthful talent and also for devising means of focusing attention on music.

Miss Laubscher Honored At Dinner Party

Covers were placed for 12 at the no-hostess dinner party at the Blue Flower Lodge last evening given in compliment to Miss Edith Laubscher of the Jackson County Health unit staff, who will leave the first of next week to make her home in Seattle.

Dinner was followed by three tables of bridge.

The guest list included Miss Laubscher, honor guest, Miss Josephine Koppes, Mrs. Lydia King, Miss Jean Steele, Miss Winifred Tritch, Miss Olga Anderson, Miss Lucille Garrett, Mrs. Aubrey Norris, Mrs. Elva Mitchell, Mrs. Josephine Jones, Mrs. Justin Smith and Mrs. Louis Jennings.

Organize Club In Klamath Falls

Mrs. C. T. Sweeney, Mrs. W. H. McGowan of this city and Mrs. W. H. McNair and Mrs. H. G. Enders of Ashland motored to Klamath Falls yesterday to organize a Zulema Temple Nile club in that city.

The organization meeting was held in the Masonic temple and a club organized with a membership of 16. Mrs. Elmer Balsiger was appointed temporary chairman of the club and was later elected president.

Mrs. Swigert, Miss Thorsen Are Guests Here

Interesting guests in Medford this week are Mrs. C. F. Swigert, Jr., and Miss Helen Thorsen of Portland, who arrived last evening by motor to visit Mrs. Swigert's father, Dr. W. H. Heckman and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weaver at their home, Corning Court. Mrs. Swigert and Miss Thorsen chose the coast highway for making the trip to Medford and visited friends in the Coos bay region while en route.

Ceremonial Rehearsal Will Be Tomorrow

Many members of the local society will motor to Ashland tomorrow to join other officers and members of Zulema Temple, Daughters of the Nile, in practicing for the coronation to be held next week honoring the visit of the supreme queen.

Woodcraft Circle Meets Wednesday

PHOENIX, Ore., Jan. 30.—(Sp.)—Wednesday night the Neighbors of Woodcraft, Circle No. 22, met at the W. O. W. hall with a goodly number of members present.

Announcement was made of the card party Saturday night at W. O. W. hall. February 21 the prizes will be awarded to the person having the highest score for the series of games this winter. The committee in charge of the entertainment and lunch for the evening are Mrs. Bertha Coats, Mrs. Ida Bishop and Fred Daugherty.

The next regular meeting of the order will be held February 11. After the meeting a lunch will be served to all lodge members and their husbands.

Losers Entertain Winners Thursday

The members of the Musketeer Bridge club who have won the most games during the club year were guests yesterday afternoon of the losers at luncheon at the Hotel Medford and a theatre party at the Holly. Covers were placed for eight at the luncheon table. Hostesses were Mesdames J. L. Woodcock, Hanna Sweetland, Claudia Pritchard and Miss Dot Berry and guests, Mrs. Earl Gray, Mrs. Chas. Woods, Miss Anna Deitweiler and Mrs. Ed Mann.

SEARCH FOR BEAN TO RESIST BLIGHT

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Apparently the best control for bacterial blight which, second to anthracnose, is the worst bean disease, is the development of blight-resistant varieties, says Dr. W. J. Zammit, assistant government pathologist.

The annual loss from the disease approximates a quarter of a million bushels. Losses in bad seasons have run as high as 75 per cent of the crop.

In isolated instances and in particularly bad years complete destruction of a field is not uncommon.

BILLIE HAMMETT RETAINS LEAD AS QUEEN CANDIDATE

All candidates in the junior carnival queen race at Medford high school made large gains in the number of votes polled, but Billie Hammett, junior candidate, retained the lead by nearly 8000 votes over her nearest rival, Harriett Campbell, senior.

The standings at the close of voting last night were: Billie Hammett, 29,200; Harriett Campbell, 12,300; Theda Moore, 5800; Vivienne Meader, 4900.

Rumors that backers of certain candidates were withholding their votes until the last and then plan to put their choice over with a rush were heard around the high school.

The coronation of the successful queen will take place at 8 o'clock Friday evening, February 6, with the doors of the carnival opening at 7:30. To advertise the high school parade will be staged in the business district of Medford Friday afternoon after school at 2:30 o'clock.

Prizes are being offered by the junior class for the best decorated floats and the most original. Awards will also be given to the best booths at the carnival that evening.
