BOWLE'S TRIAL UNWELCOME IN EUGENE COURT

University Plans to Protect Change of Venue to Lane County—Would Disrupt Classes.

EUGENE, Ore., Feb. 5.—(AP)—Anticipating the possibility that a change of venue may be granted in the murder trial of Nelson C. Bowles and from Loucks, his former secretary, the University of Oregon is prepared to protest against carrying the case to Lane county.

Bowles and Miss Loucks are charged with the murder of Bowles' wife.

Protests that holding the trial in Eugene would disrupt classes at the university have been received by the administration from the Oregon Dads' organization and from individual parents.

A letter from O. Lauringard, president of Oregon Dads, expressed the belief that holding the trial here would lead many students to "out" classes that they might attend the trial. The moral effect, too, was cited as an objection.

Mrs. Paul Ager, secretary to President Arnold Bennett Hall, said protests will be addressed to Presiding Judge Evans at Portland should the trial be taken from Multnomah county to Lane county.

Beginning in big cities are said to be making as much as $15,000 a year. Here's another class, we should think, which ought to be allowed to feel the pinch.—Boston Herald.

"Beau Ideal" Opens at Holly Today

Loretta Young and Ralph Forbes in Radio Pictures' dramatization of "Beau Ideal," sequel to "Beau Geste."

For those looking for adventure, drama, sweeping action, colorful backgrounds and exotic atmosphere—"Beau Ideal" is now at the Holly theatre. It is the talkie sequel to the famous "Beau Geste." It is the sequel to Bronson's great silent film success, "Beau Geste," but assumes the advantages of the talkie over the silent film. Those who have read the novel know the plot has punch. A capable cast, characters that are more human and within the wide scope of the action, distinguishes "Beau Ideal."

CARNIVAL QUEEN RESULT WILL BE TOLD ON FRIDAY

Big upheavals in the standings of the class candidates in the annual Junior carnival at the local high school are promised as the contest enters into its last day today.

Polls closed today at 12 o'clock, and final results of the election will be published in the school paper, the H-Times, and issued Friday noon.

At the close of voting last night Harriett Campbell, senior, still retained her lead over the other three nominees, although it was not a large one. Theda Moore, freshman, leaped into second place; Vivian Meader was close behind at third, and the junior candidate, Billie Hammett, was a considerable distance behind.

Votes were: Harriett Campbell, 66,000; Theda Moore, 55,500; Vivian Meader, 52,400, and Billie Hammett, 38,800.

Bill Cunningham, football tackle, was a poor fifth for the pole-hauling prize, with only 1,600 votes. His supporters, the order of the M Men, are reported to be clinging to his standard, but political critics say he stands a poor chance to carry off the beauty prize.

"The Great Meadow" Has Scenic Splendor

The charming touch of Charles Robin, invariably excellent in the direction of historical dramas, is evident all through M.G.M.'s new historical romance, "The Great Meadow," which opened its north-west premier at the Fox Criterion theatre yesterday.

John Mack Brown, of "Billy the Kid"; Eleanor Boardman, and Gavin Gordon, Greta's leading man in "Romance," have the principal roles in this talking picture version of the much-discussed Elizabeth Madox Roberts story.

All three of these excellent artists acquit themselves admirably. The Enoch Arden twist of the story, when Brown comes back to his log house to find his wife married to another, is particularly effective.

Indian fights along the Wilderness road and at Fort Harrod, Kentucky, are particular features of this tale.

Other well known picture and stage players who are seen to good advantage include Lucille La Verne, Anita Louise, and Guilan Williams.

Rialto Cowboy Star Enjoys Saddle Life

Working under hot lights in a studio would put the average cowboy out of commission in about three days, declared Bob Steele, star of "The Sunrise Trail," which is coming to the Rialto theatre tomorrow for a run of two days.

After the last day's work on "The Sunrise Trail" which lasted eighteen hours because of the company's determination to finish on that date, Bob went to bed for fourteen hours. Upon arising he still felt tired, and consequently loaded his horse with a blanket and sufficient provisions, and left home for three days, riding steadily, and sleeping on the hard ground at night. He returned rejuvenated, and said that he did a lot of rest and relaxation.

FLOAT PARADE ON FRIDAY TO BOOST JUNIOR CARNIVAL

Decorated floats of various kinds advertising the Junior Carnival to be given at the local high school Friday night, will parade the city streets on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Cash prizes have been offered by the junior class for the two best decorated floats and for two adjudged the best in advertising the carnival. The parade will move down Oakdale to West Main, down Main to Riverside and back up Sixth and Holly to the high school.

Arrangements for the parade are under the direction of Miss Clita Walden. George Harrington is general chairman and his student assistants are: Bill Kulpis, Ruth Ottoman, Sybil Jean Young, and Carvel Reames.

The carnival proper is scheduled to start at 7 o'clock in the evening and run until 11:30, with the coronation of the carnival queen as the crowning event at 8 o'clock.

BEN TROWBRIDGE HEIR WILL MAKE HOME HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Trowbridge are the parents of a son, weighing six pounds, born at the Sacred Heart hospital this morning. The little boy, who is the grandson of Mrs. Alice Trowbridge and Jao. W. Johnson, has been named Wells Benjamin. Mother and baby are getting along nicely.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes these good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile dosing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Request a substitute.
