

The Week's Society Happenings

Edited By
Eva Nealon

Bridge Luncheons Enjoyable Events Mrs. Platt's Home

Lovely affairs of the week were the bridge luncheons given by Mesdames Earl Gaddis and Hal Platt at the latter's home Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. There were five tables of bridge in play each day and luncheon served at the small tables, which were decorated in spring flowers of pastel shades. Prizes at cards for the two afternoons were awarded Mesdames M. W. Warner, A. F. Stennett, V. J. Emerick, Van Gilbert, Roy Shreve, Ralph Cowgill and G. C. Robertson.

Local Music Lovers Will Hear Robeson

Among the many followers of music who will be at the Portland auditorium tomorrow evening to hear Paul Robeson, great negro baritone, in his long anticipated coast appearance, will be Mrs. Gordon Voorhies and daughter, Mrs. Sprague Riesel, of this city. Mrs. Voorhies and Mrs. Riesel left Medford by motor Saturday morning for the northern city.

College Women Are Guests Kelly Home

Members of the Rogue River college women's club met with Mrs. E. E. Kelly at her home on Queen Anne yesterday. Mrs. Hansen reviewed Owen Wister's book, "Rosevelt, the Story of a Friendship," as the leading feature of the program. Refreshments were served by a committee with Mrs. H. F. Nordwick as chairman.

Birthday Dinner Honors Mr. Hansen Saturday

Complimenting Mr. Hansen's birthday anniversary, Mrs. H. O. Hansen entertained last evening with a dinner at the Hotel Holland, followed by bridge at the Hansen home on Queen Anne avenue.

Covers were placed for 12 at the dinner table attractively arranged with bouquets of spring flowers.

Formal Dance Will Greet Springtime, Pan Hellenic Plan

A formal dancing party to greet the lovely spring season will be sponsored Friday evening by the local chapter of Pan Hellenic for members and their friends. The dance will be held in the small hall of the Natatorium and will be preceded by numerous dinner parties now being arranged by members of the local college crowd.

Arrangements are being made to entertain 75 couples. The committee completing plans for the dance is composed of Mrs. Robert Hart, general chairman; Mrs. Don Newbury, decorations; Mrs. Jack Garrett, tickets; Mrs. Emerson Merrick, music; and Mrs. Wm. Lee Bricker, favors.

Mrs. Reames Among Hostesses of Week

Mrs. E. A. Reames was hostess yesterday afternoon at a spring luncheon. Covers were placed for eight on the table, decorated with many early blossoms.

Southerners Enjoy Tennessee Program

Mesdames Pottlauer, Fry and Satchwell entertained the Dixie club Saturday, February 7 at the home of Mrs. Pottlauer on East Jackson street.

Mrs. Satchwell had charge of the program which consisted of studies from Tennessee and was sponsored by those members whose homes were from that state. Mrs. Briggs reviewed "Green Pastures" by Marc Connelly. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Edgells Entertain At Dinner Monday

Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Edgell invited a group of friends to their home Monday evening for dinner. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Newhall, Mr. P. W. Hammill, Mr. T. Slater Johnston, Mrs. Marjory Feasley and Mrs. Alice Holloway.

She Reigns at Junior Carnival

Miss Billie Hammett, popular high school miss, who was elected queen to rule at the Junior Carnival held Friday, February 6th. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hammett and is shown here in the royal robes in which she appeared in the parade and at the carnival, which followed.

Dance Will Follow Close of Lent for Local Enthusiasts

With the Lenten season opening this week the eyes of society are already gazing forward to the event which will renew festivities following the beautiful Easter day. It will be the Easter Monday ball to be held April 6 in the Oriental Gardens under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the Medford post, American Legion. Rejoicing which the world has known since the first Easter morning will be expressed in the elaborateness of the party planned in abundance will lend fragrance and color to the occasion. Numerous features are being planned by the committee in charge, which is Mrs. F. G. Bunch and Mrs. W. S. Bolger, general chairman; Mrs. Goodwin Humphrey and Mrs. C. T. Baker, tickets; advertising, Mrs. Grace Voss decorations, Mrs. Belya Aiken.

Edward Reames to Head Frosh Glee On Eugene Campus

News from the University of Oregon and other schools where members of the local younger set are students brings proof each week that Medford's youths are playing a prominent part in both the scholastic and social activities of their respective schools. Edward Reames, son of Attorney and Mrs. Evan Reames, is chairman of the Frosh Glee, made for social event of the school year sponsored by the freshman class. Several numbers of the Oregon Daily Emerald, campus publication, carried his picture on the front page last week. The Frosh Glee will be held April 11 and chairmanship of the large affair is always awarded one of the class' most prominent and efficient members.

Miss Laura Drury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Drury, also figures in recent news events at the university. She was awarded the silver loving cup presented by Kappa Alpha Theta to the most outstanding pledge in the sorority.

Moty Home Scene Of Bridge Party

The K. M. Moty home at 704 West Tenth street was the scene of a pleasant gathering of friends Friday afternoon when Mrs. Moty was hostess to a dozen ladies for an afternoon of bridge. Individual hearts and cups in ice cream were served by the hostess. High score was held by Mrs. Hunter and consolation by Mrs. Morris.

Ashland Musicians To Be February 23

Members of the Greater Medford club and the various music clubs of the city are invited to attend the musicale to be given in the Presbyterian church of Ashland Monday, February 23 under the auspices of the Ashland Music Study club. Mrs. C. Morsehouse is president of the club.

St. Mary's Academy Students Complete Evening With Dance

The young people of St. Mary's academy and friends, following the basketball game Friday evening, enjoyed a dancing party in Parish hall. The ladies of the parish sponsored the affair. Refreshments were served, complimenting the Prospect team, and all enjoyed the evening. The ladies promise to repeat the courtesy to promote more sociability among the younger set and help to boost the interest in basketball.

Valentine Card Party Pleasant Event Saturday

Mrs. Cora Powell was hostess last evening at a Valentine card party at her home on Almond street. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Kilton, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Pense, Mr. and Mrs. M. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wakefield and Mr. Louis Bashaw.

Nile Daughters to Enjoy Dinner Party

Mrs. Ralph Woodford and Mrs. O. D. Frazer are entertaining Zulema Temple Daughters of the Nile Patrol Monday evening, February 16, at 6:30 o'clock dinner. The dinner will be served at Mrs. Woodford's home on South Holly.

Carnation Club To Meet Thursday

The Carnation club will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. D. Elliott, 214 West Jackson, Come and bring friends.

Musical Evening Is Enjoyed Wednesday H. H. Corliss Home

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Corliss entertained a number of friends at their home Wednesday evening, February 11. The evening was pleasantly spent with music. Songs were sung by Mrs. Yeoman, Miss Curry and Mr. Corliss; Mrs. Andrews accompanied on the piano. Mr. Ed Andrews gave several readings which were very enjoyable. At 11 o'clock a three course lunch was served. The table was beautifully decorated in pink and green sweetpeas and smilax. The invited guests were Mrs. Effie Yeoman, Miss Eleanor Curry, Mrs. Ella Andrews, Mrs. Eva Carless, Miss Evelyn Wold, George Andrews Jr., Mr. Ed Andrews, Dr. Dan E. Standard, Dr. Susie Standard, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Wold, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thordike and Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Frazer.

St. Patrick's Dance Major Interest of Local B. P. W. Club

A gala event of St. Patrick's day will be the dancing party at the Oriental Gardens to be sponsored by the local Business and Professional Women's club. The committee working under Mrs. Clarice Spohn, chairman, is arranging several special features for the dance. Decorations will be in keeping with the all-Irish holiday.

A dinner party Tuesday evening at the Blue Flower lodge is the first social event scheduled for the very near future for members of the Business and Professional Women's club. The program for the evening will include an instructive talk on International Relations and cards and other amusements will follow the dinner. The meetings for this month will all be in charge of the International Relations committee.

Cars will leave the Chamber of Commerce building for the Blue Flower lodge at 6:15 and transportation will be available for all members who wish to attend the party.

Plans are also under way for the Medford club to send a large delegation to the Oregon state convention, which will be held in Salem in May. Miss Vera Humphrey is chairman of the committee to be known as "Trail 'em to Salem."

Mrs. Kyle Hostess Luncheon Friday

Mrs. Elmer Kyle entertained at one o'clock luncheon Friday. Covers were placed for eight at a beautifully appointed table, with centerpiece of red carnations and red tapers, carrying out the Valentine motif.

Several tables of bridge were enjoyed during the afternoon, the high score being held by Mrs. Bridane L. Sanderson and the second high by Mrs. Alvin Tolleson.

Mrs. Kyle's guests were Mesdames Roy Jones, Earl Leover, Merle Kiddle, Alvin Tolleson, Leonard Freeman, Bridane Sanderson, and Donald Hutchison.

Bridge Party Event Of Tuesday Evening

Mrs. E. C. Jerome and Miss Maurine Carroll were hostesses on Tuesday evening at a bridge party at Mrs. Jerome's home for members of the staff bridge club and guests.

Prizes for high score were awarded Miss Hilda Bundy and Mrs. Wilson Wait.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox To Entertain O. S. C. Club Mr. and Mrs. David Wilcox will entertain the Oregon State College club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Butterfield on Minnesota avenue Monday evening. All former students are invited. The meeting will be called at eight o'clock.

Miss Norris Bride Of Mr. Jeter, Home Wedding This City

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rinabarger was the scene of a pretty wedding Monday morning at 11 o'clock when Miss Mary Susan Norris, youngest daughter of Mrs. Nettie B. Norris and sister of Mrs. Rinabarger became the bride of Mr. Wilford Jeter of Etna, Cal., son of Mrs. J. R. Morgan of Yreka.

The ring ceremony was read by Rev. W. H. Eaton, pastor of the First Baptist church, before a number of ferns and potted plants. The bride wore a gown of turquoise blue crepe and wore a corsage of rosebuds and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Lois Norris, was her maid of honor and was also attired in blue and wore a corsage of pink sweetpeas. Mr. Rinabarger was the groom's attendant.

The ceremony was followed by a buffet wedding breakfast for which the table was decorated with sweetpeas, ferns and pink tapers. Mrs. Rinabarger was assisted in serving by Mrs. Docia Norris of Klamath Falls.

Guests for the wedding and breakfast were: Mrs. Morgan and little son and daughter, Miss Viola Jeter, Mr. Harry Ward, Mrs. Nettie B. Norris and Miss Lois Norris of Yreka, Mrs. Docia Norris of Klamath Falls and Mr. Willson Pruitt, Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Eaton and Frankie and Roland Rinabarger of this city.

Following the wedding the bride and groom left for a trip to northern points. They will make their home in Etna, Cal., where Mr. Jeter is editor of the Western Sentinel.

Thursday Musicales New Club Greeted By Local Society

The first regular meeting of the Thursday Musicales was held Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. C. H. Paske with eighteen musicians present. The constitution and by-laws were read and an interesting program of music enjoyed.

Miss Genevieve Brown played a group of piano numbers, "Farewell to the Piano" by Beethoven, and "Polonaise" by Cramm.

Mrs. Eunice Hillis sang "At Dawn" and "Morning" by D'Harcot and was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. T. J. Amosaker.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Hillis, March 5.

Mrs. C. H. Paske is president of the recently organized group and Mrs. Effie Herbert Yeoman, vice president. Mrs. E. E. Gore is secretary-treasurer.

Guid Party Postponed Until After Lent

The party planned for tomorrow evening at the St. Mark's Guild hall by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew has been postponed because of the death of Mr. Thomas M. Swem, Sr., and will not be held until after the close of the lenten season.

Popular Co-Ed

Jane Warner—of the famous Warner football family headed by "Pop," coach of Stanford's team—was selected for College Humor's March Hall of Fame. Miss Warner, a Delta Gamma at the University of Oregon, likes football better than any other sport and thinks "Pop's" system is the best in the world. She is well known among members of the local university group.

Mrs. Meeker Gives Party For Former Residents of City

Mrs. C. A. Meeker entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Canaday and Mrs. Austin of Roseburg. The guests were formerly members of the Philochea class of the Methodist Sunday school. Games and contests were enjoyed. Miss Phipps received first prize, Mrs. Canaday and Mrs. Austin guest prizes of corsage bouquets of sweet peas and fern. Headings were given by Mrs. Canaday which were much appreciated. Sweet peas, fern and pink tapers were used in table decorations where a buffet lunch was served, suggestive of Valentine's day.

Mrs. Satterlee assisted the hostess in serving. The guests were Mesdames Canaday, Austin, Bilton, Reiden, Flak, Chirgwin, Satterlee, Holloway, Griffith, Howell, Minoar, Meeker, Misses Matney, Bateman and Phipps.

Mrs. Solinsky Is Popular Hostess

Mrs. E. C. Solinsky who is giving a lovely series of bridge luncheons during the early spring season, entertained at her home again yesterday afternoon.

Lady Lions Plan Progressive Party

Plans for a progressive party for St. Patrick's day are being considered by members of the Lady Lions club. Definite arrangements for the affair will be announced at an early date.

Commanders Ball Important Event For Next Friday

The most brilliant social affair of the Knight Templar season—the Commanders ball and card party—will be an event of Friday evening at the Masonic temple in Ashland. Invitations are being issued by Alta Commandery, No. 4 for the occasion. R. W. Lee of this city is commander. All Knights Templar will appear in uniforms for the event.

Many Enjoy Dance Royal Arch Masons Sponsor on Friday

One hundred guests enjoyed the delightful dancing party in the Masonic ball room Friday evening sponsored by the Royal Arch Masons for Masons and their invited friends.

A pleasing feature of the evening were the dance numbers presented by pupils of Dixie Ambler Harvey. Music for the party was furnished by a local orchestra. Plans for another dance to be held in the near future are being made.

Past Matrons Enjoy Luncheon and Cards

Fourteen members of the Past Matrons club of Grants Pass attended the luncheon given in their honor by the Past Matrons club of Reames chapter Monday in the local Masonic hall.

Tables for the occasion were tastefully arranged with a lovely valentine dall for centerpiece, surrounded with tapers and small valentines, which served as place-cards. Sprays of smilax and a red carnation as favor at each place completed the decorations. The latter were the gift of Mrs. Edna Leanes of the local club.

During the luncheon a program of music and readings was presented. Mrs. C. O. Larson sang a solo and each member was called upon for a valentine reading. The luncheon closed with community singing.

Following luncheon bridge was enjoyed with prizes going to Mesdames Gray, Seebach and Cornell. The party was arranged by the officers, Mrs. R. G. Fowler, Miss Weeks and Mrs. Woodford, with the assistance of the members.

Mrs. Brown to Visit Home

Mrs. Bart Brown (Arline Normile), a former well known resident of Medford, and two children left their home at Long Beach, Cal., today for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. R. A. Koppes, and family.

CHICAGO CIVIC OPERA CO. PORTLAND Public Auditorium March 12-13-14

Matinee, March 14
Entire Chicago Company of 314
30 World renowned stars
Orchestra of 65—Entire Chorus and Ballet—3 special troupes.

REPERTOIRE:
Thurs. Night, March 12
"LA TRAVIATA"
Muzio, Schipa, John Charles Thomas,
Oliviero, Deferre, d'Hermanoy,
Sandrini, Nicholich and others.
Ballet.
Conductor—ROBERTO MORAN-
ZONI

Friday Night, March 13
DIE WALKURER
Frida, Leiser, Olaszowska, Redell,
Kipka, Strack, Baromeo, Glade,
Sharova and others.
Conductor—EMIL COOPER

Saturday Matinee, March 14
LUCIA DI LAMMERMOOR
Savi, Schipa, Bonelli, Baromeo,
Cavadoro, d'Hermanoy, Oliviero and others. Ballet.
Conductor—FRANK ST. LEGER

Saturday Night, March 14
Double Bill
CAVALLERIA RUSTICANA
Muzio, Tourel, Cortis, Deferre, Rberhart and others.
Conductor—ROBERTO MORAN-
ZONI

Followed by
I. PAGLIUCCI
Burke, Marxhall, Formichl, Cavadore, Deferre and others.
Conductor—FRANK ST. LEGER
Followed by Ballet.

PRICES (NO TAX)
Floor—20 rows $6.00
13 rows 5.00
Dress Circle Center 5.00
Sides 4.00
Balcony—Center 4.00
Sides, 4 rows 3.00
Sides, 5 rows 2.00

TICKETS BY MAIL
Tickets may be ordered by mail.
Send orders and make checks to Chicago Opera, % Sherman Clay's,
Portland. Enclose self addressed, stamped envelope for return of tickets.
Orders received by long distance
telephone or telegraph.
Call Beacon 6261.

TODAY—One Day Only
Continous Shows—1:15 to 11:15

AMERICA'S GIRL FRIEND IS BACK AGAIN IN

Playing Around

with Alice White

and CHESTER MORRIS

Based on "Playing Around," by Frances Nordstrom. Adopted from Vina Delmar's "Sheba."

Here she is as Captain Kidd to steal your heart away. See and hear the whole wonderful show—the Pirate's Den and Pirate Girls in tricky ensembles... night clubs, gangster hang-outs, fights. Hear Alice sing "You're My Captain Kidd," "The Lowdown on the Lowdown," "You Learn About Love Every Day." She's better and peppier than ever before.

HOLY

Begins TOMORROW
TALKIE! SINGIE LAFFIE!
"HARD TO GET"
with
DOROTHY MACKAILL
Jack Oakie - Charles Delaney

Dorothy Mackaill

ANNOUNCEMENT

WE WISH to again call your attention to our new Home Service Department, which we have added with the desire to further assist the housewife in the methods of Modern Cookery.

Mrs. Claire Scott is director of this new department and invites you to bring any problems or difficulties you may have to the Home Service Department.

If you prefer, Mrs. Scott will call at your home by appointment, at any hour you may specify and work with you in an endeavor to help you get the most from your gas service with the greatest economy.

Do not hesitate to take advantage of this additional free service. Call either by telephone or in person.

Southern Oregon Gas Corp.
"Home of Instant Heat"
200 West Main Street Phone 526

Quaint! New!
Flattering!
Are These Spring Modes!

A NEW coat is quite indispensable this season, when your smartness depends so completely on the individuality of your clothes. We have many distinctive styles from which you may choose at a convenient price.

Chic Hats That
Speak of Spring

Adrienne's

"New Distinctive Apparel for Women"