OLED LICENSE BILL RECEIVES SENATE'S OKEH

Tax of $1000 On Manufacture, $500 On Wholesaler and $100 On Retailer in Provisions.

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 17.—(AP)—Oleomargarine found its friends as well as its enemies when one of the chief measures directed against the oleo industry came up for third reading in the senate late yesterday.

The bill was introduced by the senate committee on agriculture, though originally it was Senator Joe E. Dunne's bill. It places a tax of $1000 a year on manufacturers, $500 a year on wholesalers and $100 a year on retailers of oleomargarine.

Opponents of the bill declared that it flew "in the face of correct economic principle," and that it would work a hardship on the poor man, for the reason that it would increase the price of butter at the same time that it increases the price of oleomargarine.

Senator B. L. Eddy was one of those who said the bill was wrong in principle, and he said he was voting for it only because all the dairymen in his county wanted him to.

VIRGINIA VALLI, CHAS. FARRELL ON HONEYMOON

Screen Stars Secretly Wed in Yonkers Saturday—Romance Dates Back to Hollywood Days.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Secretly married for three days, Charley Farrell and the former Virginia Valli, screen stars, leave tonight on the liner Augustus for a European honeymoon. They were married in Yonkers, N. Y., shortly after midnight Saturday.

With the traditional superstition of actor folk, Miss Valli balked at being married on Friday the 13th, even if it meant two trips to Yonkers and a midnight wedding to dodge the jinx.

The marriage was performed at the parsonage of Rev. Ralph Houston, a first Methodist church, about 12:30 a. m. Saturday, the 14th.

The witnesses included Mrs. John J. Regan, who was formerly Alice Joyce; Blanche Sweet, Carlton Hookstra, Farrell's manager, and Albert Scott, a friend of Farrell.

Secrecy Explained. Farrell explained to friends that his reason for the elaborate secrecy was that he wished to be aboard the liner on his honeymoon before news of his marriage reached Hollywood.

The romance dates back four years to Hollywood's lots. She already was a featured player in Universal Pictures. He was just beginning his meteoric career. Under her tutelage, he climbed the heights rapidly, sealing his success with Janet Gaynor in a series of popular pictures. His latest was "The Man Who Came Back."

The bride is a native of Chicago, where she was born Virginia Sweeney. The groom hails from New England. It is her second marriage, she having divorced Demarest Lamson several years ago. It is his first venture.
