APPLE SHIPMENTS FROM NORTHWEST HEAVY FOR WEEK

PORTLAND, Feb. 27. — (AP) — Portland wholesale butter and egg quotations opened unchanged today.

Butter market was very firm, receipts barley enough for demand, specially strong on 90 score.

Egg market opened easy with considerable excess of undergrade stock looking for takers.

Dressed poultry market opened with medium and light weight hens up 1 cent to 13 and 15 cents a pound respectively, due to good demand for all weights.

Appleloadings from northwestern shipping districts are rather heavy this week, in order that warehouse inventories as of March 1 may be reduced to a maximum, for tax assessment purposes. Several carlonds of fancy and extra fancy Spitzenbergs are still in storage at Portland.

Oregon onion growers have sold their U. S. No. 1 stock as low as $50 per car load this week. Purchaser pays for bags, but the grower sorts and delivers to the railroad at this price.

CAR CRASHES THROUGH SHOP AND INJURES MAN

SAMS VALLEY, Ore., Feb. 27. (Spl.) — Perhaps a more complicated method of injuring a person's hand could not be devised without some trouble than that used by John Jones and his son Paul the other day.

Mr. Jones was filing a saw in his shop, and his son was cranking his Ford on top of the hill above the shop. The wheel of the car was jacked up, and when the jack slipped, the Ford ran with some speed down the hill.

The shop was a small object in the way of the machine, and it crashed through the wall with such force that it knocked Mr. Jones against the saw, causing a severe wound in his hand.
