Brisbane's Today (Continued from Page One)

the state of Vera Cruz, that passes a law limiting the number of priests in the state to one for 100,000 population. As there are three bishops in Vera Cruz the number of priests will be limited to seven, whereas churches in the state, all Catholic, total 1200. The Bishop of Vera Cruz, Monsignor Guizot Valencin, declares that the churches will have to be closed. Anti-religious outbreaks in countries almost one hundred per cent Catholic are puzzling and bound to bring serious trouble. The antagonism is known to be political, promoted by a few ringleaders.

Sailors don't like changes, and the officers are like the sailors.

8,500 British navigators resent the suggestion that "port" and "starboard" be changed to "left" and "right." The objection is based on the fact that Chinese and other eastern sailors employed as roustabouts, know little English, and would not understand.

Nothing succeeds like success, Russia proves it. Timidity has vanished from the Russian government. Those on the inside no longer talk about a "war of capitalist nations against the soviet republic."

As to this great country, it may interest you to know that, in the mind of Russia, we are "writing off." Stalin and his followers decide that we have too many worries of our own to bother with us. The five-year plan is working and our "best minds" are wisely beginning to inquire how they did it, instead of repeating, dully, "they can't do it."

If you are one of the mournful brigade holding on to stocks bought two years ago, and hoping for a return, it may encourage you to know that a few, at least, of the big bears are turning to the other side. But don't do any gambling on that information, or you will regret it, as you now regret the other gamble.
