

The Week's Society Happenings

Edited By
Eva Nealon

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Guests of Medford Relatives, Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Winsor Gale arrived in Medford the last of the week from Portland to visit Mr. Gale's grandfather, Judge Wm. Colvig and other relatives before Mr. Gale, who recently graduated from the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, reports for duty on the U. S. S. Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale were married June 7 in the chapel at the Naval Academy, their wedding being an important event in Annapolis and Baltimore society. Mrs. Gale was formerly Katharine Ing, popular Baltimore debutante. They were accompanied on the trip west by Mr. Gale's mother, Mrs. Floyd Cook of Portland, who went east for her son's graduation and wedding.

They motored to Medford via Coos Bay and Crescent City.

Miss Bardwell Home For Summer Vacation

Miss Betty Bardwell, student of the Marlborough school for girls in Los Angeles, has returned to this city for the summer vacation. She was accompanied on the return from the south by her mother, Mrs. R. G. Bardwell.

Mrs. Conroy Visiting In San Francisco

Mrs. Helen Conroy and children left Friday for San Francisco.

Mrs. Fish Hostess At Bridge Luncheon Friday Afternoon

Mrs. Raymond Fish was hostess Friday at a bridge luncheon at her home near Phoenix honoring her mother, Mrs. Samuel VanDyke, who is her house guest from Los Angeles.

Following luncheon there were four tables of bridge in play with prizes going to Mrs. Harry N. Butler and Mrs. W. A. Thompson.

Student Group Will Travel in England

Miss Roxane Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhl, who has been a student at Vassar for the past year, sailed from New York Saturday for England, with a group of classmates.

The party will enjoy a bicycle trip through England and return to the states in late summer. Miss Ruhl will arrive in Medford the middle of August to spend the remainder of the summer with her parents.

Iversons Celebrate
Wedding Anniversary
Rev. and Mrs. E. Iverson celebrated their wedding anniversary last Tuesday evening at their home on Ross Court. A group of friends surprised them by arriving with many gifts. After a delightful evening the guests departed wishing them many such happy occasions.

Reames Chapter to Have Last Session
Social night and the last session of the year will be held Wednesday by members of Reames chapter, O. E. S. The meeting is in charge of Mrs. Fred Strang.

Mary Snider

Selected as representative of Kappa Delta sorority at the University of Oregon to the national convention in New York City, she will leave for the east tomorrow. Miss Snider is the daughter of Mrs. Maud Snider of this city and an outstanding first year student at the university.

Miss McCurdy Honor Guest Bridge Party

Miss Doris Patton entertained yesterday afternoon with a bridge party complimenting her guest, Miss Margaret McCurdy of Portland, who plans to spend two weeks here. Twelve guests enjoyed her hospitality.

Miss Patton returned a few days ago from attending Packer Institute, young women's school at Brooklyn, N. Y. She was met in Portland by her mother, Mrs. Hamilton Patton and Miss McCurdy, who made the trip to Medford with her.

Mrs. Robinson Is Feted at Luncheon

Messdames A. W. Pipes and R. W. Sleeter entertained the P. E. O.'s at luncheon and bridge on Thursday afternoon, complimenting Mrs. W. B. Robinson, who leaves soon for Salem. About 30 guests enjoyed their hospitality. The event was held at the Sleeter home.

Miss Hensley Guest
Of Sister Here
Miss Bernyce Hensley of Portland arrived in Medford Friday night to spend several weeks as guest of her sister, Miss Margaret Hensley. Miss Hensley spent last summer in Medford and is remembered by many friends.

Nion Tucker At River Lodge
Mr. and Mrs. Nion Tucker of Burlington are spending several days at their lodge on Rogue River, having joined their son, Nion, Jr., and Michael Tobin there Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowerman
Visiting Relatives
Among the many guests vacationing in Medford this week are Mr. and Mrs. Den Bowerman, formerly of this city, now of Portland, who are visiting Mrs. Bowerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Timmons. Mrs. Elizabeth Bowerman and daughter, both of Eugene, are also Medford guests.

Miss Ward Is Bride of Arthur Osberg at Church Wedding

At a lovely wedding ceremony in the First Methodist Episcopal church, Miss Mildred Ward of Phoenix became the bride of Mr. Arthur L. Osberg of Seattle, Wash., last Thursday afternoon at four o'clock. Rev. A. G. Bennett officiating. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were in attendance.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, with flowers about the altar. The bride wore a lovely gown of ivory satin, reaching to the floor, with a veil of tulle, held in place by a cap of pearls and blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of ivory tinted roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Russell Wheeler of Medford, niece of the bride, as matron of honor, wore soft peach crepe with a corsage bouquet of yellow roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Margaret Smith of Salem, and a sorority sister of the bride, wore pink silk net over satin with a corsage bouquet of deep pink roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Helen Porter of this city, and niece of the bride, wore pale green chiffon with a corsage bouquet of delicate pink roses.

The groom's attendant was Mr. Jean B. Braut.

After a vocal solo, "I Love You Truly," sung by Mrs. C. H. Paske, the wedding procession continued to the altar to the strains of Lohengrin Wedding March.

Following the ceremony a reception and luncheon were held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ward of Phoenix, Oregon.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Osberg, of Seattle, parents of the groom; Miss Margaret Smith and Mr. Clark A. Sterrett of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. P. McIntosh of Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Porter, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ferns, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ward, the Misses Helen, Virginia and Frances Porter and Mrs. Russell Wheeler, all of Medford, and relatives of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Jean B. Braut.

The bride is well known in this city and a popular member of southern Oregon society. She has made her home for the past year in Eugene, where she was employed in an insurance office. She attended Oregon State college and was affiliated with Kappa Delta sorority.

The groom is also well known in this city and is northwest representative for the Estate Store company with headquarters in Portland.

They left immediately after the reception for a motor trip through California and Mexico and will eventually make their home in Seattle.

Miss Louise Leathers

Miss Leathers is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Leathers of Gazelle, Cal., and a popular member of local society. Her engagement was recently announced to Dr. Kurt H. Dyrud, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dyrud of Ashland, who is a graduate of the Portland Dental college and a member of Xi Psi Phi.

Mrs. Padgham Is Head of Graduate Nurses This Year

Mrs. Henry Padgham will head the Graduate Nurses association for the coming year to succeed Miss Marie Miller, having been elected president at the recent meeting of the association held at the Rogue River cabin of Miss Phyllis Swearingen.

Mrs. Padgham is one of the most popular members of the local group. She is a graduate of the Davis-Fisher training school in Atlanta, Ga. Following graduation she spent several years in specializing and institutional work. She then took up public health work in University of Washington and went to the Hawaiian islands to spend a year in this work before coming to Medford, where she was county health nurse until she recently retired to spend more time in her home.

Other officers chosen for the coming year are Mrs. Raymond Fish, re-elected secretary; Mrs. Roland Smith, first vice president; Miss Thelma Kent, second vice president and Miss Carmen Dorothy, treasurer.

The following committees have also been named: Program, Mrs. Hazel Swaine, chairman; Mrs. O. E. Osborne and Mrs. W. S. Holger; advisory—Miss Mayme Blood, chairman, Miss Thelma Kent and Miss Marie Miller; finance—Miss Dorothy, chairman, Miss Taylor and Mrs. Schemek; credentials and membership—Mrs. W. C. Ashpole, chairman, Mrs. Roland Smith and Mrs. Guy Humphreys.

Miss McKay Bride
Of Mr. Thompson
Miss Beasle Edna McKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McKay, and Mr. Lewis Thompson, son of Mrs. Nettie L. Thompson, were married Sunday afternoon, June 14th, at the First Christian church, in the presence of members of the two families, and a number of friends.

To the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Georgianna Hussong, the bridal party advanced to an altar decorated with baskets of flowers in a color scheme of pink and blue, where Rev. W. R. Dated performed the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming gown of white crepe. Her tulle veil was fitted into a cap shape with a bandeau of lace, and she carried a bouquet of pink and white sweetpeas. Her bridesmaid, Miss Edna Hildebrand, wore a gown of pale apricot and white crepe, and a corsage bouquet of sweetpeas.

Mr. P. H. Bateman acted as best man.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Bateman for members of the bridal party and immediate relatives. After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left for Klamath Falls where they will make their home.

Golden Wedding Is Celebrated In Old County Court House

On Tuesday evening one hundred friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bunch of Jacksonville gathered at the old court house, where all Jackson county couples formerly obtained their marriage licenses, to celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary. The hall was beautifully decorated with pink roses for the occasion.

Under a bower of the flowers, Mr. and Mrs. Bunch stood while the impressive wedding service was repeated by Rev. Lunsberg. The wedding march was played by Miss Nida Rose Bunch and little Misses Bernice Wood and Arlene Langberg acted as flower girls. Mr. and Mrs. A. Olmstead were chosen as matron of honor and attendant for the groom since the date was also their seventh wedding anniversary.

The program for the evening included a duet by Miss Alice Hoefs and Mrs. Lulu Sauleberry and readings by Mrs. M. A. Kennon and Mrs. Sauleberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Bunch received a chair as a gift from their friends, the presentation being made by M. A. Kennon. Games were enjoyed and after refreshments were served the honored couple left in a shower of rice and best wishes.

Much credit is due Mrs. Kennon, Mrs. Mae Mark and Mr. Forcythe, who planned the decorations and details for the success of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Bunch have lived in Jacksonville for the past three years, coming here from Coos county, where Mr. Bunch was for several years superintendent of schools.

Townsend's Complete
Stay in Medford
Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Townsend of Los Angeles, who have been visiting Mrs. A. B. Rhoads for the past two weeks, left yesterday morning. They were accompanied by Miss Peggy Rhoads of Medford, who is to spend the summer in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Dutton
Visit in Medford
Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Dutton, of Tracy, Calif., who are here visiting their son, Bruce Dutton, radio operator at the airway radio station, spent today in Klamath Falls. Mr. Dutton is owner and editor of the Tracy Press.

Guest of Hensons
James G. Henson of Klamath Falls is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Henson.

Ranch Home Scene of Lovely Wedding Popular Local Girl

At a colorful wedding Wednesday morning at LaDern, ranch home of Mrs. Georgianna Ayres, in the Redwood forests near Los Gatos, Cal., Miss Mary Swigart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swigart, of this city, and Mr. Elliott Ayres of Palo Alto, were married at a 10 o'clock service, conducted by Dr. Henry Wintler.

The bride, tall, slender and dark, was lovely in a gown of white eyelet organdy and wore a large picture hat and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds. Her maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Swigart, wore a similar gown of pale yellow with large hat and a bouquet of garden flowers in shades of orchid to complete her ensemble.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Tom Ayres.

Following the ceremony the 48 guests continued to the Wake Robin Inn, where breakfast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ayres are now enjoying a motor trip through Old Mexico and will return to Palo Alto to make their home, where Mr. Ayres is associated with the staff of Stanford University.

Ladies' Night Gala Affair at Rogue Elk

A colorful event of the club year was the party given Thursday night by the local Lions at the Rogue Elk Inn in celebration of ladies' night and the installation of new officers. Several new members were initiated and a program of music, dancing and speeches presented.

Liou G. W. Newberry, the new president, gave a very interesting acceptance speech, following installation.

The evening began with a banquet and closed with dancing, music furnished by Hugo Lang and his entertainers.

St. Mark's Choir Honored at Dinner

Members of the St. Mark's Episcopal church choir were honored guests Friday night at a dinner party given by St. Mark's Guild in the parish house. There were 28 members present and the tables were beautifully decorated with sweetpeas and other early summer flowers.

Messdames Stennett, Peter and Woodcock presided in the dining room and the kitchen arrangements were in charge of Messdames Andrews, Paxson and Smith.

Lawrence Honored
By Church Group Here
The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met in the church last Tuesday with a large attendance and an excellent program. During the social hour a reception was held for Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Lawrence, Rev. Lawrence being former pastor of the church. A large group of friends came to meet their former pastor and his wife, wife during their efficient work in Medford made a place in the hearts of their people.

The men of the congregation came in after the meeting to extend greetings. Rev. Lawrence who is now pastor of the Caldwell, Idaho, Presbyterian church was visiting his son Donald in this city, coming here by way of Eugene where his daughter, Miss Ruth, graduated from the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Getchell and Daughter to Return
Mrs. Delroy Getchell and daughter, Gloria, will arrive, early week from Seattle, where Miss Getchell is a student at the St. Nicholas school, and will spend the summer in Medford.

Marriage of Popular
Local Couple Is Told
Announcement of the marriage of Miss Doris Kleinhammer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kleinhammer of Jacksonville, and Marion Worthington, son of Mrs. Martin Stevens, was made last week. The wedding was an event of May 25 in Coquille.

Wilson and Mrs. Graves
On Trip Through East
Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson and daughter, Elbow Mae, and Mrs. A. V. Graves left Medford Wednesday morning for a motor trip east. They will visit relatives and friends in Omaha, Sioux City and Minneapolis. Mrs. Graves will remain in the latter city, while the Wilsons continue to Grand Rapids, Mich., to visit their son.

Wonderland Forms Setting for Bridge Event Butler Home

Miss Gertrude Butler was hostess Friday afternoon at a delightful bridge luncheon for which the decorations were wonderful. Place cards, tables and table decorations represented characters and settings of the famous book of Alice's adventures in the fairyland.

There were four tables of bridge in play and prizes awarded Mrs. Raymond Fish and Mrs. Justin Smith.

Edison Marshall On Trip May Visit Here

Edison Marshall, popular author, and big game hunter, is on another trip in search of tigers, according to telegram received in this city last week and may visit Medford in September, following his return to the states.

He recently sailed from Seattle on the S. S. President Monroe en route to Siam and Indo China.

Mr. Marshall visited in Medford last summer and entertained the public with a lecture, covering his trip through Africa. His friends are anticipating a similar event in the early fall.

Miss Heckman Here For Summer Season

Miss Annette Heckman is in this city to spend the summer with her father, Dr. W. H. Heckman and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weaver at their home on Corning court.

Miss Heckman is supervisor of kindergartens in Hilo, Hawaii, and has spent about four years in the islands.

Messdames Crawford
And Lester Entertain
Mrs. R. W. Crawford and Mrs. J. E. Lester were joint hostesses Tuesday afternoon to the "Bo Jolly Club" at the former's home on the North Pacific highway. The afternoon was spent in playing a series of interesting games. Mrs. Homer Bowerman of Central Point winning first prize and Miss Rose Jones of Central Point the second prize. Refreshments were served at five o'clock.

Those who enjoyed the jolly time with the hostesses were Mrs. E. Hensperger, Jacksonville, Mrs. Zoe and Miss Blanche Arnold, Mrs. J. W. Pruett, Mrs. W. L. Lewis and Mrs. C. Z. Boyden of Medford, Mrs. O. Ames of Yakima, Wash., Mrs. Ted Hill, Mrs. Homer Bowerman and Miss Rose Jones of Central Point.

Mrs. Plymale and Children
Visit in Montana
Mrs. Vera Plymale and children, Robert, Telfer and Mary Elizabeth, left Saturday for Red Lodge, Mont., where they will visit Mrs. Plymale's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman and her brother, Sharon Merrill.

They will be accompanied on their return by Mr. and Mrs. Chapman and will visit the Yellowstone National park, before continuing to Medford.

MILE-HIGH GOLF

Now what altitude does
Clears brain and eye, limbers muscles . . . and your golf shows it . . . Stanley Thompson built the 4,500-yard Buff Course . . . $450, 000 worth of spectacular play, including the baronial Club. Back of it all stands a $9,000,000 hotel—warm sulphur swimming pools, tennis courts, 60 saddle horses,
corals full of mountain ponies . . .
Swiss guides . . . chefs who rival Paris . . . an orchestra that just emphatically you to dance. Low Summer
Rail fares are effective!

CANADIAN PACIFIC
W. H. DECKER, Genl. Asst. Pass. Dept.
1000 Broadway, Seattle, Wash. D.C. 20542
Special People Please! Check Out the World Map

GLAMOROUS STAR OF "CIMARRON" IN REPEAT TRIUMPH!

A LAUGH-PACKED
FARCE!
Another Hit for the girl whose "Sabra" won the Heart of the World

Bachelor
APARTMENT
Master Wit of the Screen
IRENE DUNNE
"Glorious Star of Cimarron"
MAE MURRAY-IVAN LEBEDEFF
NORMAN KERRY

GIRL SHY? ABSOLUTELY
No matter how many girls he had he was always shy one or two . . .
Breeze in and join the Party!
Everyone Welcome! Everything
Goes! Laughter Rings! Joy
Reigns! Sensation Never Ends
Behind the Doors of "Bachelor Apartment!"

BARGAIN PRICES!
MATINEE
20c
EVENING
30c
KIDDIES
10c

ALSO
PATHE NEWS
PATHE REVIEW
KARTOON
"Fisherman's Luck"
TODAY—TOMORROW
CONTINUOUS SHOWS TODAY

HOLY
Continuous Shows
Sat. and Sun. 1 to 11 P. M.
Daily Mat. 1:30, Eve., 7
10 and 15c

ISIS
R. C. A. Sound

TODAY and MONDAY
"Santa Fe Trail"
Richard Arlen
TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY
"Way for a Sailor"
John Gilbert, Wallace Beery
THURSDAY and FRIDAY
"The Virtuous Sin"
Walter Houston, Kay Francis
and Kenneth MacKenna
SATURDAY ONLY
Ken Maynard
in
"Mountain Justice"
ALSO RINTIN-TIN in
"LONE DEFENDER"

COMING SUN. June 28, 29
JACK OAKIE in
"Let's Go Native"
Continuous Shows
Sat. and Sun. 1 to 11 P. M.
Daily Mat. 1:30, Eve., 7
10 and 15c

STATE THEATRE

SUNDAY and MONDAY
"Princess and the Plumber"
Charles Farrell
TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY
"Such Men Are Dangerous"
Warner Baxter
THURSDAY and FRIDAY
"Bride of the Regiment"
Walter Pidgeon and Myrna Loy

SATURDAY ONLY
"Under Suspicion"
Lois Moran, J. Kerrigan
Coming Sun. Mon., June 28, 29
"Seas Beneath"
George O'Brien
Also Selected Short Subjects
15c ANY TIME
Kiddies 10c

YOUR watch needs expert attention
A thorough cleaning, oiling, and any necessary minor adjustments made now will pay you.
Bring in your watch. We're just as careful in our repair work as we are in selling only good timepieces.

At left . . . Overoiled, it Grows
"Foulinging" Equally, so this and saving other new Grains . . .
new on display.

Brophy's