TITLE BOUT AT CLEVELAND TO BE REGULATED

Ohio Rules Force Schmeling And Stribling to Fight, And There Will Be No Fouls, Flukes, or Fooling.

CLEVELAND, June 20.—(AP)—It used to be that if a couple of heavyweight prize fighters would meet in Diamond Joe's, there'd be a challenge and an acceptance, someone would post a stake, and the drinks would be on the house.

Now there are rules and rules, and regulations and stipulations, and the fifteen-round battle of Champion Max Schmeling and Bill Stribling here the night of July 3 probably sets a new high in this respect.

It would take a Philadelphia lawyer to decipher all the rules laid down by the five-man Cleveland boxing commission, headed by Arthur Clute, for the conduct of the first heavyweight title affair Ohio has nurtured since Jack Dempsey massacred Jess Willard on a sun-scorched battle field at Toledo in 1919.

One thing is certain, however, there will be no repetition of the situation that developed in the Yankee stadium last June when Jack Sharkey buried a low left hook in the German's body and crowned a champion by a foul for the first time in heavyweight title affairs.

Fouls such as butting, kidney punching and refusal to stop clinching, may bring loss of points—the round, or even the decision at the discretion of the referee.

The battlers have walked long and hard at these stringent conditions but the commission has held fast. The referee also may halt the bout at any time if he sees evidence of "stalling" and both warriors will forfeit their purses if this happens.

Both Stribling and Schmeling are close to fighting weight and will scale between 188 and 190 pounds.

2 PRO'S TIED IN NORTHWEST OPEN AT 296

Play-off Today For Title And Money Split Between Christian and Zimmerman—Final Punt Brings Deadlock.

TACOMA, June 20.—(AP)—They played the regulation 72 holes and the Pacific northwest open golf championship isn't decided yet.

Neil Christian, professional of the Waverley Golf club, and Eldred Zimmerman, assistant pro at the Multnomah Golf club, both in Portland, tied for first place with a total score of 296 each, eight over par, and they will play it off tomorrow for first and second money and the title.

It was first announced that they would split the money and just play for the crown but the two golfers decided they would rather take the chance and shoot for the big prize.

Dr. O. F. Willing, Portland amateur and former open title holder, and Walter Pursey, Seattle professional, each took one stroke more for a total of 297, to give Pursey third place money. This gave Dr. Willing the amateur prize.

Three professionals, Bob Connolly of Yakima, Frank Zedda of Seattle, and Willie Goggin, of San Francisco finished with 298; Bert Wilde, Bellingham, defending champion, garnered an even 299; Mark Fry, Oakland; Willie Price, Olympia; Benny Cook, Vancouver, B. C., professional, and W. K. Yost, Tacoma amateur, had 301 each, and Harold Eampson, Burlington, game, Joe Moxel, Tacoma and Emory Zimmerman, Portland, both of 302, all new, took 302.

The scores were higher than usual but the battle was the tightest in the history of the tournament.

When the 50 entries teed off this morning half of them had a chance to finish out in front and the rest was not known until Eldred Zimmerman, playing in the last threesome, poked his last put into the cup.

DUDLEY WINNER OF WESTERN OPEN

DAYTON, Ohio, June 20.—(AP)—Big Ed Dudley of Wilmington, Del., captured the western open golf championship by four strokes today after giving the balloon ball four of the merriest rides of its stormy career.

Taming the larger pellet with unusual and consistent brilliancy, Dudley toured the heavily treed Miami Valley Golf club fairways with cards of 69-70-70-71 to pile up a 72-hole total of 280 four shots lower than Walter Hagen of Detroit, the runner-up. It was the fourth lowest total since the western open began back in 1899 and four strokes under par for the distance.

Seventeen birdies rattled off the big fellow's clubs and gave him more than enough insurance for the 17 holes on which he required extra strokes over perfect figures. He was the "big shot" of the three-day tournament almost all the way, landing one behind at the end of the first 18-hole round and taking the lead and stretching it the rest of the journey.

It is estimated that Illinois farmers will produce more than 26 per cent of the commercial soy bean crop this year.
