

"EVERYONE IN SOUTHERN OREGON READS THE MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE"

VISIT HERE, SAYS ROAD SHOW DONE

Traveling incognito on a vacation trip which will extend during July and August, Moroni Olsen, who for many years conducted stage circuits throughout the United States, stopped in Medford last evening enroute north from San Francisco.

Although his home is in Ogden, Utah, he is now director of the Leland Powers school of the theater in Boston, and will take up his duties there in September. He will be in charge of the productions the school will present in Boston during the fall and winter.

The Moroni Olsen players who for many years visited southern Oregon, made their first tour on the coast in December, when they reproduced "The Ship," starring Janet Young. The play was given at the Ashland Normal school. Mr. Olsen expressed the belief that their production was the last of the circuits on the coast.

"The day of the circuit and road show has passed," Mr. Olsen said this morning, "and only two or three circuits are operating from New York. I found on my visit in California, some plans were being made for a group of productions to be given in San Francisco and Los Angeles by a troupe, but no other cities would be included on their itinerary."

"When the first roadshows made their appearances there were not enough of them to give productions at all of the theaters which had been built for them," he explained, "so they were converted into moving picture houses exclusively and now they refuse the road show."

The New York Theater Guild and Schuberts are continuing their showings in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston, according to the producer, but none is appearing on the Pacific coast.

Traveling by motor, he left at an early hour this morning enroute north.

YREKA MOONSHINE MAKES 'EM CLIMB

The moonshine peddled about in Yreka evidently contains more dynamite than that in Rogue River valley circulation, as witness the following in Siskiyou Daily News of Yreka:

"A tree at Yreka has been entertained a new visitor. A visitor here late last week imbibed a wee drop of squirrel whiskey with disastrous but natural results. In spite of his years he scampered up a tree on Main street and lodged in one of the branches.

After two hours someone, who did not approve of marathons, came by and deciding that the offender was performing too near a public fire hydrant, brought him down with the hose."
