

Local and Personal

Short Business Week
This will be a short business week in Medford as the Fourth of July, that great patriotic holiday, comes on Saturday, and of course all the stores, offices and most other places of business will be closed all day. The stores, however, will be open on Friday evening, keeping the usual Saturday evening hours.

Miss Cooksey Improving
Miss Donna Cooksey, who has been in the Sacred Heart hospital for the past week, where she was operated on for appendicitis, is getting along nicely, according to reports.

Local Men to See Reno
If half the Medford and other valley men carry out their announced intention there will be quite a local delegation at Reno, Nev., to see the heavyweight prize fight there July 1, and incidentally see what a wide open gambling city is like.

Eleven outside drivers from various parts of Oregon, Washington and California will display their wares at the speedboat races at Savage Rapids dam Sunday. Can the local drivers hold their own? Your support and attendance is needed. Don't miss them. 97*

Big Week for the Elks
Medford will see many Elks from various parts of the state and the nation this week because of the state Elks association convention of three days opening at Ashland on Tuesday, and the large and small carnivals of B. P. O. E. men from California and other parts of the nation passing through here the latter part of the week enroute to the national convention at Seattle. Most outside Elks attending the Ashland convention will visit Medford briefly during that gathering.

Johnny Eierstein, northwest speedboat champion, who won title at Bendon last week, will compete in the races at Savage Rapids dam Sunday. 97*

Living at Crater Park
Clark Walker and family have moved from Central Point to Crater Lake national park where Mr. Walker will work as a mechanic in the shop at the park this summer.

Cut flowers, choice gladioli, 208 Clark St. Phone 1469. 98

Ban Old Plates After July 1
Medford car owners are warned that no one will be allowed to use old license plates on his car after midnight, June 30, as Secretary of State Hess has notified traffic police, county sheriffs and city police to rigidly enforce the law requiring new plates on July 1.

Now is the cheapest time to calculate and paint. Call us and we'll give you an estimate of cost. Tel. 108. 10*

West Will Address Club
A. F. West, member of the local club, will address the Kiwanians at their regular luncheon tomorrow at the Hotel Medford on the petroleum industry. A large attendance is urged for the meeting.

See the champions in action at the speedboat race Sunday. 97*

Home From Mexico
Mr. and Mrs. William Cleve returned to Klamath Falls Thursday evening from a two months' tour covering interesting points in southern California and Old Mexico. They returned by way of Yellowstone park. Mrs. Cleve is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Lindley, former well known residents of Medford.

Get a Free shampoo with $1 marcel or flinger wave. Mon. Tue. Wed. Bowman's. Tel. 57. 98

Moved to Prospect
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Albertz and children of Butte Falls have moved to Prospect for the summer.

Eyebrow dyeing, painless arching; Facials 41 Thur. and Fri. Bowman's. Tel. 57. 98

Attending Summer School
Butte Falls residents attending the summer school of the University of Oregon include Miss Naomi Van Groos, Edward Abbott and Donald Cleveland. In attendance at the summer school of Oregon State college are Byron Stoddard and Mr. and Mrs. Nae, also of Butte Falls.

Children under 16 will be admitted free to the races at Savage Rapids dam Sunday. Adults, 50c. 97*

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

WANTED—A good second hand medium size safe; also good second hand typewriter. Address K. S. care Mail Tribune, stating where can see articles. 98

WANTED—Berries and early apples, 141 No. Ivy. Call Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. 99

MAN with small family desires ranch to work on shares. Write box 124, Jack Star Route, Medford. 99

FOR RENT—Furnished 4-room house. Phone 1491 or call at 801 N. Central Ave. 103

FOR RENT—Small, partly furnished house on Lester Lane. Call at 715 W. 13th. 99

FOR RENT—Our new home, new furniture, for year. Box 12 Tribune. 98

ROOM, three meals day, garage, new home, new furniture, we have no children. $14 Haven City. 98

FOR SALE—In trade for property, good living clothes in Eugene River Valley. Address H. O. care Mail Tribune. 99

Council Makes Small Saving
At a recent city council meeting that body voted to cut down the 10 or 12 copies of the American City Magazine, valuable monthly publication devoted to municipal affairs of cities and towns of the United States, which had been taken by the city government for years, at $4.00 each subscription, to but three copies. One will go to the mayor, another to the council and the other to the city planning commission.

Portraits of distinction, The Peaseys, opp. Holly theater. 10*

Son Born to the Sanders
According to word received here, Mr. and Mrs. William Sanders of Medford, are the parents of a ten-pound son born June 23rd. Mr. Sanders formerly worked at Brand's for a number of years before accepting employment as manager of the Medford Piggly Wiggly store. Mrs. Sanders was formerly Miss Mary Foree of Roseburg and worked as stenographer for Justice C. F. Hopkins and the Roseburg National bank.—Roseburg News Review.

Get a permanent before July 4th. Tullip Oil Waves $7.50; other permanents $5. Bowman's. Tel. 57. 98

Rain May Delay Garden Work
Because of the wetness of the past two days the Medford men who had planned to work today in their gardens or in cutting grass and weeds about their premises, may change their minds if further wetness came during last night and this morning.

Brill Sheet Metal Works does expert repairing, fender and auto body repairing. 10*

Miss Melcher's New Job
Miss Virginia Melcher, formerly of Medford, recently took a position as saleswoman at Adrienne's store in Grants Pass to take the place of Mrs. Hazel Marx, who leaves for San Francisco.

Broken windows glazed by Trowbridge Cabinet Works. 2301*

George Hurley, Albany contractor, has notified the local race committee that he will compete with his Golden Slipper at Sunday's speedboat races at Savage Rapids dam. 97*

Will Locate in Medford
Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNeiff of San Jose, Cal., following their present visit to Portland and Weston, will spend several days with the Chas. May family in Ashland, and plan to go home and return to the Rogue River valley and locate in Medford.

Phone 542. We'll haul away your refuse. City Sanitary Service. 2371*

Reward For Cattle Rustler
Because of cattle rustling and the like in adjacent California, forty well known cattle owners in Siskiyou county have combined to pay a $2000 reward for the arrest and conviction of "any party or parties illegally handling any cattle owned by the undersigned," and publish this in Yreka under their own signatures.

Motor to Harming's Shack after the motorboat races on Caymen's lake, 25 miles north of Medford on Pacific highway—for refreshments. 97*

Waiting Here for Location
Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Hoath and sons recently came here from Grants Pass and will make their home in Medford until they decide upon a new location.

Big rough blocks direct from mill, $4.50 per load. Med. Fuel Co. Tel. 631. 10*

Moved to Bellview
Richard Brewick and family of Ashland have moved to their recently completed home in the Bellview district.

Tom Ingram of Klamath Falls who won the "C" class championship at Pendleton last week, will race his Miss Klamath at the dam Sunday. 97*

Lookout on Mt. Reuben
Construction of a seven-mile telephone line from the summit of Mt. Reuben to Rogue river at Whiskey creek began last week in the Siskiyou national forest. A new lookout house will be built on top of Mt. Reuben after July 1.

Krystalglow, kodak glass supreme. The Peaseys, opp. Holly theater. 10*

Packing Company Visitor
The well known Rogue River valley representative of the Knight Packing company, Tod Mesch of Salt Lake, was in Medford last week on a periodical business visit.

If you need any calceining or painting done, Phone 108. 10*

Grand Hotel Barber Shop, Hair-cut to please, 25c. 100

Is District Superintendent
Rev. H. F. Pemberton, former pastor of the Methodist church at Ashland, is district superintendent of the Puget Sound, Wash., district for Methodist churches.

The entire proceeds of the speed boat race meet at Savage Rapids dam Sunday will be distributed as prize money to the winners. This is bound to make for hot competition. Don't miss them. 97*

Elks Lodge Vacation On
The annual vacation season of the local Elks lodge is now on, the weekly session of last Thursday night being the last one to be held until the first Thursday in October. The lodge officers, however, will hold a brief session the first Thursday night of every month during this period for the transaction of necessary business.

$100,000 Kodak prizes. Details at Peasey Studio. 411*

Central Point History
In its "In Case You Didn't Know" column of last week the Central Point American publishes: "Mrs. A. O. Meyers used to be a barbecue rider with Ringling Bros." T. J. LaCasse used to drive a 4-mile freight line with Jess Willard, former boxer, between Cheyenne, Wyoming, and Sarre, Oklahoma, before Willard took up boxing.

Get a permanent before July 4th. Tullip Oil Waves $7.50; other permanents $5. Bowman's. Tel. 57. 98

Henderson Again at Lake
Ray Henderson, physical education instructor for the Medford grade schools, will, as for years past, spend the summer at Crater national park as a summer park ranger there in charge of the camp ground and of the entertainment features of the community house. He left the city several days ago to assume those duties until the Crater Lake season closes next fall.

The Hanson Coal Co. has moved its office down to the yard at 508 So. Front St. 102*

No Council Meet Until July 8
The city council, whose regular meetings are held the first and third Tuesday of every month, will not meet again until Tuesday, July 8, unless a special session is called.

The Hanson Coal Co. has moved its office down to the yard at 508 So. Front St. 102*

Local Boy Buys Glider
Cecil Hartley of Phoenix and his glider broke into the movie last week when pictures of his aerial activities were taken by H. L. Bromley, Copco advertising manager. Hartley had his glider, which is the first one in southern Oregon, out at the Medford airport and put it through its paces without a mishap. The glider which the Phoenix youth built himself has a wing spread of 32 feet and is able to take off and land with ease under the skillful direction of its pilot. Altitude is gained through towing with a 500 ft. rope behind a speedy automobile and flight is sustained for a considerable distance.

Free wood with your early order for green slabs. Med. Fuel Co. Tel. 631. 10*

Addressed Electric Man
Glenn L. Jackson, sales manager of the California Oregon Power company, returned Friday from Del Monte, California, where he delivered a speech before the 1931 convention of the Pacific Coast Electrical association.

For Mrs. Vilm's cakes, tel. 173. 103

At Copco Picnic
Hal Miller of the Mountain States Power company at Springfield was a visitor here yesterday en route to Prospect to attend the Copco picnic. Mr. Miller who was formerly an employe of the California Oregon Power company, has many friends in southern Oregon.

Plate glass shelves with polished edges, including nickle plated brackets—$24, $27.50, $30, $33.50, $37. Other sizes proportionally low in price. Medford Plate Glass Co. Phone 446. 102*

Mr. and Mrs. Burgess Will Return North
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burgess and daughter, Dorothy, who arrived in Medford a week ago Saturday from Eugene to visit friends are returning to Eugene this week end. While in Medford they occupied the W. E. Quisenberry home while the Quisenberrys were in California.

P. T. A. Group Has Interesting Session
An interested group of Parent-Teacher workers met at the Hotel Holland last Thursday for a luncheon to hear the report of the special state conferences and board meeting, which was held in Portland recently.

Parent-Teacher groups in the state will be permitted to attend schools which will be conducted by Mrs. Rae, the national field secretary, during the fall. Mrs. Rae will attend the state convention at Eugene beginning October 21, and will bring many interesting things to Oregon from workers throughout the nation.

Portland units meet monthly for parliamentary procedure study, and it was urged where possible this be taken up in other places. Mrs. D'Abbil, council president of Medford, announced plans to carry on such study each month preceding council meetings and that county units are invited to attend.

There are many changes to be made in the state constitution and all local units will be asked to make changes in their rules to conform with those of the state.

SOCIETY

Miss Taylor Bride at Pretty Wedding Thursday Evening

Miss Ardeth Hope Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor, became the bride of Orval Blair, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Blair, at a very pretty wedding Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Taylor home, which was attractively decorated for the occasion in garlands and flowers of orchid and white.

The ceremony was read by Elder T. M. Langberg, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist church, before an altar of lattice work in the presence of 30 guests.

The bride was charming in a gown of orchid and carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. Her maid of honor was Miss Blanche Smith and little Arline Langberg acted as flower girl. Bertram Marlaugh was the groom's attendant.

Mrs. Calendar, aunt of the bride, played the wedding march and Earl Clymer sang "I Love You Truly."

Following the ceremony refreshments of ice cream and cake were served the guests and the bride and groom left for a wedding trip south. They will be at home to their friends at 112 West Eighth street about July 10.

Economics Club Entertained at McCredie Home

The home economics club of the Central Point Grange met Wednesday at the home of Miss Velma McCredie. An afternoon of pleasing entertainment was enjoyed by all and refreshments served by Mrs. D. W. Beebe and daughters, Mrs. Hazel Atkins and Mrs. Vincent Kittinger and the McCredies.

Guests for the afternoon were Mesdames Beebe, Atkins, Kittinger, Olsen, Blackford, Henderson, Gregory, Richardson, Love, Tyrrell, Parker, Hague, Strohmeyer, Hesselgrave, Satchwell, Patterson, Will Wright and Joe Wright of Central Point and Mrs. H. G. Enders of Ashland and Misses Ross Jones, Doris Richardson, Leola Hesselgrave, Arelita Tyrrell and Georgia French.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Will Gregory the last Wednesday in July.

Younger Set Enjoys Party for Miss Young

Miss Sybil Jean Young, who was pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening when her mother entertained with a bridge party honoring her on her birthday anniversary. There were three tables in play and prizes awarded Miss Gertrude Boyle and Miss Francis Moller.

Mrs. Young was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. R. H. Young.

Guests for the evening were Misses Adra Edwards, Berte Crane Gertrude Boyle, Frances Moller, Nelle Green, Lucille Lowry, Carol Dodge, Ruby Stone, Margaret Warner, and Alice Prock.

Golden Link Class in Thursday Session
The Golden Link class of the Baptist church met with Mrs. M. L. Daily Tuesday afternoon. Meeting was opened by singing "In My Heart There Rings a Melody." Prayer by Mrs. E. E. Wilson. Short business meeting with Mrs. W. D. Roberts presiding. Song, "In the Garden," after which Mrs. R. G. Beach lead the devotionals, taking the 15th chapter of Luke. Mrs. Edgar Williams then told of her work in China. Refreshments were served by Mesdames Mead, H. Bryant and Walker.

Raymond Montgomery Honored at Dinner

A dinner party was given on Tuesday evening, complimenting Raymond Montgomery at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw on West Second street. Those present were Misses Frances and Gracie Wakefield, Clarence Williams and the honor guest.

Ladies' Aid Elects Officers For Year At Tuesday Session

The Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. Church met in regular home-coming in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. Leland VanDermark presiding. Mrs. E. O. Osborne leading the devotionals. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Leland VanDermark; first vice president, Mrs. Arthur Short; assistant secretary, Mrs. Riley D. Henson; treasurer, Mrs. George Coding.

A special feature of the afternoon program was the presentation of love gifts from the circles to Mrs. E. S. Hittler, for her faithful service for many years. Mrs. A. G. Bennett was presented with a lovely spray of flowers, honoring her thirty-third wedding anniversary. Mrs. M. N. Hogan, in behalf of the Mary-Martha Circle, presented Mrs. Susan Campbell in an original skit, "The Old District Skules" with Mrs. Campbell as teacher, and Mrs. Mande Sleeter, Mrs. Frank Paake, Mrs. Catherine Larson, Mrs. Eva Gile, Mrs. Martha Gore, Mrs. Carrie Lyman, Mrs. Polly Parrish, Butler, Mrs. Vera Edwards as pupils. This was a very clever arrangement, the entire cast was dressed in old time costumes and carried out the old fashioned school methods.

During the social hour the Mary-Marthas served refreshments.

Enjoying Week End at River Cabin
Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Howard of Sacramento, who are visiting relatives here have enjoyed many trips and social affairs during the past week. They are spending the week end with the Hal Platts at their cabin on the river and will be joined there today by Mr. and Mrs. Verne Marshall and children.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gaddis and children and Miss Jane Snedcor spent Friday with inem at the cabin.

Tuesday the Howards will motor to Glendale to spend the day with Mr. Howard's brother, Rev. J. K. Howard and family.

Guests of Johnsons Here Wednesday
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson had as guests Wednesday Misses Anna Belle Powell of Manilla, P. I., Ruth DeNeff of Eugene, Marjane Spare of Albany and Frances Woods of Portland. George Schade and David Mason of Albany and Portland were also recent guests of the Johnsons.

Miss Ross Is Bride at Church Wedding Wednesday Evening

At a lovely wedding at the Seventh Day Adventist church, Miss Wilma Mae Ross became the bride of Chester E. Westphal of Los Angeles. The service was read at 8:30 Wednesday evening, by the Reverend Westphal, the groom's uncle, who is a retired minister.

Following the ceremony, which was witnessed by a large number of their friends, the group went to the Rogue River Academy chapel, where refreshments were served. Many presents were given to them upon their arrival at the chapel.

The bride has been an instructor in the Rogue River Academy. The couple will leave for South America to take up mission work in interest of the Seventh Day Adventist church.

Missionary Group Meets Ray Home

Ten members and two visitors were present at the executive board meeting of the Missionary society of the First Christian church, held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. L. Ray on the Jacksonville road. A social hour followed the business meeting, with the hostess serving refreshments.

Mrs. Carman E. Mell was honored guest, and Mrs. Olive Irving of Portland and Mrs. M. C. Smith of Kansas were also guests.

Group leaders were named, including Mesdames James W. Grigsby, Lloyd Wicks, Walter Kindred, Everette Eads, H. L. Ray and P. C. Latham. Mrs. A. H. Gregory was selected World Call chairman, and Mrs. J. T. Davis, librarian. Members for the different groups were also selected by the board.

Mrs. Mell Honored With Handkerchief Shower
Mrs. Carman E. Mell was honored guest at a handkerchief shower Thursday afternoon given at the home of Mrs. J. O. Isaacson in Central Point. About twenty guests were present and enjoyed the afternoon. Mrs. Harry Young entertained with a soprano solo. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Isaacson, who was assisted by entertaining by Mesdames Everett Eads, C. M. Hon and Fred J. Wilmot.

Leave Today for Vacation at Bendon
Mrs. Earle Davis and sister, Mrs. D. Stephenson, accompanied by Mrs. M. C. Wright, will leave today for Bendon, where they plan to spend two weeks.

B. P. W.'s Have Picnic and Swim
Many swimming parties were held last week, one of the largest being that of the Business and Professional Women's club at Jackson Hot Springs. Swimming was enjoyed before and after the picnic dinner, where places were arranged for twenty-seven guests.

The committee managing the pleasant affair included Misses Winifred Walker and Clara Wood, chairmen, Mrs. Winifred Welshar, Miss Margaret Kerr and Miss Elsie Brown.

Garden Party Is Enjoyed By Group

The garden party at Mrs. E. E. Wilson's home, 422 Beatty street, Tuesday, was enjoyed by the Missionary society of the First Baptist church.

The meeting opened by singing "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." The president had charge of devotionals. All joined in repeating the 23rd Psalm.

Mrs. Effie Daily had a chart of main events of the last sixty years. The advance made was interesting.

The social committee served refreshments in the grape arbor near the pond lily pool.

Class Members Entertain Friday
Members of Mrs. Carman E. Mell's Sunday school class entertained Friday evening for her at the home of Mrs. E. J. Wilmot. About thirty enjoyed the gathering. Mrs. Mell was presented with a gift from the class.

Rowena Circle Meets Wednesday
Rowena circle, No. 122, will meet Wednesday, July 1, with Mrs. Beaula Powell at her home on Stewart avenue.

Guest in Phoenix
Miss Alma Kraus of Vancouver, Wash., arrived by train yesterday morning to visit Mr. and Mrs. Steven Nye at their home in Phoenix.

FOX WEST COAST THEATRES

Cool AS AUTUMN BREEZES...with MID SUMMER PRICES

FOX RIALTO

TODAY

YOU'LL SEE IT AGAIN and AGAIN

SHEARER

A FREE SOUL

WITH

LIONEL BARRYMORE
CLARK GABLE
JAMES GLEASON
LESLIE HOWARD

A CLARENCE BROWN PRODUCTION
A METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYHEW PICTURE

She mistook frivolity for freedom... lure for love...

SHE DARED TO LIVE BY A MAN. MADE CODE... UNTIL IT FORMED A BRAND THAT SEARCHED HER SOUL...

Also SELECTED SHORT SUBJECTS

MONDAY NIGHT

On The Stage

AMATEUR'S RADIO BROADCAST

20c WEEK DAY MATINEES

30c EVENINGS SAT & SUN MATINEES

RIALTO

Today

MONDAY

SPEED ...

Is most essential when needed in the business or in the home.

If it's done with HEAT you cannot beat "INSTANT HEAT"

Local rates as low as 1-10 of 1c per cu. ft.

Southern Oregon Gas Corp.

"Home of Instant Heat"

209 West Main Street Phone 526

A Real Weeks & Orr Special

25% Reduction

On Porch Swings and Gliders

Here is an opportunity to secure a fine porch swing or glider at a real saving.

Buy Now While They Last

FOUNDED 1909

JACKSON COUNTY BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION

YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD

WEEKS & ORR

AN INSTALLMENT HOUSE WITH A REPUTATION

SAVE AND HAVE

FOUNDED 1909

JACKSON COUNTY BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION

FOR RENT—Furnished 4-room house. Phone 1491 or call at 801 N. Central Ave. 103

FOR RENT—Small, partly furnished house on Lester Lane. Call at 715 W. 13th. 99

FOR RENT—Our new home, new furniture, for year. Box 12 Tribune. 98

ROOM, three meals day, garage, new home, new furniture, we have no children. $14 Haven City. 98

FOR SALE—In trade for property, good living clothes in Eugene River Valley. Address H. O. care Mail Tribune. 99