ARCHITECT SIGNS AGREEMENT FOR COURTHOUSE PLAN

Agreement between the county court and J. G. Link, architect, for the preparation of plans and specifications for the proposed new Jackson county courthouse was formally signed this afternoon. A tentative agreement with Architect Link has been in effect for a month.

Signatories for the county court were County Judge Alex Sparrow and Commissioners Victor Bursell and John H. Barnsburg.

The agreement is a legal document, approved by the district attorney, and provides the usual protective clauses.

It provides that the architect shall draw three plans of the proposed courthouse, exercise a supervising eye over the construction, aided by a clerk-on-the-works, and be under bonds for performance of the contract.

Architect Link and the county court have been busy the past week conferring on the inner details of the courthouse, and it is not expected that the plans and specifications will be completed before September 1st.

An effort is being made to provide space within the courthouse for all county agencies, including the Jackson County Humane society, which made application for office room last Saturday.

BIG EVENING FOR 40 AND 8 GROUP

Tonight will be an auspicious night for local members of the "40 and 8" society of the American Legion. Two of the officers of the organization will be guests of honor of the local "volunteers" and a big time is looked for. Grande Chef de Gare George Itzsell of California and Grande Chef de Gare Malr Dano of Oregon are the distinguished visitors who will be here this evening, and all "volunteers" of southern Oregon are looking forward to their arrival in great anticipation. Several groups of outside members of the Medford volunteers are planning to attend, including representatives from Grants Pass and Ashland. All "40 and 8" members are urged to convene at the Hotel Medford tonight promptly at 7:45 p. m.

RED TOP AREA TO ORGANIZE GRANGE

District Deputy Grange Master Arthur Brown of Roseburg and Mrs. Brown, who is Flora in the state organization, will hold a meeting Wednesday evening at the Red Top school house to form a grange chapter. About thirty in that district have signified their intentions of joining the group, and are very enthusiastic concerning the work.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Brown have been active in forming grange chapters in southern Oregon, and have been engaged in this work since the close of the state convention held recently in Medford. They have been making their headquarters in Ashland.

CIGARET PRICES ARE GIVEN BOOST

The increased price of 45 cents a thousand wholesale has gone into effect, which means that the Medford consumer of fags after the present supply runs out at the average retail store will have to pay 15 cents straight for most popular makes of cigarettes, instead of buying them at two for a quarter, as for some time past.

This new wholesale price, general all over the country, means that the average dealer unless he could buy in huge quantities, would sell at an actual loss if he sold at two for a quarter, and big retail buyers would only break even in selling at two for a quarter.

It is said that the new price is $6.55 a thousand, and that the cigarettes, with discount computed costs the average retailer 12.3 a package. The U. S. government gets a 6 cents tax on each package.

BROMLEY FILMS FAST BOATS AT REGATTA

Some interesting motion pictures of the Savage Lake speedboat races were taken yesterday for the Copco news reel by H. L. Bromley of this city. Shots of the various races and close-ups of the daring drivers and their speedy craft were included in the footage. Some of the "Flying Dutchman's" spill and his riderless boat performing about the course were also taken by Bromley. These films promise to be much in demand by service clubs, lodges and other organizations throughout southern Oregon.

Four players held perfect bridge hands at a party in Louisville, Ky. They were too excited to bid.

Coming to Holly

Jack Holt.

Mary Astor, Jack Holt and Ricardo Cortez appear tomorrow on the screen at the Holly in a talkie dramatization of Rex Beach's story of marital maladjustments, "White Shoulders."

The supporting cast includes Kitty Kelly and Sidney Toler, the former prominent in "Behind Office Doors."

"White Shoulders" will remain at the Holly for three days, in addition to an interesting supporting program consisting of a Pathe news reel, and the fifth of the "How I Play Golf" reels featuring the golf champion, Bobby Jones, and entitled "The Medium Iron," "Sinner's Holiday," the thrilling melodrama with Grant Withers and Evelyn Knapp, closes at the Holly with the last performance tonight. Also on the closing program is a Pathe news reel, a Vitaphone act and a Sidney Murray comedy.

At Craterian

NORMA SHEARER and JAMES GLEASON in "A FREE SOUL."

Secrets of San Francisco's famous gambling houses, many of them started in the days of the gold rush, come to life dramatically in the talking screen production of "A Free Soul," Adela Rogers St. John's famous novel, which, as a starring picture for Norma Shearer, is now playing at the Fox Craterian.

Much of the action occurs in a penthouse gambling resort.

Clarence Brown directed the new picture, a vivid drama of the daughter of a brilliant lawyer, who taught her father's sophistries and believing in them too intently, finds her life crashing about her.

"Goldie" Scoring Hit at Fox Rialto

The comedy team of Spencer Tracy and Warren Hymer is destined to become a national institution for the supply of wisecracks. Judging from the prevalence of their witticisms heard from the lips of those who witnessed "Goldie" at the Fox Rialto theater. The picture will close its run tonight.

Their infectious humor was first introduced to a laugh-hungry world in "Up the River," satiric epic of two jail birds which took the country by storm. In "Goldie" they repeat their first triumph, only in this picture they have the added advantage of a much more pleasing setting.

This time they are two color pals. Tracy, as usual is the quick-witted, fast talker of the two, while Hymer's only strength is contained in the bulging muscles of his arms and back.
