BOY SCOUTS OFF FOR TWO WEEKS LAKE CAMP STAY
Fifteen Boy Scouts from Medford this morning left by truck for Lake o' the Woods, where they will remain in scout camp for two weeks. They were accompanied by Richard Elwood of Ames, Iowa, water stand supervisor, who will spend four weeks at the camp. Another truck also left for the lake this morning, carrying provisions. Those from this city who are attending include John Gillins, Richard Thierolf, Frank Hull, Byron Backes, Jim Horner, Harold Wall, Donald Bragg, Dorr Barrett, Theodore Taylor, Wayne Martin, Earl Sweland, Carl Slough, Andy Slough, Roger Headlee and LaVon Dunford. Oscar E. Hoover, scout executive, announced that mail is to be addressed to Boy Scout camp, Lake o' the Woods. A telephone has been installed at the headquarters there, and anyone at camp may be reached by telephoning long distance, and asking for the camp at the lake. Mr. Hoover stated that no reverse charges may be made. In two weeks, July 30, another truck-load of boys will make the trip to the resort, when the second camp period opens. About 25 Medford scouts are expected to attend at that time. Three sponge oranges from one diving boat at Tarpon Springs, Fla., sold for $47.25.

DRESSLER FANS WOULD LIKE TO GLIMPSE STAR

The popularity of Louise Dressler, the moving picture comedienne, with Medford people is attested by the fact that a small item published yesterday in the Mail Tribune, stating she had been a visitor at Crater national park for several days, aroused much local interest and there were many anxious inquiries today if she were still there and if so for how long. If it were known that Miss Dressler would be at the lake the next day or two, it is probable that many Medford people would journey up to the national park just on the chance of seeing her in private life. It is not known if she is still there, nor just how the motor party she is with reached Crater Lake. One report is that the party went straight through Medford several days ago for the national park, and another report is that the party went in from Klamath Falls. Miss Dressler's name does not appear on local hotel registers for a week past, and neither has she been in Klamath Falls during that time, as far as can be learned.

Comes to Holly

Story twists and surprise punches feature the offering at the Holly theater, "Naughty Flirt," which will head the bill tonight and tomorrow.

Alice White takes the leading feminine role as a rich girl who has a fine time at the expense of masculine hearts, and isn't fooled a bit by knowing that all men are after her money.

Robert Agnew does fine work in a comedy role, and Myrna Loy is a splendid "vamp." Showing with the feature picture is a Pathe news reel in which Galty and Post tell of their epochal flight around the world, a Vacation Adventure, featuring Tom Terrell, in which he takes the audience to eastern Asia in a real called "Thom, the Unknown," and also a comedy with Sidney and Murray, entitled "In Old Mazama." It is a comedy version of the feature picture, "In Old Arizona," with George Sidney as the bandit and Charlie as the army sergeant.

"Daddy Long Legs" Scores Hit Here

A real cinematic gem is "Daddy Long Legs," Fox romance based on the famous Jean Webster play, with Janet Gaynor and Warner Baxter co-starred, now at the Fox Craterian.

"Daddy Long Legs" is ideal entertainment. A great human story, a genuinely outstanding cast headed by two of the most popular players on the screen. As an added attraction on the stage tonight will be the regular Monday night Amateurs' Opportunity Radio Broadcast, by remote control over radio station KMED, introducing as a special feature Chuck Bier, "Radio's Songster," and many other talented entertainers, and Earle Davis, master of ceremonies.

"Up For Murder" Is Thriller at Rialto

What would you do if you had fallen desperately in love with the one you considered the most gloriously beautiful woman in the world—and then learned that she was the mistress of your employer? This is the situation which confronts Lew Ayres in the startling love drama, "Up for Murder," last night's offering at the Fox Craterian theater. The woman is the society editor of a great metropolitan newspaper and Lew, a cub reporter, is transported with newfound happiness—until he learns the sordid truth.

DRUNKEN DRIVER GETS THE 'BOOK'

The first driving while intoxicated arrest and prosecution under the new state law in Medford in Judge Taylor's court this forenoon, and as a result L. D. Thompson, a single man and local restaurateur, who had only been in the city two weeks, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail and fined $100, and his car was ordered held in the sheriff's custody until the sentence is served and the fine is paid. Thompson's car collided with that of Mrs. Mabel Church at Bartlett and Sixth streets yesterday. No one was injured, but both cars were damaged, and immediately after striking the Church car Thompson continued speeding on his way.
