

MUSIC LOVERS OF VALLEY ORGANIZE TO GET CONCERTS

At a luncheon at the Hotel Medford this noon a Jackson county branch of the Civic Concert Service, Inc., of Chicago was formed with the following officers:

President—W. F. Isaacs of Medford.
First Vice-President—J. A. Churchill of Ashland, president of the Ashland Normal school.
Second Vice-President—Resident of Grants Pass to be chosen by the board of directors.
Secretary—Mrs. Effie Herbert Yeoman of Medford.

The purpose of the organization, the first to be formed in the state, will be to secure at least three concerts each year, by artists of established reputations, to which only membership cards in the association will be accepted for admission, the membership dues to be $5 a year for adults and $2.50 a year for junior members.

The luncheon was attended by a group of music lovers from Medford, Ashland and other parts of the county, and after the details of the organization, which is national in scope, had been carefully explained by Miss Jane Goude of San Francisco, coast representative for the Civic Concert service, the motion to form a local chapter was passed by an enthusiastic and unanimous vote.

In a few days a board of directors will be named and preparations started to conduct a week's membership campaign later in the year, after which the three concerts for 1931-1932 will be decided upon.

It was the consensus of opinion at the meeting today that Southern Oregon is starved for high class musical entertainers, and that organization offers the most economical and practical method of securing it.

All the speakers agreed that there should be no difficulty in securing between 500 and 600 members from Jackson county, although a total of 400, it is declared, would be sufficient to insure the establishing of a chapter and the securing of three concerts for the first year.

Human nature develops hideously, when contempt for law becomes universal, as it has done recently in the United States, when officials supposed to enforce the law share the profits of law-breakers, and fear of punishment is removed.

he was 92 years old, mounted his horse without help for a daily ride when past 90, wrote to the archbishop: "I had to live to be 90 to learn that the world was beautiful."

He died at the age of 98. He took 12 ounces of solid food and 15 ounces of light Italian wine every day. Mr. Rockefeller omits the wine.

The world's different money situations are strange. Germany begs for credit, to keep her industries alive. We respond with $100,000,000, which isn't difficult, for we have so much money we don't know what to do with it.

In Wall Street yesterday, money lent as low as one-half of one per cent a year, of first class acceptance stock exchange loans were at 1 1/2 per cent. Private bankers lent money at 1 per cent.

Who understands finance? NOBODY.

Senator Borah tells Collier's Weekly, out today, that cancelling war debts is dangerous. "The sums belong to the American taxpayer," and if these debts are canceled, Senator Borah says, there must be "some reasonable assurance that American taxpayers will enjoy some economic advantage." The senator is also afraid that money saved by Europe will be invested in war, also that our private citizens may lose some of the seventeen billion dollars that they have lent privately to Europe.

That is a case of the horse and the barn door. Americans may lose many of the seventeen billions lent to Europe, and the money we are not going to get from war loans will probably be spent largely for war preparations.

As for "economic advantages," the advantage of Europe is the question of the moment, not that of the United States.

ROASTING OF COFFEE MORE IMPORTANT THAN THE BLEND

Under-roasting and Over-roasting Produce an Unsatisfactory Flavor

It is a fact that two lots of coffee from the same blend can be given entirely different flavors by different degrees of roast. A delicious, uniform flavor in coffee depends upon a uniform roast.

Hills Bros. invented and patented Controlled Roasting—a process that roasts perfectly all the time. Hills Bros. Coffee always has the full charm of the flavor that Nature puts in the coffee berries.

As the accuracy of the hour-glass depends upon an even, continuous flow... a little at a time... so a perfect, uniform flavor is secured in Hills Bros. Coffee by Controlled Roasting—the patented process that roasts evenly, continuously... a little at a time. There is automatic control of heat—thereby eliminating guesswork, which is the constant problem when coffee is roasted in bulk.

Vacuum cans preserve the wonderful flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is removed and kept out of these cans. Ordinary "air-tight" cans won't keep coffee fresh. Order Hills Bros. Coffee today. Ask for it by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.

CORLISS ANALYZES SHAKESPEARE ART IN GUILD LECTURE

Expressing an understanding of the great English dramatist, seldom met in modern society, Judge G. C. H. Corliss of Portland entertained an appreciative group of local Shakespearean enthusiasts last evening at St. Mark's Guild hall with a second lecture devoted to Macbeth.

A man in his seventies, Judge Corliss put into his lecture not only a wealth of knowledge, but an appreciation of Shakespeare and a rare interpretation of his lines.

His long white hair and perfect posture as well as accent added much to his expression of devotion for the artist he has studied through the years, always with an ambition to be a great actor.

In Macbeth, he told his audience last night, Shakespeare created with his pen the same contrasts Rembrandt brought from his brushes. Irony, blended one time with a braggart's humor, another time with tragedy, he also described as prevalent throughout the drama.

Macbeth's encounter with the imaginary daggers and Lady Macbeth's sleep walking scene, he dwelt upon as two of the most powerful in English. The simple but dynamic words used by Lady Macbeth, when finally conquered by her conscience, were repeated by Judge Corliss, who gave as sympathetic an interpretation of the lady as of her husband, and urged his audience to realize that Lady Macbeth was, after all, only a woman, awayed by her feelings.

Completing his lecture, he answered the enthusiastic applause of his listeners with a promise to return to southern Oregon next winter for additional lectures.

While in southern Oregon, Judge Corliss is guest of his son, Harold Corliss, and family.

Cloudy in west portion; fair and cooler in east portion tonight and Saturday; moderate north-west winds offshore; fair Sunday.

YOUNG SECRETARY TAKES UP DUTIES IN BANWELL HOME

If she can sway senators in the manner she has her dad, since her arrival in Medford yesterday afternoon, the Crescent City harbor will soon be built, in the bet of the little blue eyed girl, weighing 7 pounds, 10 ounces, born to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Banwell at the Community hospital.

She'll undoubtedly be a very young secretary, too, for her father has been in secretarial work for many years and her mother was secretary to her father when their romance began.

"She's a perfect baby," Mr. Banwell, secretary of the Northern California-Southern Oregon Development association, told congratulating friends this morning, "and I'm going to take her down to the harbor soon."

The baby is the grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Banwell of Bristol, England and of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cutler of Tacoma. She and her mother were getting along nicely this morning.

Another little girl, who will make her debut in the "very young set" soon is Nancy Jean Lagson, born to Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Lagson at the Sacred Heart hospital, Wednesday night. She tips the scales at 8 pounds, 15 ounces, and refuses
