Cooking is one of the Fine Arts

primitive life requires food, clothing and shelter. MODERN LIFE DEMANDS COMPLETE ELECTRIC SERVICE

In the modern home, all or most of the following electric appliances are indispensable:
Range Toaster Egg Cooker
Refrigerator Waffle Iron Fruit Juice Extractor
Percolator Kitchen Mixer Table Stove or Grill

The operating cost of these devices is reasonable, because our rates are low. They may be inspected in your dealer's store, or purchased from him. To use them satisfactorily, your home should be adequately wired, with plenty of outlets for quick, convenient connection.

There were about fifty present. There will not be another meeting of the club before October.

Miss Lydiard Will Marry Mr. Marsh At Home Wedding

At a pretty ceremony Tuesday evening at the Lydiard ranch home in the Table Rock district, Miss Sue Lydiard, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Lydiard, will become the bride of Frank C. Marsh of Los Angeles. The services will be read by Rev. Claude E. Porter.

Following the wedding the bride and groom will leave for a motor trip to Rainier national park, then return to Los Angeles to make their home.

Miss Lydiard is well known in southern Oregon, where she has spent her summers for several years. She is a sister of Will Lydiard and of Mrs. Berthold Barnum of this city.

Corvallis Wedding Has Local Interest

An interesting nuptial event was solemnized Sunday at the First Baptist church, following the morning service when Miss Eleanor Louise Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Douglas, became the bride of Mr. Norbert Edwin Peavy, son of Dean and Mrs. George W. Peavy.

Dr. Frank Matthews read the simple but impressive service before a few friends and the immediate families. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Peavy left for Newport to spend two weeks at the beaches. They are to return to make their home in Corvallis and are to continue in school.

Mrs. Peavy has attended high school in Corvallis and recently completed her freshman year at Oregon State college. Mr. Peavy, a talented musician who is organist at the First Baptist church, has finished his junior year in vocational education at Oregon State. He is the youngest of three sons of Dean and Mrs. Peavy.

The wedding is a culmination of a high school romance—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Mrs. Peavy spent her early childhood in Medford and is the granddaughter of Mrs. Louisa Gregory on South Central avenue.

Treichlers Entertain. Guests From California. The list of guests in Medford from the south this week includes Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hubbard and son Edward, who are visiting Mrs. Hubbard's uncle, George Treichler, and Mrs. Treichler.

Crowells of Paris Dine With Friends Newhall Residence

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Newhall invited a group of friends to their country home near Jacksonville Friday evening for a dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. William Crowell of Paris, who are guests of Mrs. Crowell's parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Salade.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Crowell, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Salade, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scherer, Mrs. Heffernan of Seattle and Mr. and Mrs. Newhall.

The Crowells will return to Europe later in the summer.

Dinner In Garden Followed by Cards At Jennings Home

A pleasant affair of Wednesday evening was the dinner and bridge party at which Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jennings entertained at their home on the Jacksonville highway.

Dinner was served in the garden with covers placed for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dubuque, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Tollefson, Mrs. Darlington of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jennings, and the host and hostess.

Bay City Colony Entertains Often

The Rogue River settlement, composed chiefly of San Franciscans, continues to be a popular gathering place for bay city folk. Among latest guests are Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Antwerp and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Madison, who are visiting F. D. Madison at his river lodge this week.

Hobson-Strickland Wedding Announced. Announcements have been received in this city of the wedding of Miss Dorothy Hobson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hobson of Portland, and Mr. Louis H. Strickland, which was an event of June 27.

Miss Hobson is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where she was affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta, and is well known in Medford, where she frequently visits friends.

Royal Neighbors to Conduct Social Eve. The Royal Neighbors will conduct their regular social meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bagshaw, 1216 Locust street, in the form of a basket supper. All members of the order and their families have been invited.

Local Society Sees Revival of Concert in New Association

Formation of a Jackson county branch of the Civic Concert Service, Inc., of Chicago, completed at a luncheon at the Hotel Medford Friday noon is greeted by all music lovers of southern Oregon. The organization, the first formed in Oregon, will bring at least three concerts by famous artists in this city each year, to which only membership cards in the association will be accepted for admission.

Officers elected to head the local chapter are W. F. Isaacs of Medford, president; J. A. Churchill of Ashland, vice president; Mrs. Effie Herbert Yeoman of Medford, secretary and W. L. Vawter of this city treasurer.

A second vice president will be chosen from Grants Pass. Miss Jane Goude of San Francisco, coast representative for the Civic Concert Service, explained carefully all details of the organization at the luncheon attended by groups from Medford, Ashland and other sections of southern Oregon.

The need for high class musical entertainment in Medford was emphasized by several speakers, who described the organization formed as the most economical and practical way of obtaining it.

Miss Morgan Will Arrive This Week

Miss Alice Morgan will be greeted by local society this week on her return from New York City for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Oscar Lewis of Jacksonville, and other relatives and friends.

Miss Morgan formerly lived in Medford and Portland. She has many friends in southern Oregon and will doubtless be much entertained while here.

Medford Misses Enjoy Life at Willapa Camp

Letters received from several members of the Medford young set, who are vacationing at Willapa camp at Nahaetta, Wash., bring news of many good times enjoyed there. In the group are Margaret Mary and Janet Mann, Yvonne Shepherd, Barbara Sheldon and Mollie Brown.

Miss Smith Leaves For San Francisco

Miss Yvonne Smith, member of the local teaching staff, left last evening for San Francisco, where she will spend two months.

Mrs. Cole Will Be Summer Guest Here At Dr. Bunch Home

The arrival in this city of Mrs. Frank Cole of Enid, Oklahoma, who will be guest of Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Bunch for several weeks this summer at their lovely new home in the country south of Medford, will be the incentive for much entertaining.

Mrs. Cole is expected to arrive in Medford July 29.

Informality Key Note of Summer Bridge Functions

In spite of the hot weather of the past week the bridge table has been a popular meeting place for local society. Few large parties have been given, but many four-somes played. The warm weather is an incentive for informality and Medford matrons are connoisseurs of summer entertaining.

Judge Corliss Gives Two Inspiring Talks

An interesting guest in Medford for the past two weeks was Judge G. C. H. Corliss of Portland, who entertained lovers of Shakespearean drama with two lectures at the St. Mark's Guild hall. Judge Corliss has been a student of Shakespeare for many years and exhibits an understanding of the old drama, which was appreciated by the Medford audiences.

While in southern Oregon, Judge Corliss was guest of his son Harold Corliss, and Mrs. Corliss at their orchard home near Talent.

Mr. and Mrs. Lively to Make Home in South

Medford society regrets to lose Mr. and Mrs. James Lively, who plan to leave the first of the week for Portland, where they will visit friends for a short time, then continue to San Jose, where they will make their home.

Burelson's Staff Enjoys Party

Members of the staff at Burelson's store were entertained on Thursday night by Mrs. Thomas Seyler at her cabin on the Rogue. A steak dinner was enjoyed and the remainder of the evening spent enjoying the scenery and cool river breeze.
