

Salem Legion Juniors May Lose Tournament Eligibility

TWIN PLAYERS PROTESTED AS EXCEEDING AGE

Capital City Kids Champions of District — Are Rated As Hot Contenders for State Legion Laurels

PORTLAND, Ore., July 16.—(AP) While Salem and Oregon City were to meet on the latter's baseball diamond today in the first of a series of three games to determine the junior baseball champions of districts 1 and 2, Roy E. Keene, Paul L. Patterson and a Salem man were on their way to Astoria, Ore., on a mission that holds the eligibility of the Salem team.

Last night at a prolonged session here, Patterson, assistant district attorney of Washington county, presented a complaint from Hillsboro that two boys on the Salem team are ineligible. If this contention is upheld Salem, which has won the championship in the district, will be eliminated this year.

Hillsboro's complaint is that two boys on the Salem team, Victor Jesse DeJardin and Verne Meredith DeJardin, twins, are over the age limit. Salem produced a birth certificate to show they were born July 24, 1914, but Hillsboro presented what it said was conclusive evidence that the boys were born June 24, 1914.

Patterson showed an affidavit purporting to come from H. L. Mack, clerk of Benton county, stating that the birth date was June 14. Patterson said he could prove that "certain individuals" from Salem had attempted to persuade Mack to change his records, but that the clerk refused to do so.

To interview Father. Today's trip to Astoria was for the purpose of interviewing the boys' father.

Patterson was supported by a note from John L. Gary, secretary of the Oregon State High School Athletic association, which certified that the boys were born June 24. The record was made out by the boys themselves. Patterson said, when they played for the Parish junior high school in Salem.

RABBIT VICTIM OF OLD HIDDEN BALL TRICKERY

Boston Veteran Easily Tagged Out in Ninth Frame of Close Game — Cubs Win Second From Giants

By Gayle Talbot, Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer)

You would think, offhand, that such a seasoned campaigner as the 28-year-old Walter "Rabbit" Maranville of the Boston Braves had long since learned not to fall for anything as venerable as the hidden ball trick.

But it was none other than the sprightly Rabbit who was trapped by this oldest of baseball legends—main yesterday as the Cincinnati Reds won a brilliant 1 to 0 pitching duel from the Braves. But for Maranville's lapse, there might have been a different result.

Coming up in the ninth after John Ogden had held the Braves to four hits and no runs for eight innings, the Rabbit singled, went to second on a wild pitch and was in position to score the tying run. Then he forgot himself, wandered off the bag and was tagged out with ease and dispatch by Joe Stripp, Cincinnati third baseman.

The Brooklyn Robins came back to square accounts with the St. Louis Cardinals, 10 to 3, when Watson Clark chalked up his seventh straight victory.

Kiki Cuyler's timely single in the ninth, scoring Jakey May, who had doubled, gave the Chicago Cubs their second straight victory in five trips to the plate, George Burns, former Mission manager, now with the Angels, hit five times, including a homer, two doubles and two singles.

Larry French allowed only six hits as the Pittsburgh Pirates scored their third straight win over the Phillies, 4 to 2.

Hank McDonald, star rookie from the west coast, and Walter Hoyt, the veteran right-hander recently picked up by Connie Mack for the proverbial song, turned in a pair of masterpieces as the Athletics tripped the Detroit Tigers twice, 5 to 3 and 11 to 0.

Sammy Byrd's pinch single in the eighth scoring two runners, climaxed a four-run rally that brought the New York Yankees from behind to beat the Cleveland Indians, 5 to 4. Willis Hudlin had limited the Yankees to one run until the fatal eighth.

The Boston Red Sox divided a doubleheader with the St. Louis Browns, winning the first, 5 to 4, in 11 innings and losing the second, 5 to 2.

Rain stopped the White Sox and Senators at Washington.

EGAN'S CHANCE FLICKERS OUT IN 2ND ROUND

Medford Links Ace Defeated by MacNaughton, 4 and 2—Flock of Birdies Turn Trick On Home Trek

By Frank G. Gerrie, Associated Press Sports Writer. PORTLAND GOLF CLUB, Portland, Ore., July 16.—(AP) Six champions or former champions of one sort or another, including Johnny Lehman of Chicago and two other well-known players, made up a classy field today for the 36-hole quarter-finals of the western amateur golf tournament.

In spite of five major upsets yesterday in the two 18-hole first and second round matches, it was anybody's race for the crown.

The five "big shots" to bite the dust yesterday were Francis Brown, Honolulu; Frank Dolp and Eddie Hogan, Portland; Charles H. Seaver, Los Angeles, and H. Chandler Egan, Medford.

Moe Holes Long One. Brown and Dolp lost out at extra holes in the second round. Moe took the measure of the Honolulu resident with a 29-foot putt at the 23rd hole. The Portlander led by one hole going to the 18th, but a dead-stytle cost him a six and a loss. They played the first four extra holes in pars and then Moe "canned" the long putt for a birdie to win the match.

The passing of Dolp, Pacific Northwest and Oregon state amateur champion this year, was a hard blow to the strong Portland contingent. He led Gaines, one up, at the turn but lost the advantage going home to finish on even terms.

DIVING CHAMPION SUCCESSFUL DEFENSE

NEW YORK, July 16.—(AP) Georgia Coleman of the Los Angeles A. C. today successfully defended her national high platform diving championship, defeating Frances Meany and Mary H. of the Women's Swimming association of New York, in the national A. U. outdoor swimming and diving championships at Bronx Beach.

GANG GUNMEN RIDE GAS SERVICE STATION

ST. LOUIS, July 16.—(AP) men fired more than 50 machine gun bullets into a downtowning station early today, killing Gus Buselack, 38, reputed gang and proprietor of the station, slightly wounding two other persons standing at the oil station and in front of the station.

Police believe the shooting the result of a dispute at service car drivers.

PORTLAND TURNS ON OAKLAND FOR 5 TO 4 VICTORY IN ROUGH TUSSLE

(By The Associated Press)

With one exception it was turned about in the Coast league last night as the losers in Tuesday's games turned winners.

Los Angeles proved the exception by defeating Sacramento, 11 to 3, making the present series two straight in the Angels' favor. In five trips to the plate, George Burns, former Mission manager, now with the Angels, hit five times, including a homer, two doubles and two singles.

By a score of 5 to 4 Portland turned back the Oakland Aacorns last night. The Oaks scored twice in the eighth inning with no outs when Fuzzy Huff tripped. He would have brought in the tying run, but Orswell replaced Bowman as pitcher for Portland and the Aacorns couldn't get another hit.

Hollywood overcame Seattle, 7 to 5, to even the series and avenge its defeat of Tuesday night.

The Seal-Mission "evil war" series was evened off as the Reds took a 3 to 2 game last night.

KAPLAN WINGLOCK FLATTENS M'KAY IN ROUGH TUSSLE

PORTLAND, Ore., July 16.—(AP) —Aba Kaplan, New York Jewish heavyweight wrestler, continued his winning streak here last night when he defeated Pat McKay, Memphis, two out of three falls.

It was a free for all from start to finish. Kaplan took the first fall in 36 minutes and 20 seconds with three flying winglocks, his pet hold. After the third crash, McKay stayed put. The Tennessee evoned matters five minutes later with a backward body scissors. After 4 minutes and 25 seconds of rough work, during which Kaplan knocked McKay through the ropes with a right-hand smash to the stomach, McKay again fell a victim to Kaplan's winglock.

Ira Dern and Dan Koloff went five rounds to a draw. Dern took a fall in the third round with a crab hold and Koloff got his fall in the final round with a body slam.

Roland Kirchmayer won from Ray Jeffries in the curtain raiser.

College Heroes to Be Abolished, Says Professor

NEW YORK, July 16.—(AP) Dr. David Snedden, professor of education at Columbia university, predicted today that by 1930 competitive interscholastic sports will have been abolished by all the better public schools.

Over-emphasis on sports at present is due to an abnormal public appetite for heroes, he said, in an address at a summer school open forum.

'KEED' CHOCOLATE BATTERS BASS TO TECHNICAL KAYO

PHILADELPHIA, July 16.—(AP) "Keed" Chocolate, the polished ebony warrior from Cuba, stood today on a modest pedestal, a champion everywhere but in New York state, king of the Junior lightweight.

The slender grinning Havana news boy scored a technical knockout over Benny Bass, of Philadelphia, before 15,000 of the home folks in the National league ball park last night to rise to the championship heights that had been forecast for him ever since he arrived in New York from Cuba three years ago.

Chocolate was a champion last night of almost any of the lighter classes as he put together all his speed, skill and punching powers to hammer Bass for two seconds short of seven rounds, slash him about the face, mouth and nose and finally cut his left eyelid so badly with crashing rights that Referee Leo Houck stopped the one-sided duel after 2:58 of the seventh.

ANNA MAE FUSON WINS GOLF TITLE ON LOCAL LINKS

Anna Mae Fuson, youngest contestant for the title, won the championship this morning in the women's spring handicap tournament by defeating Mrs. R. H. Smith 7 and 5 in the final match, played on the Rogue Valley Golf course.

The trophy to be awarded the very young enthusiast has not been announced. Miss Fuson gave Mrs. Smith five strokes.

Miss Fuson, who will be a senior in the Medford high school next year, has led fields of feminine enthusiasts through several tournaments. Her mother, Mrs. Tom Fuson was also an entry in the spring handicap.

SEATTLE MERMAID TO DEFEND SPEED TITLE

NEW YORK, July 16.—(AP) Having shown her thrashing feet to a field of star performers in the 100 meters and mile events, Helene Madison, Seattle's 19-year old aquatic marvel, will defend another of her numerous water speed titles, the 440-yard event, tonight in the National A. U. swimming and diving championships at Bronx beach.

In successfully defending her championship in the mile last night, Miss Madison broke the four year old world mark for 1500 meters by more than 27 seconds. Her time for the mile, 24:45, was more than 11 seconds behind her own world standard for the distance, however.
