

HUNGARIAN AIR HEROES ARE FETED

Farm Wagons On Country Road Forced Fliers to Land in Open Field—Wing Damaged—Return Via Africa, South America

VIENNA, July 17.—(AP) Captains Alexander Magyar and George Endres who flew the monoplane "Justice for Hungary" across the Atlantic are to receive the Lord Rothermere prize of $10,000 for the feat.

The British publisher today telegraphed congratulations to Magyar and Endres and sent another wire to Premier Count Bethlen asking him to give the fliers the $10,000 check representing the prize he posted for the first flight from the United States to Hungary.

BUDAPEST, Hungary, July 17.—(AP) It was a couple of farm wagons, lumbering along in the dark of a country road which almost wrecked the "Justice for Hungary" Captain Alexander Magyar said this morning.

They had intended to bring their ship down in a roadway when their fuel ran out, but just as they were about to land Captain George Endres, who was piloting, saw two farm carts in the road and had to swing the ship over into an open field.

The propeller struck the ground and one of the wings was damaged but the fliers were unhurt.

During the night the farmers in the vicinity of the little town of Bicske covered the transatlantic ship with flowers and a guard was mounted to keep off souvenir hunters.

Arise Early
Captain Magyar was up at seven o'clock, ready for a good breakfast and as fresh as though he had not topped off 25 hours of ocean flying with a night of celebration among his friends.

Emil Szalay, Flint, Mich., sausage maker who financed the flight, this morning received the personal thanks of Premier Count Bethlen.

Focusing the world's spotlight on their native land with the first trans-Atlantic flight from America to Hungary, Magyar and Endres gave themselves up today to the plaudits of their countrymen.

A crowd had waited last night to receive them, but thousands had gone home in despair. The men were taken first to the home of Premier Bethlen where he and members of the cabinet felicitated them on their achievement in behalf of Hungary's rights.

Tell of Hazards
Later, over tankards of beer, they told how diminishing gasoline over land and heavy storms over water had made their feat a hazardous one.

"We hardly saw anything of the ocean during the trip," one of them said. "It was wrapped in dense blankets of fog. We were overtaken by a severe storm towards midnight last night. The storm lasted three hours and shook the plane very badly."

"When we first reached Hungarian territory our fuel had nearly given out and in the neighborhood of Bicske we could not keep the motor running any longer and were forced to come down. It was a sad decision we had to make before landing but there was nothing else for it."

They plan to remain here about a month and then make a return crossing of the Atlantic via Africa and South America.

WORK FOR RUSSIA MEANS U. S. RUIN

TORONTO, Ont., July 17.—(AP) Speaking before the Lions' convention Col. Alvin Owsley of Dallas, Tex. past commander of the American Legion, declared that the 3000 American engineers and executives working in Russia under Soviet auspices should have their citizenship forfeited if they refuse to return to the United States in thirty days.

"The ruin and impoverishment of the free workmen of the United States will result from industrialization of Russia," Col. Owsley predicted.

Doomed Slayer Worried About Noose On Neck

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 17.—(AP)—Fred Mott, convicted of the murder of May Douglas Thomas, San Francisco radio salesman, was hanged at Folsom prison here today. The trap was sprung at 10:01 and he was pronounced dead at 10:15.

Warden Court Smith said while Mott was on his way to the scaffold, Mott said: "Be sure that rope don't break, and be sure you get it on right."
During his last few moments alive, Mott told the warden he was glad it was over, as he was tired of living, anyway.

BUCKINGHAM BALL BRILLIANT AFFAIR

LONDON, July 17.—(AP)—The first private ball in Buckingham palace in 19 years, graced by King George and Queen Mary last night, was social history today.

The king and queen were the center of a swirling mass of dancers in the crimson and gold and white state ballroom—fine ladies with long white kid gloves and courtly gentlemen in court dress and knee breeches. He was dressed in the full uniform of a colonel-in-chief of the Black Watch and she in a gown of ivory colored chiffon, embroidered with pearls and diamonds. They led the royal cotillon.

AX ASSAULT MAY RESULT IN DEATH

ST. HELENS, Ore., July 17.—(AP) Named by a companion as the man who yesterday struck with an ax and fatally injured Ernest Ballard, 30-year-old Portland chimney sweep, William Fox, Portland, today faced the possibility of a murder charge being placed against him.

Ballard died from his injuries here last night. Mrs. Nellie West, also of Portland, told Columbia county authorities she saw Fox strike Ballard with the ax. She is held in the jail here together with Fox.

After interviewing the woman here last night, Prosecuting Attorney Foote said Fox probably would be charged with murder.

PENDLETON HARVEST BEATS EXPECTATION

PENDLETON, Ore., July 17.—(AP)—With harvest on in general over Umatilla county, the wheat yields are better than expected, although the lighter land is running lower. The average yields in the heavier land is running from 30 to 45 bushels to the acre. The county yield this year is estimated at four to four and a half million bushels.

will see him again. My heart tells me.

The complications of the romance took on another "fighting" aspect during the day.

May Face Fight
Mrs. Kennedy-Hudson's statement that she would keep on "fighting" for her "man," was matched by indications that he might have to fight for a divorce, if any.

A hint from the evangelist's attorney that Mr. Hudson might go to Nevada, preparatory to obtaining a divorce, brought a statement from Jay C. Craig, attorney, who said he was representing Mrs. Newton-Hudson, that if there was any divorce she would get it.

Craig, despite a statement to the contrary last night from his client, said he might ask for legal inquiry into Mr. Hudson's latest marriage.

"If there is any divorce granted, Mrs. Newton-Hudson will get it," Craig emphasized. "I am not prepared yet to say what other steps she will take, but she is not going to submit tamely to this flouting of the law governing marriage and divorce."

CREAMERY AND DAIRYMEN END PRICE BATTLE

Former Pay of $2.25 Re-established by Gold Seal Creamery After Meeting—Usual Deliveries Made

Threatened milk war in the city of Medford, arising from a price cut on whole milk, ended this morning when producers supplying the Gold Seal creamery and owners of the creamery met and settled their difficulties in an amicable manner.

The former price of $2.25 per 100, prevailing before the cut announced by the creamery July 15, was re-established and will be paid for all milk used for bottling, Ted Gebauer, secretary of the creamery, stated this afternoon. The creamery formerly paid this price for all milk received from the producers.

The decision apparently met with approval of all concerned and milk will be delivered as usual to the Gold Seal creamery tomorrow. No milk was delivered by the producers yesterday until the former price was paid, according to their statement, and no milk went to the creamery this morning.

The cut announced by the creamery Wednesday brought the price down to $2 per 100.

PORTLAND FEARS NEW MILK FIGHT

PORTLAND, Ore., July 17.—(AP) The Journal said today the entrance of the Battle Ground, Wash., cheese co-operative interests into the Portland milk territory "is about to be formally announced."

This means, the paper said, that "another fight is brewing in the scramble for the fresh milk business here."

"Word is passed in the trade," the article said, "that the Battle Ground dairy interests over whom a fight was waged here last fall, have taken over the plant and equipment of the Home Creamery company of Portland."

Cow Stealer Nabbed.
PORTLAND, July 17.—(AP)—Frank Simpkins, charged with grand larceny for having allegedly stolen a cow from the farm of I. Hussey of Willamina and selling it to a Wapato, Wash., butcher, was under arrest here today under the "gasoline cowboy" act.
