Lydiard Home at Table Rock, Scene Of Lovely Wedding

An event of the past week of much interest to southern Oregon society was the wedding of Miss Sue Lydiard and Mr. Frank C. Marsh of Los Angeles and the reception, which followed the ceremony at the Table Rock home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret Lydiard.

The wedding service was read by Rev. Claude B. Porter of the First Presbyterian church before a candle lighted altar, banked with pink gladioli, arranged below the colonial stairway.

The bride, charming in a long fitted gown of ivory satin, was unattended, and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

Following the ceremony, guests were received from 8:30 to 10 in the drawing room, decorated with summer flowers, and on the lawn, lighted with multi-colored Chinese lanterns.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh left after the reception for a motor trip to Rainier national park, from which they will return to Los Angeles to make their home, where Mr. Marsh is in the automobile business.

Mrs. Marsh is a sister of Mrs. Berthold Barum, Wm. H. Lydiard and Stanley Lydiard of this city. Miss Grace Lydiard of Table Rock and Mrs. Ringo of Los Angeles.
