MOE WINS
WESTERN TITLE
EASY STYLE

MacNaughton No Match for 1929 Champion, and in Trouble Entire Distance—Wins Only One Hole in Afternoon Play.

PORTLAND GOLF CLUB, Portland, Ore., July 18.—(AP)—For the first time in the last six years a western amateur golf championship was won by a Pacific Northwest player when Don Moe, Portland, 1929 title, conquered his fellow townsman, Malcolm MacNaughton, 9 and 7, in the 36-hole final match.

MacNaughton, a flashing star in the championship from the start, was a walk-away for the champion from the start, MacNaughton flashing through the rough and traps made the 847. He had the time of 1:10 getting halves, left alone.

MacNaughton was in some sort of trouble through every hole and only got himself from losing by a narrow margin through a few miraculously saved.

Moe was even par for the 22 holes while MacNaughton was 13 over. The loser won five holes and Moe won 14 for Don Moe. MacNaughton's 14 for Don Moe was the only hole and that when MacNaughton putted at the 27th. Moe was down at the end of nine holes and Moe won at the 27th.

The new champion who eliminated Jimmy Lehman, Chicago, in the final, yesterday, played the afternoon game he had shown in a tournament. He seldom was troubled, hitting most of his shots as he looks say they should be.

MacNaughton no match for the afternoon round, getting or having every hole until they reached the 27th. Moe played miserably, losing the 22nd, 23rd and 26th to par and barely got halves at the 27th. He was in the rough or on a trap on every hole.

MacNaughton staved off defeat until the 27th with a par, but making a great chip from behind a tree, he won a six-foot putt while Moe was short for the moment.

MacNaughton won the championship, 9 and 7, in the 36-hole final match. Moe defeated the Chicagoan in the quarter-finals to march to the title and last year Lehman won the championship, 9 and 7, in the 36-hole final match.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—(AP)—One run scored in the first inning was sufficient for the Missions to win over the San Francisco Seals here tonight, 1 to 0. Angie Walsh of the Missions and Claude Willoughby of the Seals started a pitcher's duel, each allowing eight hits.

The winning run came with two out as Kelly singled to left and Eckhardt slammed out a triple bagger, scoring Kelly. The Seals were chalked up with three errors.

LOS ANGELES, July 18.—(AP)—After tying the score at 2-2 in the eighth inning, the Seattle Indians lacked the necessary punch to win tonight's game, the Hollywood Stars taking it, 4-2.

For seven innings, Frank Shellenback, the ace of the Star hurlers, had blanked the Indians. In the eighth, however, they got to him for three hits and two runs which knotted the score.

The Braves this year already have drawn more than 400,000 paying customers to their Boston games. This is far ahead of any record of recent years.
One of the secrets of the success of Fred Fitzsimmons, big right-hander of the New York Giants, is in the skill with which he keeps the ball concealed during his wind-up.
Rabbit Maranville of the Boston Braves is playing his twentieth year in the big leagues. He plays shortstop, second only to battery work as the toughest job in the game.
Paul Berlenbach, former light heavyweight champion, is trying to "comeback". Berlenbach, after being in retirement for several years, is fighting in small clubs around New York.
Babe Ruth, home run king, has averaged around two strikeouts for every circuit blow. The big Yankee right fielder has hit more than 50 home runs during his major league career.
