"Their Mad Women" at Craterian Today. Warner Baxter and Dorothy Mackall are seen together for the first time in their screen careers in "Their Mad Wives," tempestuous romance of the Basques filmed by Fox, which opens today at the Fox Craterian. Hamilton MacFadden and Chandler Sprague directed the picture, which is a screen adaptation of Eleanor Mercein's piercing novel, "Basquerie," which deals with the stirring adventures and romance common among the pleasure-loving Basques. The story tells of a modern American society girl, Dorothy Mackall, who loves a handsome Basque, Warner Baxter, but is faced with a marriage of duty in order to pay the bills incurred by her scheming stepmother, Nella Walker.

Maurice Chevalier in Isis Laugh Hit. Fans will laugh until their sides ache! They will fall head over heels in love! For Maurice Chevalier brings all of his marvelous, whimsical love-and-laugh-making talent to his rich role in "Playboy of Paris," the current feature at the Isis theatre. As a waiter, Chevalier turns work into play; as a millionaire playboy in the brilliant French capital he turns play into a riot of romance. Three women are trying to capture him for a soul mate, but Maurice wants to love them, all and let it go that.
