"Always Goodby" Is Fox Craterian Film

Piety emotions running the whole gamut of human experience are revealed by Elissa Landi in her second triumph, "Always Goodby," which opens a two day engagement at the Fox Craterian theatre today.

Miss Landi's portrayal of the wondrous - wise, charming, glamorous woman-of-the-world heroine in this film is by a more finished, nature piece of emotional work than she gave in her first American film, "Body and Soul" which brought her to the favorable attention of national critics.

Lewis Stone and Paul Cavanagh are seen in chief support of Miss Landi, the star with a cast that includes such noted players as Hohn Garrick, Frederick Kerr and many others.

"Always Goodby" is from a story by Kate McLaughlin. Several special selected short subjects including the Fox MovieNews completes the bill at the Craterian.

TOUR BY ARNOLDS DISCLOSES OREGON OUTLOOK IS BEST

Conditions look better in Oregon than in any one of eight other states visited by Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Arnold on a recent motor tour, they announced this morning following their return from a six weeks' vacation, during which they traveled over 7000 miles.

Conditions look better in Oregon than in any one of eight other states visited by Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Arnold on a recent motor tour, they announced this morning following their return from a six weeks' vacation, during which they traveled over 7000 miles.

California, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oklahoma were included in their itinerary and they found the weather dry and hot and times "hard" in all of them.

Deserted stacks in great numbers were viewed in Montana, where the water scarcity is taking on a serious nature. In Oklahoma, farmers who have raised bumper crops of wheat informed Mr. Arnold they will not realize enough money at 28 cents a bushel, the present price, to pay for their seed.

Several ranches in New Mexico had an almost prosperous look, but the agricultural regions of other states visited formed a sad picture, the Arnolds said today, and they are mighty glad to be back in Oregon.

They were accompanied on their trip south by Misses Luella Wright and Alice Snider of Eugene, who attended the meeting of the National Teachers' association in Los Angeles. Miss Wright joined them again in Denver for the return trip.

Stewart Rice, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Rice of Alamo, Texas, who is receiving treatment at the Community hospital for serious injuries sustained when the discharge of a gun in the hands of Delbert Tingleaf of Eagle Point passed through his stomach, spleen and left lung, is in an improved condition today and expected to recover, Dr. A. E. Dehn, attending physician, announced this
