Walker Upsets Fistic Dope Gets Draw With Big Bostonia

FANS ACCLAIM RUGGED LITTLE MAN AT FINISH

Referee for Mickey — One Judge for Sharkey—One for Draw — Sailorman Looked Foolish at Times

By Edward J. Neil.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

BROOKLYN, N. Y., July 23.—(AP)—The official decision says Jack Sharkey didn't lose, but on lion-hearted little Mickey Walker fight-dom today showers all the acclaim and golden promises that go to a newcomer scaling the heavyweight heights.

In the very heart of the heavy-weight picture is the rugged, grinning, battle-scarred face of the chunky fellow from Rumson, N. J., welterweight and middleweight title-holder in his time, now at least as good as Sharkey because two learned judges and a referee compromised on a draw after 15 rounds of hurly-burly battle in Ebbets' field last night.

Surprising Upset.

Certainly Mickey turned in the most surprising upset of many a flatic season as he harassed the big sailorman through the rough and tumble battle that revealed Sharkey in another of his disappointing struggles and gave a crowd of 32,000 a chance to boo and exult in his discomfiture.

There was no questioning whom the crowd that almost filled the National league ball yard thought had won but the arbiters arrived at the compromise decision by every possible route left open to them.

Arbiters Compromise.

Referee Arthur Donovan, for instance, thought the bulldog courage, the eternal aggressiveness of the little fellow who gave Sharkey an advantage of 29 pounds, inches in height and reach, entitled Mickey to the decision. Judge George Keluy voted Sharkey the award apparently on the basis of his right hand punching that gashed Walker's left eyelid in the fifth round and opened it wide in the closing session. Judge Charles F. Mathison chose the middle course and called it a draw while the Associated Press score sheet counted up the same way, with seven rounds for Walker, seven for Sharkey and one even.

But regardless of the futility of the decision, as futile as the battling itself, honors for the evening swept into the lap of Walker, the 169¼ pounder who dared tackle a Sharkey weighing 198¼ pounds.

Sharkey Lacked Fire.

Sharkey plainly showed the effects of his ring layoff of over a year since he lost his chance to win the heavyweight title by fouling Max Schmeling in the fourth round two Junes ago. He boxed slowly, cautiously and looked ridiculous at times valiantly holding on to the little fellow who hardly came up to his chin.

But regardless of Sharkey's inefficiency and lack of spark, Walker amazed the critics with his dogged, firing tactics, his ability to take the big sailor's best punches when they did land and the determined left hand socking to the body that at times had a lot to do with Sharkey's holding.

A one to three shot in the betting, considered Sharkey's superior in nothing but fighting heart and ability to take punishment, the tough little New Jersey man forced the fight from the start.

Kept in Close.

He kept close to Sharkey, coming up inside the sailor's long arms to whang his left hook deep in Jack's body, hook both hands to the chin, and gally rebound from punishment that might have stowed away a less brave warrior.

Caught off balance in the fifth round, a right to the chin bounced Walker to the carpet but he jumped up immediately and there was no count. A few seconds later another right started the cut in the eye to and Mickey was hurt, but he weathered the round, fought his way back in the sixth, and was firing as lustily as ever from then on until Sharkey made his finishing spurt through the last four rounds.

In addition to the first round, where Sharkey outboxed Walker, the fifth and sixth were the only rounds Jack won, up to the twelfth. The second round was even.

Jack Wobbly.

Mickey made up for his bad fifth inning by staggering Sharkey in the 11th. The sailor leaned back into the ropes in a graceful gesture to avoid Walker's punches and before he could get away Mickey was on him so fiercely, volleying both hands to the head and body for clean hits, that Sharkey wobbled as he pushed his way finally to the center of the ring.

Three times, in the fifth, eighth and fifteenth rounds, Sharkey was warned either for low blows or butting. The big crowd that paid $210,000 to see the show booed Sharkey roundly as Referee Donovan called attention to the fouls.

The verdict another severe blow to the fading Sharkey prestige, may mean a return bout between the pair or it may lift Walker to such prominence that he will get the title shot at Schmeling next June.

DUCKS DECREASED BY LONG DROUGHT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Drouth conditions during recent years have caused a serious decrease in the numbers of wild ducks, the U. S. biological survey announces.

Preliminary investigations of the survey indicate this year's wildfowl hatch will be the smallest on record. Game birds of North America are confronted with the most serious situation in U. S. history, biological survey officials contend.

Shorter shooting seasons and other restrictions to reduce the kill of waterfowl this year have been authorized by Arthur M. Hyde, secretary of agriculture, in an effort to conserve the supply of game birds.

With Rod and Gun

An incident reported at Gold Beach last Sunday shows that all anglers are not good sportsmen and sometimes employ tactics which would put burglars on the black list. At the mouth of the river, where it flows into the ocean, is a section called "The Jaws." Here the fishermen line up in boats, cast their lines into the river and let their spinners spin. Other anglers cast their lines from the bank and one of the latter last Sunday threw his line into the boatmen's territory and across another's line.

The line caught on the sinker and the poor sport pulled out his competitor's tackle and threw spinner and all into the ocean.

Macleay is now taking between 100 and 150 fish from the river each night, according to reports at Gold Beach. It is pointed out that these fish compose the fall run of Chinooks, which would be available to local anglers if the river were closed.

Crater Lake continues to be a popular resort with fishermen. Several parties of local people have had very good luck there. Dr. R. C. Mulholland, J. Verne Shangle and Bob Wilson left this morning for the lake and are expected to return tonight with fine catches.

PORTLAND HANDS 18 TO 8 DEFEAT IN BATTING FEST

(By the Associated Press)

A first inning four run lead which Hollywood accumulated withered and disappeared under a sweltering attack by Portland and the Beavers took the game 18 to 8 at Portland last night. Portland went after the Hollywood lead in the second inning when they scored five runs, got two more in the third and added five in the fourth.

It took Los Angeles and Oakland part of two days to decide a double-header which the Angels finally took after stepping over into the early hours of this morning.

Yesterday afternoon the Angels shut out the Acorns 3 to 0 in a rather uneventful affair but last night it took 12 innings before Los Angeles emerged a 13 to 12 winner.

Sacramento took a see-saw game from the Seals 9 to 7 in ten innings.

To complete a heavy hitting day, the Mission Reds out-swatted Seattle and took an 11 to 8 decision. The Reds hit 15 times and Seattle got 13.

PIRATES FAIL TO SUPPORT KREMER IN GOOD HURLING

Champion Hard Luck Player Is Far Down in League List — Cubs Climb Back to Third Place in Standing

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

When the nominations open for the champion hard luck player of the 1931 baseball season, Remy Kremer of the Pittsburgh Pirates is in line for a good many votes.

He has been pitching a fairly good brand of ball, but the Pirates seldom have backed him up and as a result he is far down the National league list with only six victories against 12 defeats.

So far he has pitched 160 innings and allowed 164 hits. Yesterday he suffered another setback to make it four defeats in his last five starts, three of them by one run margins. He pitched eight shutout innings against Brooklyn in the second game of yesterday's doubleheader but lost a 3-2 decision to Freddy Heimach in one bad inning, the second, when three hits and a bad throw by Traynor gave the Robins all their runs.

One Hit Secres Six

Pittsburgh won the first game 10-3 when the Brcoklyn defense went to pieces in the sixth inning just as Joe Shaute hit a wild streak. The Pirates scored six runs on only one hit.

The Chicago Cubs furnished the real feature for the National league yesterday as they edged out Boston 5 to 4 in an eleven inning clash and climbed back to third place in the standing.

John McGraw came back to the New York Giants' bench and promptly saw his team drop to fourth through a 4-3 defeat at the hands of the Cincinnati Reds.

The Yanks got only an even break with Detroit, losing the first game 3-2 as George Uhle held them to six hits and winning the second 9-5.

A's Increase Lead

Philadelphia's Athletics increased their margin to nine full games with their ninth straight triumph. The A's landed on Mel Harder in the seventh to beat Cleveland 7-3 as Rube Walberg turned in his 14th victory of the season while Washington took a beating from the St. Louis Browns.

Deep in the second division, the Chicago White Sox and Boston Red Sox put on a good private scrap, dividing a double bill. Boston took the first game 3 to 2, while Chicago pounded out a 9 to 3 triumph in the second clash.

JUNIOR BASEBALL HERE SUNDAY HAS INTEREST OF FANS

Salem Invasion Seen As Revival Keen Rivalry Between Cities — Winner Goes to State Finals

Baseball fans of southern Oregon have begun to manifest interest in the game next Sunday at the fairgrounds, between the Salem and Medford Juniors for the championship of western Oregon in the American Legion state wide contest for the right to appear in the finals at the State Legion convention at Corvallis in August. The game starts at 1:30 o'clock and will be over by four o'clock, giving devout fishermen a chance to get to the river in time for the evening fishing. Portland plays Ontario at Ontario Sunday.

Salem Rates High

The Salem team, which is selected from all of Marion county, has won all its games by lop-sided scores. They have a couple of heavy hitters and a left handed pitcher who is better than the average. The ousting of the Eugene team for failure to comply with the regulations, was quite a jolt to Salem as they expected an easy time defeating them.

All the rivalry of past basketball and football games will flame anew in the game here Sunday. It has always been the rule when Medford and Salem athletic teams get together the fur flies, and the battle is worth watching.

Rosters Announced

The complete roster of the two teams is as follows, and all have been duly certified, as to age, etc.

Medford—George Harrington, Clarence Kell, Tom White, Alvin Reinking, George Smith, Dick Lewis, Charles Ward, Bill Hammersley, San Vandyke, Harold Wilson, Alva Merritt, Aaron Vaughn, Romnie Vaughn, Bob Smith and Donald Ashpole. List turned in by Fred Scheffel, manager.

Salem (Marion County Juniors)—Carl Schwab, Lloyd Perrine, James Nicholson Jr., Alphie Rudisharser, Victor Peck, Vern Peek, Gerald Mason, Leonard Faist, Daniel McCarthy, Lawrence Lusee, Earl Ramp, Leland DeJardin, Robert Coleman, Vincent Keber and Roy O'Brien. List turned in by Oliver B. Ruston, manager.

MRS. KNUTE ROCKNE GOING INTO MOVIES

CHICAGO, July 23.—(AP)—Mrs. Knute Rockne is going into the movies.

The widow of the famous football coach left last night with a group of former gridiron stars for Hollywood, Cal., where she will take part in a picture portraying football at Notre Dame.

Rockne was killed in an airplane accident last spring while en route to California in connection with the picture.

BUTTER ADVANCES, EGGS TO FOLLOW; TURKEYS WANTED

PORTLAND, July 23.—(AP)—Advance in the price of butter on the produce exchange here was commented upon today as an "overdue acknowledgement" of the strength of the trade. Advancing of the price of cube butter on the exchange to 26c lb. for top score, placed the quotation practically in line with what has been offered and paid for such supplies on the open market.

The price of butterfat was advanced 1c lb. in line with the change in butter but quotations are still somewhat mixed.

There is much talk and even advances in card prices on eggs, but little or no actual change is shown in selling prices to retailers for the day.

Market for live chickens continues to reflect a rather firm tone here with recent higher prices well maintained. Heavy hens continue chiefly sought.

Demand for freshly killed turkeys is still unfilled here and there remains a very good call up to 28c lb. for hens.

Market for country killed meats shows a sliding tendency. Sales of veal, hogs and lambs are weak to lower with a general top of 13c for the former.

Advancing tomato prices here are the result of decreased shipments from The Dalles and a gradual cleanup of California stocks. Sales of fancy locals up to $1.50 box.

Some excitement is reflected in the market for cabbage as a result of very scant stocks. Prices are showing a further advance and today are higher than for some years past at this period. Sales to 2½c lb.

Pea market is higher with a scarcity of offerings.

Melon markets are unchanged generally with good cantaloupes firm.
