TRUCK DITCHES
TRAIN AT CROSSING

PORTLAND, Ore., July 25.—(AP)—The most spectacular fire Portland has had in years destroyed the warehouse of the Hawley Paper & Paper company here today. The entire stock of stored newsprint was lost and only the four concrete walls of the two-story building remained. The warehouse covered a half block. Newsprint loss was estimated by the company at nearly $300,000. No estimated was made of other damage. Twenty-four fire fighting companies responded to the general alarm and forty hose lines poured water on the conflagration. Two fireboats sprayed heavy plumes of water into the flames. All available policemen kept a huge crowd back of fire lines on the other side of which 125 firemen battled with the flames. Two firemen, C. V. Spencer and P. E. Demmitt, were injured when two trucks collided head-on while speeding to the fire. One of the fire trucks ended its careening by plowing halfway through a brick basement wall.

WILLAMETTE ISLAND

SALEM, July 25.—(AP)—Mary Oregonia residents who have purchased Washington automobile licenses at a lower rate, have applied for refunds, Charles R. Maybury, director of licenses at Olympia, informs Secretary of State Hal E. Hoss. The reason for refunds, Hoss said, is that the Oregon residents had been forced to buy Oregon licenses as well. Maybury said about 200 Oregon residents had purchased Washington license plates. Applications for refunds, he said, must be accompanied by an affidavit stating the reason why they are entitled to refund and that the application will be filed with the 1933 legislature.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., July 25.—(AP)—Determined to maintain the military blockade of the Durant-Denison toll bridge approach on the north side of the river, W. H. ("Alfalfa") Bill Murray departed for the border early this afternoon. While the governor was hastily preparing for the trip to the border, where he was "to live the life of a soldier," his negro valet, Jake, rushed into the room where Murray was busy packing his suit case, carrying an old fashioned "horse pistol" which he urged his master to take along.

MOSCOW, July 25.—(AP)—Mme. Dmitri Krynin, wife of a professor at Yale university, was both pleased and diffident today about the news that her husband has asked the British ambassador to help her obtain permission from the soviet authorities to join her family in America. She was eager to see her husband, who went to the United States two years ago, and her son, from whom she had been separated since 1925. But when she heard that within a few days she would have to play hostess to Lady Astor in her sunless room in a bleak lodging house, her housewifely pride was touched. "She would not be used to such surroundings," Mme. Krynin told an Associated Press correspondent who BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., July 24.—This must have been an awful hot spell. California papers are printing their own heat prostrations. If it hadn't been for Secretaries Mellon and Stimson and O. O. McIntyre there wouldn't have been any American tourist trade this summer. Financial depression is so bad that American millionaire polo players are having to play on American horses. I didn't know it till I was reading the statistics the other day but the Argentine republic furnishes us over 90 per cent of our tanned hides and gigolos.

TRIBAL SECRECY VEILS DEATH OF WOMAN STUDENT
WHITE RIVER INDIAN RESERVATION, Ariz., July 25.—(AP)—Secret tribal customs of the Apache Indian tribe in Cochise county today held the key to solution of the death of 23-year-old Henrietta Schermer, Columbia University student, whose body was found in a ravine yesterday near Fort Apache. Apparently convinced the young woman was slain, although the coroner has yet to make his report, special white officers of the Indian reservation called leaders of the tribe into a conference as the investigation progressed. Miss Schermer, a student of ethnology and anthropology, had lived near the reservation in a lonely cabin for a month, gathering material for a thesis on the Apache history and mode of life. In her studies, authorities believe, she came upon the guarded secret of the once fierce tribe of the southwest and in so doing aroused the enmity of its members. A 25-year-old Indian buck, Claude Gilbert, is being held for investigation in the case.
