MIDNIGHT FROLIC FOR DRUM CORPS EXPENSE TONIGHT

Tonight's the night of the American Legion Midnite Frolic and all southern Oregon comedy fans are anxiously awaiting the hour for the show to begin. At 11:30 the curtain will rise at the Fox Craterian to display the greatest gathering of talent from southern Oregon ever assembled in a local theatre. Tunes and tunes and pretty girls with dancing feet will start the evening's performance, which will continue for one hour.

The presentation of an old-time minstrel, spiced with clever variations from the old order, will be one of the high spots of the crowded bill. The minstrel will be supplemented with several smart vaudeville acts, which promise to acquaint the southern Oregon public with several new ones.

At 9 o'clock the business district of Medford will resound with the blare of bugle and beat of drums as the Legion drum corps appears for a 30-minute parade and exhibition to advertise the show. This probably be the last public appearance of the corps before the members leave for the state convention.

They will of course participate in the show, which will raise funds to finance their trip to the convention August 6, 7 and 8. The minstrel show will provide plenty of laughs with Reuel Pianos and Ertle Davis as end men and Ted Baker as interactor. Other members of the cast are Don Newbury, George Gates, John Holmer, Everett Brayton, Mutt Williamson, George Wendt, Roy Shreve, Arthur Hardesty and Roy Wilson. "Blat" will direct the corps as usual.

BUTTERFAT WAR ADVANCES PRICE PORTLAND AREA

PORTLAND, July 25.—(AP)—Failure of the produce exchange to advance the price of top score butter to a better price than was being quoted for undergrade offerings, was regarded here as paving the market in an altogether anomalous condition.

Quoting of 96 lb for both extras and standard by the exchange market. Payment of as high as 28c for sour or No. 2 cream and 29-30c for sweet or No. 1 cream is causing sellers of high grade butter at low prices more or less worry and loss.

No change was made in the price of cubes on the exchange for the week-end session.

Generally steady to firm tone continues in the market for eggs. General sale country is near old prices. Indicating some improvement in the cheese market situation the Tillamook association announced an advance of 1c.

Trade in country killed meats continues generally slow here. Sales of top calves are around 12-13c. Beef is very dull.

First cantaloupes of the season at the Yakima section were reported to be for the week-end. The shipment consisted of quality standards, priced $3.50 price.

Somewhat better price trend was reflected in the market for green corn. Owing to the slow sale generally, as well as increasing supplies, price of California Alberta peaches has been cut to a general top of 30c.

Markets

PORTLAND, Ore., July 25.—(AP) CATTLE for week 2663. Trade in cattle weak. Steers and heifers were in demand for former extremely weak. Bulls and calves appeared steady to 50c better. Extreme top for grassers desirable sorts at $6.00 with bulk of $4.00 and less. Heifers were not generally quoted above $6.25 with cows not above $5.00. Bulk desirable heifers were $5.00 to $6.00 with cows $4.25 to $4.75. Low cutters and cutters were down to $1.50, but most sold $2.00 to $3.00. Medium to fairly good bulls sold $4.00 to $4.50 while vealers showed a spread of $4.00 to $9.00 with most below $8.50.

HOGS 300, and week 2649. Market started firm and 10c higher in spots, but closed 25-30c lower than last week's final. Light butchers ranged from $7.75 to $9.00, for tops, with the majority sales $8.50 to $9.00. Bulk at extreme top at the weekend were $8.50. Strong weights and heavy stuff sold $6.50 to $8.25. Packing sows $5.25 to $5.75. Pigs sold to killers at $7.50 to $7.75. Feeders were quoted at steady and scarce around $9.00 to $9.50.

SHEEP 300; for week 10,232. Sheep and lambs generally showed a weak and depressed tone with a low of 50-75c for lambs with yearlings steady and ewes steady to 25c better. Good to choice lambs sold $5.00 to $5.25. Thin stuff was $3.80 top down to $3.00, with some small trading in in-between grades at $4.00 to $4.50; medium to choice yearlings were $3.00 to $4.25 with cull to choice ewes $1.00 to $2.75.

BAD MAN JAILED AT OWN REQUEST TO SAVE RUMPUSS

"I'm Callspell Blackie, 'n' I'm mean," a man informed Chief of Police Clatous McCredie yesterday, when telling him of plans to have warrants sworn out for the arrest of his guests and the entire group of people who happened to be in a front street restaurant at the time he was supposedly short-changed.

"Blackie" said he had given the cashier a ten dollar bill, and she had given him only 55 cents change. He had eaten a bowl of noodles. He and two guests with him. The cashier and others who were in the establishment at the time claimed he had given her a silver dollar.

With the aid of a man who happened in the police station, the plaintiff made his way to the office of the district attorney who failed to issue warrants for "everybody in the place." After borrowing numerous cigarettes from Harry Hanson, plaintiff made his way to the office of the police and requested that he be locked up before he "wrecked the restaurant."

Another man, who was said by police to be under the influence of canned heat, and who was unable to give his name, was placed in the city jail over night. He had seen a barber pole on North Front street, which did not please him, so he moved it from the walk. Officers found him hanging over a fence on the same street a short time after.

Card of Thanks. I wish to express my sincere gratitude for the expressions of sympathy and the beautiful floral offerings given during my late bereavement in the loss of my husband. Ida Snyder.
