Miss Gannaway Is Married at Home Wedding Thursday

At a lovely home wedding Monday morning Miss Thelma Gannaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gannaway, became the bride of Arthur Rander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rander of Vancouver, B. C. The ceremony was read at 11 o'clock by Rev. C. B. Porter of the First Presbyterian church in the presence of 20 guests.

The bride was charming in a gown of pale gray chiffon with coral tinted pumps lending a pleasing contrast to her ensemble. She carried a shower bouquet of American beauty roses and lilies of the valley and was unattended. She was given in marriage by her father.

The groom's attendant was Paul Gannaway, brother of the bride. Loisena's wedding march was played for the entrance of the bridal party.

The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at the Gannaway home after which Mr. and Mrs. Rander left for the south.

The bride is a popular member of local society. She graduated from the Medford high school and Oregon State college, where she was affiliated with Sigma Kappa sorority.

Mr. Rander was educated in England and is associated with Blue Ribbon, Lt., importers of Vancouver and Winnipeg.

HAVE 5000 IN USE

Sirs:

I placed 120 of these boxes (Electrolux) in the Colonial Hall Apartment after testing them for four months. I find them very satisfactory and there is very little trouble with them at any time.

In Kew Gardens we have 5,000 of these boxes in use and each apartment house speaks very highly of them.
