Members of the Medford Rotary club and their guests enjoyed an interesting visit of inspection to the new high school this noon following the regular weekly luncheon.

The trip was conducted by Rotarian Glen Smith, principal of the high school, who explained the many modern features of this splendid new addition to the educational institutions of Medford.

The new methods of lighting and heating as well as the latest type of ventilating equipment proves of great interest to the visitors.

The huge gymnasium with seating capacity for 1500, as well as the smaller gymnasium for girls showed that adequate facilities for athletics had been provided in addition to the many up-to-date class rooms and laboratories for class work.

Numerous features brought out the modern trend of construction, in evidence throughout the building.

The large auditorium with its latest type of stage and ample seating capacity for 1200, brought forth much favorable comment.

The visitors left with a new feeling of pride and satisfaction in the splendid new building which will give Medford one of the finest, most modern high schools in the west.

During the regular meeting this noon President Shockley gave a brief resume of the recent Northwest District Conference of Rotary Presidents and Secretaries, at Bellingham, Wash., last week.

MRS. McCANDLESS CAROLS GAILY IN COUNTYS BASTILE

Mrs. Mare McCandless of Port Townsend, Wash., sentenced yesterday afternoon to ten years in state prison as a "passive participant" in the holdup of the Bellview service station last Thursday by Ed F. (Tough Eddie) Rice...

The cause of her melody was not known, but it is suspected by the sheriff that she will be able to make the trip with Rice in the auto that will carry him to state prison.

Rice is under a 15-year sentence for robbery with a deadly weapon.

The court directed that Mrs. McCandless return to the state of Washington, and requested that the district attorney provide free transportation as far as possible in that direction.

The woman is madly infatuated with the ramy deater, and in her plea for leniency, spoke more for her paramour than herself.

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE SUGAR TO SWEETEN DRINKS

How could we go through summer without home-made drinks sweetened to taste with sugar and chilled with ice! Nothing can take the place of sugar in sweetening drinks. And housewives all over the country look upon refined cane sugar as the standard. Use it for iced tea, coffee and chocolate, milk shakes, lemonade and fruit punches. Refresh yourself with a sweetened drink. The Sugar Institute.
