Joe Brown Comedy Opens At Holly

"Broad Minded," the fun feast starring the king of comedy, Joe E. Brown, is now the attraction at the Holly theatre. It is difficult to imagine wide-mouthed Joe bulging out of one side of a baby Austin, in a runaway trip in which he is caretaker for his lady-killing cousin—doing the gallant to two fair damsels whose car is wreck-

SPEARS NOT TOO
CONFIDENT TEAM
WILL WIN GAMES

The University of Oregon football team may not win all its big games this fall, but it will always be a hard working bunch and an interesting team to watch. Dr. Clarence W. Spears, head coach, declared here today. Dr. Spears was guest of Medford alumni at a luncheon here today. The university team will be composed of a good many sophomores and inexperienced players. Dr. Spears said. He told the alums of each of the prospects for this year's eleven and gave details on candidates for each of the positions. Loss of such players as Kitzmiller, Christensen and Colbert will be felt by the team, it was indicated. Medford boys at the university who will be eligible for varsity play this fall are Bill Bowerman, Bernie Hughes and Bill Morgan. Praise for each was given by Coach Spears. Hughes will have kept competition in making the center position, Spears said. Eric Forata, regular center, will be in a suit on September 15. Don Watts will not be out for halfback position, it was learned. The Pennsylvania lad broke a shoulder last season and the bone has not healed properly. Watts has been working at Crater lake this summer. P. G. "Prink" Callison, freshman coach at the university since he resigned as Medford high school coach, spoke briefly on freshman prospects. Hugh Rossen, graduate manager, and Tom Stoddard, assistant, also talked to the group. $100,000 Kodak prizes. Details at Peaslee Studio.
