SQUATTER DAVIS IN NEW TROUBLE IN UMPQUA AREA

ROSEBURG, Ore., Aug. 13.—(AP)—A pitched battle between Hoy M. Foster, North Umpqua rancher, and Emroy Davis, who for several years has been the principal figure in an attempt to colonize the Fish creek burn district, was reported today by Vernon Harpham, supervisor of the Umpqua national forest. Foster, running cattle and horses in the Fish creek district, said he went to the Cedar Springs camp yesterday to salt his stock, made a camp and went to a creek to get water. His path was blocked by Davis who he said leveled a pistol at him and ordered him to take his horses and cattle and leave the country.

Kushed at Foster said he rushed Davis, attempting to draw his own revolver at the same time, but the old man stuck in the holster and accidentally discharged without injury to either man. The rancher said he threw his revolver away when the two reached close quarters, and fought Davis hand to hand, overpowering and disarming him, and driving him away. The report said Foster is on his way to Roseburg to deliver Davis' pistol to the sheriff. Davis, too, is said to be on his way to Roseburg from Diamond Lake. Davis recently was convicted in federal court on a charge of interfering with forest service employees, and was sentenced to a six-month term and paroled. Previously, he had been convicted three times for squatting and trespassing.

Progress in the juvenile Grange under the leadership of Mrs. Arnold Eckhart was shown. Programs of educational value, as well as interest to the children, have been developed during recent months. The Willow Springs group entertained with a program, prepared by the chairman, Pearl Bonney.

Mrs. Benson Not To Open Dance School

The Eve Benson Dancing Academy will not open this season in the Medford Center building, according to announcement yesterday of Mrs. Benson. Opposition of a tenant to the noise of dancing feet has necessitated this change of plans. The Benson Dancing academy has operated in Medford for seven seasons, but because of no other suitable place available will not open this fall "unless strange things happen."

Mrs. Benson said yesterday. Mrs. Benson had planned to attend the national convention in Los Angeles this month.

RECREATION CLUB HAS JOLLY PARTY AT SODA SPRINGS

The Jackson County Recreation club enjoyed one of the most successful events since organization Saturday and Sunday, when members met at Dead Indian Soda Springs as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tyrrell, who are operating the resort. More than 50 people, representing Rogue River, Central Point, Eagle Point, Talent, Oak Grove, Jacksonville, Lake Creek and Sams Valley arrived before 8 o'clock Saturday evening, when supper was served before the huge bonfire.

Following supper the crowd was entertained with a program of stunts to which each community contributed. H. W. Ward of Eagle Point was program manager. Leaders from each community were Mabel Mack, Central Point; Henry Conger, Jacksonville; Lela Shepard, Rogue River; Mrs. Brockway, Oak Grove; Reed Charley, Lake Creek; Mrs. E. C. Gardner, Talent; Harry Ward, Eagle Point and Mrs. O. T. Wilson, Sams Valley.

The loving cup as prize for the best stunt was won for Eagle Point by little June Stowell. Before midnight all members of the crowd joined in the dancing of quadrilles and Virginia reels with violin music by Jack Tyrrell. Sunday morning the club members arose early to watch Harry Ward make the biscuits for breakfast. At noon the 'soda fountain was visited and lemonade made with the delicious mineral water served.
