FOX TRATERIAN Direction-FOX WEST COAST THEATRES

Mr. and Mrs. Medford . . .
I've just seen "Sporting Blood," and I want to go on record that it is one of the fine pictures of this or any other season.

"Sporting Blood" is about horses, but it's much more than that. It's a story of humanity—its weakness and its pathos and its glory. It's the story of a horse sold down the river to a gambling ring—of a girl betrayed—and of a boy, played by the screen's fascinating new favorite, Clark Gable, who helps them both back to redemption. It's a picture you'll love and cheer and weep over!

The Home of Bread Like Mother Made

We're Funny That Way

So are we all—about one thing or another. All have little things about which we are kind of cranky, and ours runs to Eggs, Bread and Coffee.

Now about eggs. Eggs are wonderful food, when fresh, but otherwise—well, it's time to talk bread. day we got the l

Somehow we just can't forget that wonderful home-made bread mother used to make—how on baking day we got the fresh crust with butter and jam. Gee, it was good!og, sort of makes the day

And coffee—there's something about a good cup of coffee that starts you off in the morning, sort of makes the day easier.

Now you know why we inspect the eggs before selling them—why we bake real home-made bread—and why we serve Z-MOR-U coffee at our fountains. Just funny that way, that's all.
