Strychnine Loaded Weiner Kills Dog; Rewards Increased—Dog poisoners are working in Medford again, using weiners this time to deliver strychnine to the animals. A little fox terrier belonging to Mrs. J. E. White at 720 Cedar street, was killed last night in this manner, Opie Stafford, humane officer, announced this morning, and two loaded weiners were found on a porch at 804 Cedar street.

Another weiner, which had been split open and filled with strychnine in the same way, was found on the runningboard of the White car. The Whites had two dogs, one sleeping inside and the other outside the house. The latter got the poisoned weiner, and died before morning. The meat was found in her stomach when examinations were made by the humane officer.

In the family residing at 804 Cedar street there are several small children. The baby is at the age when children frequently place any food they find in their mouths, and would probably have picked up the two weiners if the mother had not found them before letting the baby out on the porch.

While the humane officer was making his examination this morning, he reports that 14 small children congregated on the street. The dangers to human life inflicted by the poisoner have added much zest to the campaign for apprehension of the offender. The usual rewards offered for apprehension of anyone poisoning dogs and additional sums will be awarded the person who finds the poisoner, Stafford stated today.

He is making a check on the sale of strychnine through the local drug stores. No known antagonism for dogs has existed among residents of Cedar street, investigation this morning showed.

ANOTHER PARTY RUMOR REVIVED IN KEMAL LAND

ISTANBUL.—(AP) The plural party hope is coming to life again in one man, one party Turkey, after lying in a coma since the demise of Fethi Bey's opposition group last fall.

Discontent with Mustafa Kemal's dictatorial People's party is leading a group in Adana to attempt to reform the liberal party of Fethi Bey. Another group in Istanbul is seeking permission to organize a farmer-labor party.

Fethi Bey is doubtful that these attempts will be any more successful than his own.

"When the day arrives in Turkey whereon election are free," he said, "I may try again to appeal to the nation's electors. At present it is useless.

"To argue that institution of plural parties would lead to a counter-revolution against the Kemal regime is a mere pretext. All the intellectuals of the country are solidly republican—and the masses do not count.

"The mass of Anatolians would be as apathetic towards reaction as towards the revolution."

Joe Brown Delights Holly's Movie Fans

So much trouble was encountered during the production of "Broad Minded" now at the Holly theatre when members of the crew spoiled shots by laughing at the gags that a special rehearsal was staged for them to take the edge off their risibilities before the scene was shot.

Joe E. Brown is the star of the picture while the supporting cast includes Ona Munson, William Collier, Jr., and Marjorie White.

"Beasts of the Wilderness," being shown on the giant, multi-life screen, has an added novelty on the bill with a Bobby Jones golf reel and a news reel with Graham McNamee, complete the bill which closes at the Holly tomorrow night.

Chuck Bier Appears On Craterian Radio

The new broadcast equipment recently installed at the Fox Craterian theater will be used for the first time tomorrow. Leah Holt, assisted by Chuck Bier, crooning tenor, will broadcast a program of classic, semi-classic and popular numbers over KMED.

The program follows: 1. "A Dawning," Charles Wakefield Cadman. 2. Overture from the Poet and Peasant. 3. "When Your Hair Has Turned to Silver." 4. "Nola." 5. "Bye Bye Blues." 6. "When You and I Were Young, Maggie."

New Gold Hill Cafe Open Saturday Night

The "Ace of Spades," unique cafe at Gold Hill will be open to the public Saturday night at 8 o'clock under the direction of "Bud" Snyder, well-known Rogue river fishing expert and guide.

Occupying a new concrete building on Gold Hill's main street, the Ace of Spades is attractively decorated in a green and cream color scheme.

Previous to the advent of talking pictures the versatile "Bud" starred at the New York Hippodrome in "Hello New York" and other similar productions, he said today.

"Sporting Blood" Is Craterian Picture

"Sporting Blood," the vivid drama based on the Saturday Evening Post story, "Horseflesh," by Frederick Hazlitt Brennan, shows strikingly that a great fiction story can be adapted to a great talkie just as well as a great stage play can.

The new picture, now showing at the Fox Craterian theater, preserves everything that the story had, plus spectacular details of the Kentucky Derby.

Perhaps she was Reno-bound, and decided a plain gold band wedding ring would not look too attractive in the divorce capital—but the old-fashioned gold continued to glitter after the ring had been placed on top of the sign at the Utah-Nevada state line.

A tourist from North Carolina, who arrived in Medford a few days ago, found the ring atop the post, and brought it to this city with him, where he turned the 14 karat gold band over to a local jeweler as part payment on a purchase.
