VALLEY VIEW BLAZE MENACES BUILDINGS

VALLEY VIEW, Ore., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—A grass fire on a deserted orchard next to the Glasgow orchard caused a great deal of excitement for awhile Friday afternoon. Fanned by a breeze the fire ran across the Hollibaugh place and up to the buildings, which seemed doomed for a while, but by hard work of neighbors the fire was finally controlled. The chemical engine from Ashland came out and assisted. There is no one living on the Hollibaugh place. Every one was thankful when the fire was extinguished for owing to the dryness, the severity of water and the wind the fire was a menace to the whole neighborhood.

Now Puff and Sam remove the wheels and on their planes, instead. They fit a pair of runners like the ones on Santa's sled. Upon their feet are furry shoes, upon their heads fur caps.
