

The Week's Society Happenings

Edited By
Eva Nealon

McCaskey To Entertain Tuesday Evening Easterners

Lincoln McCormack, Preston and Stewart Patterson will be honored Tuesday at a luncheon at the beautiful home of Mrs. H. D. McCaskey on the Old Stage road. McCaskey is inviting twelve guests for the occasion. The three guests of honor are visitors in Medford for the summer and have been here for much entertaining. Members of the ranch col-

Garden Party and Dance Enjoyed By the Younger Folk

One of the loveliest parties of the last week was that given by the Misses Elizabeth and Jean Swigart, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swigart, at their home on Genesee street last evening. Invitations were issued to about 50 guests who gathered in the lighted garden and later enjoyed dancing in the rooms of the Swigart home. Assisting Mrs. Swigart in serving were Mesdames Eunice Hillis and E. N. Vilim.

Fred Coles Honor Guests at Dinner at Newhall Home

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cole of Pasadena, who are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark, were honor guests Friday evening at a dinner party for which Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Newhall were hosts at their country home near Jacksonville. Those present were the honor guests, the Clarks, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. W. Ruhl, Mr. and Mrs. H. Van Hovenburg and Mr. and Mrs. Newhall. The Coles formerly lived in the Rogue River valley.

To Enter School

Miss Joan DeLosh, popular young daughter of Mrs. Guy Phetteplace, who leaves today for Portland, where she will enter St. Helen's Hall, school for girls. She will enroll in the regular college preparatory course and is anticipating the many sports offered and hours at the recreational house on Oswego lake, maintained by the school.

Tea Compliments Misses Getchell and Mary Parsons

A delightful event of the week for members of younger sets was the tea given by Mrs. Delroy Getchell for the pleasure of her daughter, Miss Gloria, who leaves soon to enter Castilleja school for girls in Palo Alto and Miss Mary Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Parsons, who is entering the Annie Wright school in Tacoma. About 30 guests called between four and six o'clock.

Mrs. Hubbard Feted With Bridge Event Monday Evening

Mrs. A. C. Hubbard was the inspiration for one of the most delightful parties which graced the first of the week. In celebration of her birthday anniversary a group of friends gathered at her home for bridge Monday evening. Cards were followed by a handkerchief shower for the honor guest. Those present were Mesdames M. M. Herman, J. H. Butler, L. Bundy, George Alden, H. O. Frobach, Geo. West, T. L. Knight, and A. C. Hubbard of this city, and Mrs. L. B. Brown of Oakland.

Family Party Is Wednesday Event For Mr. Scheffel

Mrs. F. W. Scheffel entertained at a family dinner Wednesday evening at her home in Wellington Heights in honor of Mr. Scheffel's birthday. Garden flowers were used profusely about the rooms and upon the tables. Place cards of floral design marked places for Mrs. W. F. Scheffel, Mrs. Carrie M. Lyman, Miss Dee Scheffel, Leslie Scheffel, Mrs. and Mrs. H. V. Scheffel, Carol Howard, Jr., and Billie Scheffel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers, Cally and Junior Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Spencer, Clinton, Jr., and Norman Spencer, Jimmy Scheffel and the honored host.

Lady Lions Meet at River Cabin This Wednesday

Although warm weather is still here and vacation plans interesting many, there is a hint of fall in the early morning and evening air which inspires various organizations to resume their meetings, marking the close of summer adjournment. The Lady Lions will hold their first meeting for early fall at the river cabin of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reames Wednesday, September 2. A covered dish luncheon will be enjoyed and the affair is in charge of the following committee: Mrs. Reaves, Mrs. Edward Leach, Mrs. H. T. Hubbard and Mrs. L. D. Inskip. Mrs. Leach, the newly elected president, will preside for the first time at this meeting. All members who haven't means of transportation are asked to call Mrs. T. G. Bunch at 690-J-3.

Miss Cree Bride Milan Jacobs City Wedding

Mrs. J. W. Jacobs left this Wednesday for San Francisco, where they were guests at the wedding of Miss Margaret Cree of Burlington to her son, Milan Jacobs. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cree of London, Canada, is a popular member of the younger set of Burlington. She has lived for many years in Medford and graduated from the local high school. For the past three years she has been with the Parker Dental Laboratory in San Francisco. They will make their home in Medford.

Local Authoress Has Four Plays to Be Broadcast

National Broadcasting company of San Francisco has scheduled for the near future four plays written by Helen Norris of this city. The first of the series to be presented Thursday evening, September 3 from 9:30 to 10, is the only one previously heard by local people. It is a story of an eastern family who come west to raise fruit. The three new plays are scheduled as follows: "Tim Kelly's Doctor," N. B. C. drama hour, 9 to 9:30 Wednesday, Sept. 9; "Thirty Minutes," N. B. C. drama hour, 9 to 9:30, Sept. 23; and "Love and Pancakes," story teller hour, 9:30 to 10, Thursday, Oct. 8.

Miss Helm Inspires Bridge Party Here

Honoring Miss Irma Helm of Marshfield, Mrs. E. W. Parrett entertained at bridge Monday for a group of her friends. Three tables were in play with high score being held by Miss Lucille Barrett and low score by Mrs. Milo Baum. Guests included Miss Helm, Mrs. Ivan Waddell, Mrs. C. H. Martin, Mrs. Baum, Mrs. T. N. Parrett, Mrs. E. N. Butler, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Fred Hoagland, Mrs. Warren Butler, Miss Mary Burkhardt, and Miss Melva Parrett.

Folkner's Home After Visit North

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Folkner have returned from an extended visit in the north. During the convention of the Oregon and Washington music teachers, they attended the master classes held by Robert Perutz, violinist, and Madam Liszewska, pianist. Seattle Folk Visit. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holmes and little daughter, Marian, of Seattle, are guests to Medford of Mrs. Holmes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Strang. They are also visiting other relatives in the valley. Mrs. Holmes plans to spend several weeks in northern Oregon after Mr. Holmes returns to Seattle to resume business.

B. W. P. Club For Coming Year, Committees Named

One noon luncheon meeting and one dinner meeting each month will be held by the Business and Professional Women's club during the coming season, it was announced at the meeting of the executive council held at the home of the president, Mrs. Edwina Weishaar Tuesday evening. Committees, which will lead the work for the ensuing year, were also named and will be headed by the following: Membership, Mrs. George Whitford Walker, emblem, Mrs. Oda Hudson; finance, Mrs. Belva Aiken; legislation, Miss Elizabeth Burr; public and international relations, Mrs. Alice Coppin; program, Miss Elsie Brown; forward committee, Mrs. Mary Bierma; transportation, Mrs. Edna Isaacs; education and research, Mrs. Laura West; health, Mrs. Lydia Hammett; publicity, Mrs. Maud Chapman; music, Mrs. Eunice Hillis; sunshine, Mrs. Ina Huson.

Mrs. Pickel Given Dinner On Birthday

Mrs. E. B. Pickel was honor guest Wednesday evening at a surprise dinner party, arranged by Dr. Pickel in celebration of her birthday anniversary. Guests were placed for 11 at the hotel Medford and dinner followed by a general social time at the Pickel residence.

Dixie Club Resumes Meetings On Friday

The first meeting of the Dixie club following adjournment for the summer will be held Friday, September 4, in the form of a 1 o'clock covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Charles Fry on South Peach street. Mrs. T. E. Pottenger and Mrs. G. R. Satchell will assist Mrs. Fry.

Graduate Nurses Meet on Thursday

The Graduate Nurses' association will meet for the first session of the fall season Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Raymond Fish, Anderson road. An interesting program is being arranged for the occasion. Weavers Move to Spokane, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weaver and little daughter, Sally Jane, left on Thursday by motor for Spokane, Wash., where they will make their home. Mr. Weaver having been transferred to that territory by the Standard Oil company of California. They will be greatly missed by their many friends in southern Oregon. Mrs. Weaver is the daughter of Dr. W. H. Heckman of this city.

Edgells Are Hosts at Monday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Edgell entertained last week with another one of their pleasant Monday dinners. Guests for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Durham and son, Victor, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Helme, left by train Tuesday for Seattle, where they will visit with Mr. Durham and accompany the remainder of their return trip to their home in Bremerton.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

We are glad to welcome home again two of our Girl Scouts from the high school troop, Doris Bashaw and Katherine Stearns, who spent several weeks at Camp Chaparral near Santa Cruz. Medford was very fortunate in being awarded this summer for the first time, these scholar ships to be given to outstanding high school scouts. High School troop, No. 1, was asked to select the two girls, and in this way Doris and Katherine were chosen. Each of the girls on arriving at Chaparral, joined the puppetry and handicraft classes. Many other classes are held in addition to these, but they felt these to be most interesting. Both girls have very clever puppets which they made and created themselves, and hope in time to train a few girls to assist them in presenting puppet shows through the year. Don't forget, you Wilpen campers, that your camp badges are waiting for you up at the Girl Scout office.

Flower Exchange Garden Club Plan For Thursday Eve

The Garden club will meet at the Hotel Medford Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. It was announced yesterday. A feature of the evening will be the carrying on of a flower exchange and each member is urged to bring some good plants. The program will consist of an exchange of gardening experiences of the closing season. Commercial growers are invited to attend and to take orders.

Ladies Aid Has Homecoming

The Ladies Aid society of the First M. E. church met in regular homecoming in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Leland Vandermarck presiding. Mrs. A. C. Bennett leading the devotions. Song, "A Charge to Keep I Have." Mrs. Bennett offering prayer. Mrs. George Kuzman, in behalf of Queen Esther circle, presented the "Institute Club" in a group of songs, and Marie Van Dermark in a reading, "Talkative Sally." Joyce Banish in a piano solo. Romance, by Baughman. Vocal selections, "Dear Days of Institute," "Follow the Gleam." Misses Bertha Arnspiger, Geraldine Fox, Madge Kuzman, Marie VanDermark, Frances Arnspiger, Luella Corn, accompanist. Birthday guest, Mrs. A. G. Bennett. Honor guests, Mrs. A. M. Siglinger, Mrs. Alice Willette, Mrs. Harry Leclay. During the social hour the Queen Esthers served refreshments.

Church Group Meets Tuesday Afternoon

The first meeting since summer adjournment will be held by the Women's association of the Presbyterian church in the church parlors Tuesday, September 1 at 2 o'clock. Mrs. C. B. McMath, president, urged all members to be present as plans for the winter will be made. The ladies of the East Side circle will be hostesses.

Building Bridge Club Entertained Thursday

Members of the Building Bridge club and guests enjoyed a bridge tea Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. A. Barker. There were five tables of bridge in play and tea served in the English manner with Miss Katherine Barker assisting her mother. Prizes at cards were awarded Mrs. E. L. Lewis and Mrs. A. E. Hutchison.

Benson Studio to Open in Medford Building

Eve Benson, local dancing instructor, has secured space suitable for another studio in the Medford Center building, second floor. She also intends to teach out of town classes two days a week, she announced yesterday. Her studio will not open early in September, however, as originally planned, as she expects to spend sometime in San Francisco and Los Angeles to secure material given members of the Dancing Masters of America at their convention and normal school during the summer.

Guests at Young Home

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Washburn and daughters Arla Mae and Doris, arrived in Medford Thursday from Yakima, Wash., to visit Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Young at their home, 829 East Jackson street. Mr. Washburn is city finance commissioner in Yakima. They plan to remain in Medford a week.

Stewart Patterson and Guests Return Soon

The return to Medford this week of Stewart Patterson and house guests, who have been attending the festa in Santa Barbara is anticipated by many members of the younger set. In the party will be Mesdames Ben Crawford and Tom Boud of Chicago, and Edwin Liedy of St. Paul. The group will spend a short time here before returning east.

Complete Visit in the North

Mrs. Orville Harding and daughter Mildred have returned to Medford from a two months visit in Tacoma and Seattle.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall on Wednesday, Sept. 2 for their first lodge meeting after vacation.

Robinsons Move to Salem This Week

Mrs. W. B. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. K. B. Gray, left yesterday for Salem, Oregon where they will join Mr. Robinson of the Public Utilities department in making their home in the capital city. The Robinsons have been the inspiration for much entertaining in this city and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Neibauer Is Guest Here

Miss Mabel Neibauer of Seattle, who has been guest for several days of Miss Evelyn Seatz of this city, leaves today for her home.

Guests at Henson Home

James G. Henson and Sanford R. Snyder of Klamath Falls are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Capt. Reynolds Is Guest Here

Capt. Oscar W. Reynolds of the United States army was a guest in Medford for several days last week of his brother Lew Reynolds and family. He arrived here upon his return from Scottfield barracks, Hawaii, T. H. and left for the presidio, San Francisco.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall on Wednesday, Sept. 2 for their first lodge meeting after vacation.

Robinsons Move to Salem This Week

Mrs. W. B. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. K. B. Gray, left yesterday for Salem, Oregon where they will join Mr. Robinson of the Public Utilities department in making their home in the capital city. The Robinsons have been the inspiration for much entertaining in this city and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Neibauer Is Guest Here

Miss Mabel Neibauer of Seattle, who has been guest for several days of Miss Evelyn Seatz of this city, leaves today for her home.

Guests at Henson Home

James G. Henson and Sanford R. Snyder of Klamath Falls are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Capt. Reynolds Is Guest Here

Capt. Oscar W. Reynolds of the United States army was a guest in Medford for several days last week of his brother Lew Reynolds and family. He arrived here upon his return from Scottfield barracks, Hawaii, T. H. and left for the presidio, San Francisco.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall on Wednesday, Sept. 2 for their first lodge meeting after vacation.

Robinsons Move to Salem This Week

Mrs. W. B. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. K. B. Gray, left yesterday for Salem, Oregon where they will join Mr. Robinson of the Public Utilities department in making their home in the capital city. The Robinsons have been the inspiration for much entertaining in this city and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Neibauer Is Guest Here

Miss Mabel Neibauer of Seattle, who has been guest for several days of Miss Evelyn Seatz of this city, leaves today for her home.

Guests at Henson Home

James G. Henson and Sanford R. Snyder of Klamath Falls are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Capt. Reynolds Is Guest Here

Capt. Oscar W. Reynolds of the United States army was a guest in Medford for several days last week of his brother Lew Reynolds and family. He arrived here upon his return from Scottfield barracks, Hawaii, T. H. and left for the presidio, San Francisco.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall on Wednesday, Sept. 2 for their first lodge meeting after vacation.

Robinsons Move to Salem This Week

Mrs. W. B. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. K. B. Gray, left yesterday for Salem, Oregon where they will join Mr. Robinson of the Public Utilities department in making their home in the capital city. The Robinsons have been the inspiration for much entertaining in this city and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Neibauer Is Guest Here

Miss Mabel Neibauer of Seattle, who has been guest for several days of Miss Evelyn Seatz of this city, leaves today for her home.

Guests at Henson Home

James G. Henson and Sanford R. Snyder of Klamath Falls are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Capt. Reynolds Is Guest Here

Capt. Oscar W. Reynolds of the United States army was a guest in Medford for several days last week of his brother Lew Reynolds and family. He arrived here upon his return from Scottfield barracks, Hawaii, T. H. and left for the presidio, San Francisco.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall on Wednesday, Sept. 2 for their first lodge meeting after vacation.

Robinsons Move to Salem This Week

Mrs. W. B. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. K. B. Gray, left yesterday for Salem, Oregon where they will join Mr. Robinson of the Public Utilities department in making their home in the capital city. The Robinsons have been the inspiration for much entertaining in this city and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Neibauer Is Guest Here

Miss Mabel Neibauer of Seattle, who has been guest for several days of Miss Evelyn Seatz of this city, leaves today for her home.

Guests at Henson Home

James G. Henson and Sanford R. Snyder of Klamath Falls are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Capt. Reynolds Is Guest Here

Capt. Oscar W. Reynolds of the United States army was a guest in Medford for several days last week of his brother Lew Reynolds and family. He arrived here upon his return from Scottfield barracks, Hawaii, T. H. and left for the presidio, San Francisco.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall on Wednesday, Sept. 2 for their first lodge meeting after vacation.

Robinsons Move to Salem This Week

Mrs. W. B. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. K. B. Gray, left yesterday for Salem, Oregon where they will join Mr. Robinson of the Public Utilities department in making their home in the capital city. The Robinsons have been the inspiration for much entertaining in this city and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Neibauer Is Guest Here

Miss Mabel Neibauer of Seattle, who has been guest for several days of Miss Evelyn Seatz of this city, leaves today for her home.

Guests at Henson Home

James G. Henson and Sanford R. Snyder of Klamath Falls are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Capt. Reynolds Is Guest Here

Capt. Oscar W. Reynolds of the United States army was a guest in Medford for several days last week of his brother Lew Reynolds and family. He arrived here upon his return from Scottfield barracks, Hawaii, T. H. and left for the presidio, San Francisco.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall on Wednesday, Sept. 2 for their first lodge meeting after vacation.

Robinsons Move to Salem This Week

Mrs. W. B. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. K. B. Gray, left yesterday for Salem, Oregon where they will join Mr. Robinson of the Public Utilities department in making their home in the capital city. The Robinsons have been the inspiration for much entertaining in this city and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Neibauer Is Guest Here

Miss Mabel Neibauer of Seattle, who has been guest for several days of Miss Evelyn Seatz of this city, leaves today for her home.

Guests at Henson Home

James G. Henson and Sanford R. Snyder of Klamath Falls are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Capt. Reynolds Is Guest Here

Capt. Oscar W. Reynolds of the United States army was a guest in Medford for several days last week of his brother Lew Reynolds and family. He arrived here upon his return from Scottfield barracks, Hawaii, T. H. and left for the presidio, San Francisco.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall on Wednesday, Sept. 2 for their first lodge meeting after vacation.

Robinsons Move to Salem This Week

Mrs. W. B. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. K. B. Gray, left yesterday for Salem, Oregon where they will join Mr. Robinson of the Public Utilities department in making their home in the capital city. The Robinsons have been the inspiration for much entertaining in this city and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Neibauer Is Guest Here

Miss Mabel Neibauer of Seattle, who has been guest for several days of Miss Evelyn Seatz of this city, leaves today for her home.

Guests at Henson Home

James G. Henson and Sanford R. Snyder of Klamath Falls are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Capt. Reynolds Is Guest Here

Capt. Oscar W. Reynolds of the United States army was a guest in Medford for several days last week of his brother Lew Reynolds and family. He arrived here upon his return from Scottfield barracks, Hawaii, T. H. and left for the presidio, San Francisco.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall on Wednesday, Sept. 2 for their first lodge meeting after vacation.

Robinsons Move to Salem This Week

Mrs. W. B. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. K. B. Gray, left yesterday for Salem, Oregon where they will join Mr. Robinson of the Public Utilities department in making their home in the capital city. The Robinsons have been the inspiration for much entertaining in this city and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Neibauer Is Guest Here

Miss Mabel Neibauer of Seattle, who has been guest for several days of Miss Evelyn Seatz of this city, leaves today for her home.

Guests at Henson Home

James G. Henson and Sanford R. Snyder of Klamath Falls are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Capt. Reynolds Is Guest Here

Capt. Oscar W. Reynolds of the United States army was a guest in Medford for several days last week of his brother Lew Reynolds and family. He arrived here upon his return from Scottfield barracks, Hawaii, T. H. and left for the presidio, San Francisco.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall on Wednesday, Sept. 2 for their first lodge meeting after vacation.

Robinsons Move to Salem This Week

Mrs. W. B. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. K. B. Gray, left yesterday for Salem, Oregon where they will join Mr. Robinson of the Public Utilities department in making their home in the capital city. The Robinsons have been the inspiration for much entertaining in this city and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Neibauer Is Guest Here

Miss Mabel Neibauer of Seattle, who has been guest for several days of Miss Evelyn Seatz of this city, leaves today for her home.

Guests at Henson Home

James G. Henson and Sanford R. Snyder of Klamath Falls are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Capt. Reynolds Is Guest Here

Capt. Oscar W. Reynolds of the United States army was a guest in Medford for several days last week of his brother Lew Reynolds and family. He arrived here upon his return from Scottfield barracks, Hawaii, T. H. and left for the presidio, San Francisco.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall on Wednesday, Sept. 2 for their first lodge meeting after vacation.

Robinsons Move to Salem This Week

Mrs. W. B. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. K. B. Gray, left yesterday for Salem, Oregon where they will join Mr. Robinson of the Public Utilities department in making their home in the capital city. The Robinsons have been the inspiration for much entertaining in this city and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Neibauer Is Guest Here

Miss Mabel Neibauer of Seattle, who has been guest for several days of Miss Evelyn Seatz of this city, leaves today for her home.

Guests at Henson Home

James G. Henson and Sanford R. Snyder of Klamath Falls are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Capt. Reynolds Is Guest Here

Capt. Oscar W. Reynolds of the United States army was a guest in Medford for several days last week of his brother Lew Reynolds and family. He arrived here upon his return from Scottfield barracks, Hawaii, T. H. and left for the presidio, San Francisco.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall on Wednesday, Sept. 2 for their first lodge meeting after vacation.

Robinsons Move to Salem This Week

Mrs. W. B. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. K. B. Gray, left yesterday for Salem, Oregon where they will join Mr. Robinson of the Public Utilities department in making their home in the capital city. The Robinsons have been the inspiration for much entertaining in this city and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Neibauer Is Guest Here

Miss Mabel Neibauer of Seattle, who has been guest for several days of Miss Evelyn Seatz of this city, leaves today for her home.

Guests at Henson Home

James G. Henson and Sanford R. Snyder of Klamath Falls are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Capt. Reynolds Is Guest Here

Capt. Oscar W. Reynolds of the United States army was a guest in Medford for several days last week of his brother Lew Reynolds and family. He arrived here upon his return from Scottfield barracks, Hawaii, T. H. and left for the presidio, San Francisco.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall on Wednesday, Sept. 2 for their first lodge meeting after vacation.