BELLEVUE

BELLEVUE, Ore., Aug. 29.—(Spl.)—Bellview P. T. A. will meet September 18 at the school house. The new officers will be installed and committees appointed. Officers are: Mrs. Oscar Martin, president; Mrs. Ross Craften, vice-president; Walter Longstreth, secretary; Mrs. W. L. Welton, treasurer.

Carl Beagle and wife and Mrs. Claude Brister and daughter of Portland have been visiting relatives here for the past week. Mrs. Joe Bandals of Bellevue is an aunt of Mrs. Beagle and Mrs. Brister. Both Carl and his sister, Mrs. Brister, attended the Bellview school about fifteen years ago.

W. L. Moore made a business trip to Medford Wednesday.

Mrs. W. L. Huxley and her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Huxley and daughter, from Three Hills, Canada, went to Grants Pass, where they visited several days with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Martin. They returned home Tuesday.

Miss Lola Talbot, principal of the Bellview school, and Mrs. Ralph Clapp, clerk of the school board, checked over the new text books on Thursday. With the books that were left last spring by the school children it is hoped that every child in the school can be furnished with free text books, which is a very welcome arrangement this year.

Mrs. J. H. Williams, who has been sick for the past several weeks, is much improved but not fully recovered.

Mrs. George Yoekel is much improved at this time.

A. L. Peachy left Monday for Bald Mountain lookout, where he is relieving W. E. Frey of Lake Creek, who is absent because of illness.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Willis Byrd, Mildred Martin and Mildred Davis are preparing a demonstration of the making of sponge cake for the county fair.

Monday evening, August 31, all Bellview voters will have an opportunity to vote on the school budget.

You'd Be Surprised at the quantity of sediment that accumulates in your car's radiator. You'll be surprised, too, at the difference poor water circulation makes in the performance of your car. Let us check over your radiator—repair leaks and blow out the dirt and sediment. You'll find that it will make a world of difference—and cost very little, too!
