

Eagle Point Champions Drub Klamath Falls Visitors by 22-15 Score

TAKE EARLY LEAD AND COAST HOME IN WILD CONTEST

Conlin Holds Pelicans Helpless While Teammates Garner Runs—Portland Outfit Comes Sunday

With Rod and Gun

Eagle Point defeated Klamath Falls yesterday at the fair grounds 22 to 15, in a game full of errors of omission and commission, with easy pop flies going for homers. The visitors could not hit, field or run the bases, and their shortstop was plunked in the tummy with a hard hit infield drive and jumped in agony while two runs trickled in. They offered pathetic resistance to the Cheesemakers' attack and were worse than the alleged "Valley All Stars" of a month ago.

Bud Conlin, an outfielder, started in the box for Eagle Point and he sailed along smoothly enough until he secured a 7 to 0 lead. He then loosened up and the Klamath team started scoring. As soon as it looked dangerous Eagle Point started scoring again.

Deluge of Runs
Maas, in the first inning flouted out a homer with the bases flouled, scoring four runs. Five runs were scored in the second, and four more in the fourth, when the valley team started to get their wind. Valencia and Best also got homers.

In the sixth, Klamath started to peck Conlin with vigor, and Valencia went into the box and Droulette behind the plate. The Pelicans could do nothing with this combination.

China pheasant hunting this fall promises to be the best in years. Many birds have been planted in southern Oregon and because of lack of irrigation they will find little cover in which to hide from the hunters. Grass and other plants have not grown to their usual height and many fields are barren.

Because of this scarcity of water the pheasants will probably inhabit the few places where there is heavy vegetation, simplifying further the hunting game.

The season opens in October and motorists report many birds now in fields neighboring the highway. Many pheasants have raised their second and third hatches.

Several good trout and steelhead catches are reported for yesterday. Single eggs proved the best lure and fishing with flea not at all profitable. The salmon are spawning in the Rogue from McLeod on up the river. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hubbard and Mr. and Mrs. George Henselman spent the week end at Diamond lake and report fishing very poor because of the bright moonlight, which makes it possible for the fish to feed at night.

Another daring trip down the river is reported by Quincy McTrick and Veltie Pruitt, Willamette valley boatmen, for last week. They journeyed from the mouth of the South Fork of the Rogue to McLeod.

FISTS SWING IN INDIAN PARK AS SERAPHS STALL

Umpire Forfeits Second Game to Seattle When Visitors Spar for Time—Extra Police Quell Mob

Members of the Los Angeles baseball team were speeding southward today, after their alleged actions in the second game of yesterday's double header in Seattle had brought portions of the Seattle police and fire departments to the ball park, under the impressions a "riot" was in progress.

The game was scheduled for four and one-half innings, and was to end at 4:15 p. m., to allow the Angels to catch a southbound train. At 4:10 p. m. a complete inning remained to be played, with the Indians leading, 4 to 1. The Indians were batting hurriedly, but Shealey, Angel pitcher who had replaced Petty, threw balls high and low and infielders kicked the ball around.

Fans Rush on Field
At this point Manager Johnson accused the Los Angeles club of stalling and demanded that the umpire declare the game forfeited. The umpire's decision was the signal for thousands of fans to rush onto the field. They crowded around the Angel dugout and surrounded several Los Angeles players. Some blows were aimed at the visiting team, Fred Haney, Angel third baseman, receiving a severe blow on the arm from an irate Seattle fan. Seattle players left the field unmolested.

With extra police unable to handle the crowd, a "riot" call was turned in which brought prowler cars and a fire company to "wet the crowd down." No wetting, however, was reported, and the fans had quieted with the arrival of extra police.

The Los Angeles players left the park by a rear entrance and took taxicabs to the station where the train was held 15 minutes for them. A number of the players jumped from their cabs at the station, swinging baseball bats.

Series to Seattle
Los Angeles won the first game, 7 to 6. The Indians won the series, four games to three.

PAUL DERRINGER OUTSTANDING AS ROOKIE PITCHER

Travelling at his present clip, big Paul Derringer of the St. Louis Cardinals will have little difficulty qualifying as the outstanding major league rookie of 1931. He might even, with a little luck, finish his first season as the leading pitcher of the National League.

When he shut out the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5 to 0, in the first game of a doubleheader yesterday, the former Rochester ace fixed his record for the year at fifteen victories and six defeats.

Bill Hallahan made it unanimous for the day by beating the Buccabees, 4 to 1 in the nightcap. Phil Collins, of the Phillies, allowed only one hit in beating the New York Giants, 3 to 0, in the second game of a doubleheader. The Giants captured the first game, 8 to 2.

Lefty Ed Brandt chalked up his seventeenth victory as the Boston Braves humbled the Brooklyn Robins, 3 to 2, in the first half of a twin bill. The Robins came from behind to beat Tom Zachary in the nightcap, 4 to 3.

The Cincinnati Reds trounced the Chicago Cubs, 4 to 3. Twenty-two thousand Boston fans watched the Red Sox take a 14 to 4 plastering from the New York Yankees.

Using a second string battery, the Athletics caught one of their infrequent beatings from the Washington Senators, 5 to 1. Goose Goslin smashed six hits, including a homer and two doubles, as the St. Louis Browns turned on the Cleveland Indians and swept a doubleheader, 8 to 3 and 6 to 3.

The Chicago White Sox committed eight errors and their four pitchers allowed twelve bases on balls, but they defeated Detroit, 10 to 8, in twelve innings.

DEMPSEY EXHIBIT IN EUGENE DRAWS BIG FAN INTEREST

EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 31.—(Special.) Announcement that Jack Dempsey, the old man mauler, is to fight Jimmy Byrne, Cooe Bay Killer, here Friday night has brought in scores of applications for reserved seats from all over southern and western Oregon.

Herb Owen, sponsoring the event, has had his staff busy since Friday filling the orders. The Dempsey-Byrne match is to be staged in McArthur Court, mammoth indoor stadium, and every seat in the house will provide a clear view of the contest, but many want seats right up next to the ring.

The one-to-three dollar scale of prices is being carried out, and the women as well as the men are making a rush for seats close to the ex-champion. McArthur Court will seat between eight and nine thousand.

Col. Bill Hayward, University of Oregon trainer and track coach, will referee the bout. Jack Baster, Eureka, Cal., heavyweight, has been signed to fight Dempsey in the event that Byrne collapses under the old Manassa Mauler's barrage of lifts and rights.

Byrnes, who will open against Dempsey, has fought most of the top-notchers and drew with W. L.
