EGGS WEAKENING IN COAST TRADE; PRICE UNCHANGED

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Egg markets along the coast were unchanged in the early trade today from the previous day. A slightly weaker tone was evident, but it was not sufficient to justify a general decline at this time. The trade was finding it difficult to move storage stocks, and until storage stuff begins to move freely, there is not much chance that fresh egg prices will be forced higher.

The market for heavy hens' eggs today was slightly slower and at least a full cent lower. Receipts have been heavy. Broilers under 1 1/2 pounds are steady. A top price of 23 cents.

There is a good call for light calves. Real heavy weights are not in big demand. The natural August scarcity of the most desirable weights is holding prices steady at 13 1/2-14 cents.

There is a good supply of huckleberries on hand in produce houses. Good berries pass to the market at 10-11 cents per pound.

Increased supplies of cauliflower depressed the market again Tuesday. The present quotation is $1.15-1.25 to the trade. Quality is very good on most offerings.

Tomatoes are suffering from over supply and the market was lowered to 40-50 cents a box for The Dalles offerings. Quality is highly mixed.

An over-supply of honeydew melons in local trade circles is throwing this commodity on the bargain counter. Large flats are available at $1. Field grown cucumbers are down a nickel at 20 cents a box. Lettuce is easier at $1.25-1.35. Corn is going to the trade at 40-60 cents a sack.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—(AP)—The stock market drifted into September today and all but stalled in dead center.

The turnover fell off the lowest level in recent years, and prices fluctuated dully in an extremely narrow range. A fairly firm undertone developed, however, as railroad issues stiffened a little, possibly reflecting an optimistic news ticker discussion of the prospect of getting the increase in freight rates. The turnover was well under 600,000 shares.

ANNE LINDBERGH GIVEN SPOTLIGHT IN TOKYO DINNER

'She's Belle of the Ball,' Is Colonel's Comment at Brilliant Affair — Sight-seeing Planned Today

TOKYO, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh lost the spotlight to his wife here last night. The colonel himself commented on it.

The occasion was the brilliant dinner given by Heijiro Wakatsuki, premier of Japan, to the Lindberghs, bringing to an end the ambitious round of social functions in honor of the visiting fliers.

To begin with, the invitations were phrased so that Mrs. Lindbergh came first. Wakatsuki gave the dinner to "the daughter of my friend, Dwight W. Morrow," New Jersey senator, "and her husband."

"Belle of the Ball." During the evening when cabinet members and their wives and other distinguished guests gathered around Mrs. Lindbergh, the colonel remarked:

"She's the belle of the ball—no doubt about that." Later he again agreed that "it was Anne's party, all right."

The affair was described as one of the most brilliant in Tokyo in many years. The flying couple today turned their attention to the prospect of sightseeing at Karuzawa, where American Ambassador W. Cameron Forbes maintains his summer home. It is near Mount Asama, the famous volcano, which recently began erupting.

After a few days of sightseeing the Lindberghs will fly on to China. They decided today that Nanking, the national capital, would be their first official stop in the far eastern republic. From Tokyo they will go to Nagasaki, Japan, and thence to Nanking. They set no date for their departure from Nagasaki.

St. Ann's Altar society invites you to a benefit card party Wednesday eve at 8 o'clock at Parish hall. Bridge and 500 will be played.

MACDONALD AND THOMAS OUSTED BY LABOR PARTY

LONDON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Ramsay MacDonald and "Jim" Thomas have been hounded from the labor organizations to which they have devoted most of their lives but few observers believe either of them will be driven from British public life.

There are too many big jobs to be done after the present financial crisis is solved, it is felt, for them to remain in view of his many years as leader of the National Railwaymen's union. If he does he is likely to be recruited to help handle great empire problems with which he has been familiar as dominion secretary.

As for Mr. Thomas he will be lucky to escape the directorate of one of the four big railway systems of Great Britain in view of his many years as leader of the National Railwaymen's union. If he does he is likely to be recruited to help handle great empire problems with which he has been familiar as dominion secretary.
