

CANDIED PEARS IN RECIPE LISTS FOR PROMOTION WORK

A box of candied pears arrived at the Mail Tribune today with an accompanying recipe, which is submitted to the public in order that many people may make the tasty dainty, which is especially fine for gift boxes, a sweet for children and parties.

Mrs. B. L. Hunter of 112 King street prepared the candied fruit and offers this recipe to add interest to the campaign for promotion of pears.

Peel, core and halve Bartlett pears. Cook in thick syrup until clear, being careful to keep pears from becoming too well cooked or breaking. Lift pears from syrup and place in dripping pan, core side up. Place pan in warming oven or cover with netting and place in the sun. Keep all excess syrup poured off. Allow to stand over night and then turn pears. Let stand another day. As soon as pears can be placed on a wire rack allow them to stand close to slow heat or in the sun until they are candied, about two days is sufficient time. Roll in granulated sugar and pack in boxes between sheets of oiled paper. Pears must be sufficiently dried or they will form syrup.

LIONS' CLUB GIVES SUPPORT TO PLAN STATED BY GATES

The Lions club at the regular luncheon today noon at the Hotel Holladay resolved to prepare a letter pledging support to Governor Meier's home products campaign for immediate mailing to the governor. This action was taken following an outline of the work given by W. A. Gates, chairman of the executive committee of Oregon Incorporated.

"The eyes of the nation will be on Oregon," Mr. Gates told his audience, "if the plan underlying succeeds, and the only thing necessary to its success is for each man to extend to the producer the same courtesy he would ask if in his shoes."

"The plan outlined is a working plan and will demand charity of no one. Charity," Mr. Gates explained, "is disagreeable to the one who gives and spoils the one who receives. In this belief the governor's plan has been developed to avoid asking charity."

Just when the intensive campaign will open in Medford, Mr. Gates did not announce today, but secured the Lions that it will be very soon.

Upon arrival at today's luncheon each Lion found a paper weight, constructed in the form of the "king of beasts," as a favor at his place at the table. The weights are gifts from Lion H. W. Conger who was extended a vote of thanks and a hearty roar.

Plans for an international membership contest were announced and all Lions urged to cooperate in improving the record of the local club. The present attendance record was reported by Lion Scott.

Lion Heck of Berkeley, Calif., was a guest at the luncheon. Lion Harry Moore acted as program chairman and in line with the campaign to promote the consumption of pears, baked pears were served by the hotel management for dessert.

PLANS FOR STATE PRODUCTS RETOLD

Urging everyone to join the movement supporting Oregon products, W. A. Gates last evening told the Active club members "I think it's the greatest movement that has ever been inaugurated in any state because it is so easy."

In explaining the plan of Governor Julius L. Meier for Oregon people to buy Oregon products, Mr. Gates recommended that the chamber of commerce and the Granges organize speakers' forums, and explained how service clubs could be a link between the town and country in the cause. He emphasized the fact that the campaign was not politics, but a matter of self preservation.

As a part of the regular Active club business session, it was voted to hold meetings each Tuesday evening at 8:30.

FIFTEEN-DAY JOLT FOR BEER MAKER

Jesse Fredenburg, arrested in a raid on a house in which he is living on Almond street, early this week, and in which was found by the officers 48 pints of beer, one case of malt and a sack of sugar, pleaded guilty to a charge of possession in Judge Taylor's court yesterday, and was sentenced to 15 days in the county jail.

It is charged that he has been bootlegging for the past month or six weeks, and he had been under surveillance by the police for the past three weeks, as many complaints had reached the police about his operations. Although Fredenburg pleaded guilty he declared with a straight face to Judge Taylor before sentence was pronounced that the beer, mash and sugar found in the raid, did not

INSURANCE WRITERS MEET AT BREAKFAST

EGG MARKET IN SHAKY CONDITION

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 2.—(AP)—Poultry interests are watching the egg market here with particular interest as a slight weakness has been reflected in the east. The market cannot be called weak, but it is none too strong and the underlines is shaky.

No change in butter quotations has been posted in local trade circles. The better make in Portland has been running heavier than usual for this time of year, some producers report.

Weakness in the hog market at North Portland stockyards was reflected today in a drop in dressed hog prices along Front street. Best butchers, under 100 pounds, are going to the trade at 8 1/2c per cent. Spring lambs are firm at 10 cents and other lines are unchanged.

Brisbane's Today

We haven't learned to control the Mississippi.
Machinery will do it eventually, however, and, as the late William Boyce Thompson predicted, will store up surplus flood waters in some inland sea, saving them for use in drought.

The American Chemical Society, gathered at Buffalo, N. Y., is told by Professor Smyth of Princeton, Andrews of Johns Hopkins and Drury of Columbia University that, with the radio, men can hear the "dance of the finite," in other words, the noise made by molecules and atoms as they move mysteriously.

Each atom "sings its own melody and dances its own individual dance." The ancients talked of the "music of the spheres," meaning music produced by the rolling stars.
Man may become a complex animal, one ear listening to atoms, with the other to suns a million times as big as the earth; one eye studying infinitely through the telescope, the other the finite "infra-world" through the microscope.
At the same time both ears and both eyes will tell him what is going on in his neighborhood.
All interesting, but you hardly have time for it these depression days.

While Gandhi is on his way to Europe, with a hand loom, two goats and a loin cloth, to which he has added a homespun blanket to keep off the ocean's winds, Hindus kill a Mohammedan policeman and Mohammedans burn Hindu shops.

The Hindu ate pork. The Mohammedan hates him for that, as much as the Hindu hates the Mohammedan for eating beef.
To make a strong nation out of 300,000,000 with whom religious hatred is the strongest emotion, is Gandhi's difficult task.

Uncle Sam offered $800,000,000 worth of bonds running 20 years at 3 per cent and $800,000,000 in short-term certificates at 1 1/2 per cent. Both issues will be heavily oversubscribed, and the bonds may go to a premium.
People are not yet worried about the fact that Uncle Sam is living beyond his means.

fact has given rise to a number of bizarre hypotheses, all of which attempt to show that the living creature is not constrained to obey the great natural law of the conservation of energy.

Under this law the food all goes some place to be converted into various forms of energy or waste. Dr. Newburgh showed that in the case of mystifying failure of weight to decrease, the miscalculations are due to not accounting energy lost in heat radiated by the body and invisible loss of water by evaporation. He presented mathematical methods of figuring upon this factor in diet.
Discoveries through x-ray that rubber is a "true jelly" of two "phases" were reported to the rubber division by Dr. Wheeler P. Davey and Marshall F. Asken of Pennsylvania State college.

REPAIRS ARE ORDERED FOR COUNTY BRIDGES

The county court this morning ordered repairs to a bridge near the head of Antelope creek in the Clatsop region, and repair of a bridge on the Butte Falls road near Reese creek.
Supervisor William Perry said that the Antelope bridge should be repaired before some man or beast fell through it and broke a leg or neck.
The Hartman Brothers of Jacksonville are now engaged in repairing all bridges of the county for winter travel.
