

EPISCOPALIANS PLAN STAND ON UNEMPLOYMENT

Declaration to Be Made at Denver Convention Sept. 16 - Study of Attitude Toward Labor Is Made

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 5.—(UP)—An important declaration on the subject of labor and the unemployment situation that will define the attitude of the Episcopal church toward present economic conditions, is expected from the general convention of the church, which will assemble here September 15.

A committee appointed by the presiding bishop of the church, Rt. Rev. James DeWolf Perry, D.D., has been giving careful consideration to the subject and will formulate a series of resolutions which are expected to constitute an important contribution to the problem.

During the past three years a study of the general attitude of the church toward labor has been made by Spencer Miller, Jr., secretary of the Workers' Education Bureau of America and adviser on industrial relations to the department of Christian social service of the church.

The results of the study recently were published in the book, "The Church and Industry," the first of its kind ever printed in this country.

A committee of the Lambeth conference of American bishops, which met in London last year, and in which 50 bishops of the Episcopal church in the United States participated, declared in a resolution that "it is unquestionable that the war spirit is engendered by selfishness and greed in industrial and economic relations; while the increased strain of modern industry and the contrast between excessive wealth and poverty tend to foster a spirit of unrest which reacts on the international situation."

This committee also endorsed a resolution of the Lambeth conference of 1920, which said: "The outstanding duty of the church is to convince its members of the necessity of nothing less than a fundamental change in the spirit and work of our economic life. This change can only be made by accepting as the basis of industrial relations, the principles of cooperation in service for the common good in place of unrestricted competition for private or sectional advantage."

REVIVAL SERVICES BY FIRST BAPTIST TO OPEN SEPT. 13

Arrangements have been completed by the First Baptist church of Medford for the erection of a large tent for their fall evangelistic meetings on the city lots on North Central, two blocks north of the church.

These meetings will be in charge of Rev. G. F. Higinbotham, who led the local Baptist church in a highly successful revival campaign last October. The principal speaker will be Rev. W. W. Shannon, of Chicago. Of him Dr. R. E. L. Jarvis, former pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, Philadelphia, says: "W. W. Shannon is a fine example of what the gospel can accomplish in a human life. He is a great preacher of the word. He knows God and men, and uses the Book to bring them together. He attracts people and holds them—not by bluffing, but by real preaching."

BISHOP LOWE GOING EAST TO CONCLAVE

Portland, Ore., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Bishop Titus Lowe, superintendent of the Methodist church in the Pacific northwest, will leave tonight for the east, to be gone a month.

An emergency situation exists on the board of bishops, due to death, forced retirement of others for health reasons, and illness of some active men, Bishop Lowe said.

Bishop Lowe will go directly to the Michigan conference meeting at Grand Rapids to preach the conference sermon.

CHINA GRAIN SALE CUTS CONGESTION IN U. S. STORAGE

Fifteen Million Bushel Purchase Will Be Paid for at Market Price - Half Will Be Milled in United States

CHANGHAI, China, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Based on its action on the assumption that it would have to feed 10,000,000 destitute persons throughout the coming winter, the China flood relief commission disclosed today that it had adopted 15,000,000 bushels of wheat purchased from the American farm board would be less than half enough for its needs.

The commission said that, while an accurate census of the number of destitute in the current flood catastrophe still was impossible, it had adopted 10,000,000 as a working figure, this excluding those able to help themselves or capable of finding aid from other agencies.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—(AP) The farm board has sold 15,000,000 bushels of wheat to China to be used in the famine area along the Yangtze river where thousands of flood victims are starving.

The sale was announced by President Hoover yesterday before he departed for the week-end at his Rapidan camp in Virginia. He said the grain would be used exclusively for relief purposes.

The cost to the national government will be the price quoted on the market on the day each cargo is dispatched. The grain is to be paid for in equal installments in 1934, 1935 and 1936. Four per cent interest will be charged.

Half of the wheat will be milled into flour before shipment. Most of the commodity will be shipped from the Puget Sound region, and will be going moving about October 1.

With this sale, the board has disposed of 75,000,000 bushels of its stabilization wheat since January 1. This includes the recent barter of 25,000,000 bushels to Brazil for coffee, a surplus commodity in that country, and sales to east coast exporters.

Besides reducing the quantity of grain held by the board during the past two years in an effort to sustain prices, the China shipment will relieve storage congestion on the west coast.

Ralph Graves plays the daredevil, "Felixy" with the natural charm that is characteristic of all his work. Honors for strong dramatic portrayal, however, must probably go to Jack Holt, who makes an outstanding figure of Jack Braden, and holds the sympathetic interest of the audience throughout. Pay Wray as Helen, is quite attractive enough to ensnare half a dozen men, much less two, and Hobart Bosworth and Roscoe Karns give excellent support.

BAPTIST WAGON OVER OLD TRAIL

PORTLAND, Sept. 5.—(AP)—The Baptist covered wagon which left Brockton, Mass., June 20, on its journey across the continent, followed the trail of the early pioneers as the opening event of the public celebration of the 100th anniversary of the American Baptist Home Mission society, passed through Portland today. It continued on to Oregon City, where it will be welcomed officially tomorrow.

The wagon wended its way along the Old Oregon Trail. In the east it followed the trail of John Mason Peck and then took up the trail of Ezra Fisher, first Baptist missionary to the west.

Next week the wagon will go to Pendleton and while there will make a pilgrimage to the grave of David Lenox.

PUBLIC MAY HEAR IRRIGATION TALKS

A special invitation to the public to attend the meeting in this city next week of the Oregon Reclamation Congress was issued today. The official program will open Tuesday morning in the Elks Temple and continue through Wednesday.

Speakers and officers of the congress will be arriving in Medford Monday evening for a special preliminary session.

Many prominent authorities on irrigation problems will be heard on the program and all agriculturists and other persons interested in irrigation are urged to attend the meetings and banquet to be held at the Hotel Medford Tuesday evening.

MAN ARRESTED HERE WILL BE EXTRADITED

Raymond Wendt, 20, detained by the state police last Tuesday for questioning relative to the opening of an auto involved in a wreck near Phoenix, is wanted in Orange county, California, the sheriff's office was advised today, for auto theft and forgery. Louis Scott, another youth, companion of Wendt, is being held, but no charges have been filed against him.

It is expected that California authorities will apply today for extradition papers for Wendt.

KIWANIANS POSTPONE SESSION WITH GRANGE

The joint meeting of the local Kiwanis club and the Sams Valley Grange planned for this evening at the Sams Valley school house has been cancelled, it was announced today.

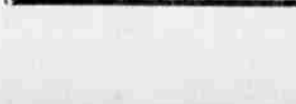

The Kiwanis club had planned to furnish the program but postponement of the session was necessitated by other matters.

Richard Arlen Has Role Rialto Drama

A powerful and relentless woman, stalking out of hidden pages in the history of the old wild west, comes to the screen as "Calamity" dance hall owner, in picture, "Caught," starring Richard Arlen with Louise Dresser and Francis Dee featured.

Readers of western stories have been accustomed to find an unbroken diet of bad men, sheriffs, cattle rustlers and gamblers, with women entering into the picture as the hardy and virtuous pioneers or the light and wicked dance hall ladies. "Caught" weaves itself into romance under Calamity's eyes, when Arlen, as a cavalry officer, falls in love with a spurious dance hall girl, Frances Dee.

Air Thriller Will Show at Craterian

"Drigible," an authentic and thrilling drama dealing with Antarctic exploration by means of modern aircraft, comes to the Fox Craterian Sunday for a limited engagement of three days.

The picture was directed by Edward G. Selman.

Every phase of the dangers to be encountered on these hazardous trips and every detail of life aboard an up-to-date airship is shown with faithful realism. The result is a picture that is sweeping in its spectacular appeal. Nor has the human interest angle been neglected—the story underlying the action is delightfully sympathetic.

Ralph Graves plays the daredevil, "Felixy" with the natural charm that is characteristic of all his work. Honors for strong dramatic portrayal, however, must probably go to Jack Holt, who makes an outstanding figure of Jack Braden, and holds the sympathetic interest of the audience throughout. Pay Wray as Helen, is quite attractive enough to ensnare half a dozen men, much less two, and Hobart Bosworth and Roscoe Karns give excellent support.

Tent Revival Gains Greater Interest

The evangelistic meetings in the big tent, located at the east end of Main street bridge, are growing in interest and attendance. These meetings will continue over next week. Sunday evening the evangelist will speak on the subject: "The Condition of People After Death, and Before the Resurrection."

Everybody cordially welcome at the tent meetings.

MURDERER LEADS POLICE TO DUMP WHERE BODY HID

Retired Army Sergeant Faints at Sight of Former Comrade's Remains - Sobs Out Story of Deed

COUPEVILLE, Wash., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Through the gray rain, A. L. Stratton, confessed murderer of William Frawley, retired army sergeant, led officers today to the body of his former comrade in arms, half hidden by boards and grasses on a lonely beach refuse dump near Penn Cove, near here.

Sobbing and hysterical, Stratton, who said he killed Frawley 10 days ago when he became angered because the former sergeant broke a sweetheart on an automobile trip around the Olympic Peninsula, collapsed and fainted when he heard the grave.

Although the body was in such condition that positive identification was impossible, officers said they had no doubt it was that of Frawley. The body was found on the last of three garbage dumps. In incoherent snatches Stratton sobbed fragments of how he had taken the body of his murdered friend to the edge of a steep bank, which overlooks the beach and the dumps, and pushed it over a 100-foot bank. It had rolled over and over for 75 feet or more. He watched it roll, coming to a stop face upward.

To hide the white blur of the face, Stratton scrambled down the bank and half covered it with broken boxes and boards close at hand.

PLEASURE CARS MUST TAKE SHOVEL AND AX THROUGH CLOSED AREA

The Medford and other valley residents who plan to spend tomorrow and Monday at Lake of the Woods, not traveling over the route via Ashland to that mountain resort but going by way of the Butte Falls and Fish Lake road are warned to have a shovel and an axe in their cars, for the reason that that road passes thru the closed area within the Crater national forest.

On this road are two forestry stations where cars are registered and permits given to travel through. All travelers will be delayed as little as possible—only a few minutes.

The permits require that each auto party carry a shovel and axe, that the occupants do not smoke while traveling, and that they do not leave the road while passing through the enclosed area.
