LOCAL MAN FAKES STORY OF HOLDUP

Informing the police Sunday evening that he had been robbed of $23 by two men near the Jackson street bridge, Tom Worthington of 911 West Eleventh street caused some trouble for the city officers, who were assisted by both county authorities and state police.
The highways were guarded and police in neighboring cities notified by telephone to watch for them. Accurate descriptions of the robbers were given by Worthington. Monday morning, when no trace could be found of the men, Worthington admitted the falsity of the story.
It developed that Worthington had lost his pay check in a card game, and that he had promised to give a portion of it to his landlady for over-due rent. No action has been taken against Worthington yet, officers said today.

AIR TAXI SERVICE SEEN FOR FUTURE

WASHINGTON—(UP)—The commerce department is looking forward to the day when the individual will operate his own plane and when a network of air taxi services will span the country for short trips, which it is believed will be in the near future.
To that end the department has issued a bulletin suggesting that airports be so constructed to handle this type of flying.
"In the very large cities during the next few years, it is believed that suburban air travel will grow to a marked extent," the bulletin predicted. "This traffic undoubtedly will be of two classes, operation between the large cities and small outlying communities and flying by private owners, who will air commute daily to their offices."

Products Dance Is Plan of Activians
In keeping with the Oregon Products campaign, which opens tomorrow, and the local fall opening, the Medford Active club is sponsoring an Oregon Products dance at the French Village tomorrow evening. Music is to be furnished by Dom Provoost's Pep Fedders.
The affair is being carried out in conjunction with the Medford merchant's campaign. Plans are being arranged by Harold Larsen, assisted by Elmo Russell.

SOCIETY

Christian Missionary Group Has Session
The Women's Missionary society of the First Christian church met in the recreational hall of the church Tuesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Alan Curry presiding. The devotional period was in charge of Mrs. Minnie Crisp, the theme being "Many Gifts and One Spirit" found in Matt. 25:14-30.

Mrs. Walter Kindred and her group prepared an interesting program for the presentation hour. The topic was, "Opportunity in the Highlands." Several papers and talks were given by the group women. Mrs. E. N. Bideo spoke on "The Power House of the Hazel Green, Ky. schools." Mrs. Gertrude Kirkpatrick chose as her topic, "Christian Education in the Tennessee Mountain School." Serving the Farmers of Tennessee" was given by Mrs. Lloyd Wilks.

Three musical numbers were given during the program. Mrs. Lois Young of Central Point sang in her usual charming manner. A duet by Genevieve Brown and Virginia Gregory was also enjoyed. The California guest entertained with a solo.
The honored guests were seated at the birthday table, lighted with candles. There were 34 members and 16 visitors present.

May Robson has appeared in person in Medford and those who have seen her are thrilled at the opportunity to see her on the screen.

Signs of Better Times

(By the Associated Press)
The fall upturn in business will reach at least normal proportions. United Business service said today. "There is every reason to believe," the report said, "a considerable number of deals and enterprises of one kind or another are pending, awaiting a more auspicious moment for their execution. A normal degree of fall improvement will be the signal for action on many of these."
