

Bob Hammond Jr., Mrs. Wood Take So. Ore. Golf Tourney Honors

MEDFORD STAR DEFEATS NEAR OF EUGENE 7-6

Takes Early Lead to Card 73 in Final—Mrs. Wood Retains Title by Defeating Miss Anna Mae Fuson

(By Art Schoen)

Playing against Old Man Par instead of his opponent, Bob Hammond Jr. of Medford, captured the third annual southern Oregon golf tournament honors Monday by defeating Dick Near, Eugene, 7 and 6. Mrs. D. R. Wood retained possession of the women's cup she won last year by defeating her youthful opponent, Anna Mae Fuson, 5 and 4.

Near, who played number one position of the Oregon freshman team this spring, had a bad morning, carding an 80 while Hammond turned in enough sparkling threes and fours to total 73, one over par. In the afternoon rounds Near started out by one-putting the first two greens for birdie three and missing two more birdies on numbers three and four by inches.

The Eugene boy won only six holes from Hammond and had to shoot birdies on four of them to beat the consistent driving and iron shots of the new champion. In the morning round Near took a four on number four, par five hole, only to see his feat bettered by a phenomenal eagle three by Hammond.

Near Finds Trouble

After the first eighteen holes in the morning Near stood 6 down and was plainly not playing the game which carried him over such tough opponents as Sid Milligan and Les Leal of Eugene, and Dr. R. G. Barkwill of Ashland.

Twice in the morning round the former Oregon junior champion found himself in difficult lies off to one side of the green but pulled himself out of holes by sinking sensational shots. He had to do that to win the only two holes he managed to capture from Hammond in the morning.

Hammond shot 37 the first nine, 36 the second, 37 the third, and had three 4's on the fourth when he finally downed Near. The crowd was with the Medford golfer in the morning round, but applauded Near's rally on the opening afternoon holes and plainly wanted the "under-dog" to cut down the 6-hole handicap of the morning.

Hammond, who held the cup in 1929 and was defeated by Donald S. Clark in the finals in 1930, played almost perfect golf, his iron shots to the greens especially giving him an advantage over Near. The loser took 40, 40, 37 on the three nines, with four birdies, while the champion holed two birdies and an eagle.

Mrs. Wood Consistent

Mrs. Wood successfully defended her title against Anna Mae Fuson by playing consistent golf with both woods and irons. The high school girl out-drove her, but the challenger's putting was off, which probably cost her the cup. Mrs. Wood was one down at the end of the morning round, but she made on near shots to three and "our holes in the afternoon put her ahead.

The champion disposed of Mrs. G. H. Fogle of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Delroy Getchell and Miss Fuson to win the title, while her rival fought her way to the finals by wins over Mrs. W. L. Quinn of Klamath and Mrs. Jack Thompson of Medford.

Donald S. Clark captured the silver cup in the first flight by trimming Les Leal 3 and 2. Bob Near of Eugene was stymied by E. E. Kelly on the sixteenth and his putt holed out Kelly for his, but Near won anyway, 3 and 2. Near was two over par when he took Kelly's measure after 34 holes.

Sharp Wins Cup

Dr. Paul Sharp of Klamath Falls carried away a silver cup by defeating George Phythian in the third flight 2 and 1. F. S. Engle, Ashland banker, won the fourth flight trophy by beating George Henselman 4 and 3. Ward Beeny beat Harry Garfield 5 and 3 to win fifth flight honors. Karl Marx defeated C. M. Kidd in the second consolation flight one up on the 27th and William Vawter also took away a silver cup by winning from D. B. Gray, 2 and 1 in the third consolation flight. Both winners and runners-up in all men's flights were awarded silver cups. Tom Emmens was awarded a gold medal for low medalist score on the qualifying round. A. G. Pringle of Seattle beat Jack Bierma in the only match in the sixth flight, 5 and 4.

Hammond and Near won their way to the finals by wins in the semi-finals over H. S. Bentley of Ashland and Sid Milligan of Eugene respectively. In the Hammond-Bentley match Sunday Hammond was four up on the Ashlander on the 13th hole and lost four out of the next five holes. On the 19th hole Bentley missed a heart-breaking two-foot putt by an inch and Hammond went into the finals for the third time in three years.

Second Triumph

Milligan lost his match with Dick Near because he could not make his putts sink right. Near was in six sand traps on the 17 holes he had to play to beat Milligan. The latter was one up at the turn when he birdied the two last holes, but Near's consistent pars on the second nine were too much for his pug-nosed fellow Eugenean. Yesterday's win was Hammond's second triumph over Near as he eliminated him last year to reach the finals.

This year's golf tournament was the largest in the history of the competition and Jack Hueston, pro, is planning even larger things for next

EAGLE PT. DRUBS PORTLAND OUTFIT TO CLAIM TITLE

Cheesemakers Take Sunday Game, 10 to 1 and Repeat Monday by Score of 7 to 2 in Mound Duel

The Eagle Point Cheesemakers, champions of southern Oregon, won the semi-pro championship of western Oregon and laid claim to the title for the state, by defeating the Pacific Outfitters of Portland yesterday at the fairgrounds, 7 to 2.

The northerners were defeated Sunday, 10 to 1. The Pointers also yesterday won a five-inning exhibition game, 2 to 1, played as a nightcap.

Yesterday's game was a pitcher's duel for six innings between Cliff Best and Jimmy Ault of the visitors. Best is old Coast league stars.

Best started to weaken in the sixth and in the seventh Cook took up his duties. He was greeted with two singles and a double to score one run.

Eagle Point tied up the score in their half when Droulette scored on a single by Gipe, pinch hitting for Blise.

Clinched in Eighth.

With the score two-all, and Ault going great guns, the Cheesemakers opened up in the eighth to clinch the game, and scored five runs, Al Droulette hanging out a homer to deep center. The slaughter ended when Ault fanned Hoffard, Cook and Gipe to end the inning.

Cook got his bearings in the final innings, and fanned two men to end the game. Fielding sparks of the game were furnished by Droulette, who stopped two bullet-like shots at third, and Repp, third sacker of the visitors, who made a sensational catch of a foul ball.

In the first game Sunday, the Eagle Pointers pounded Heller hard from the start to score 16 runs. The Outfitters got their lone tally in the first inning.

With Rod and Gun

Fishing was very poor over the holiday, but the rain which brought about that condition was welcomed by sportsmen, who feel that the storm insures good fishing for next month.

The rain will freshen up the river and entice the fish in the lower Rogue to move upward. Steelhead fishing for October will accordingly be better than usual.

The rain is also welcomed by the sportsmen who prefer the gun to the rod. The forests have undergone such a soaking that no doubts are maintained regarding the opening of the hunting season on schedule. It rained all day Sunday at Crater Lake and the fire hazard for the present time is believed destroyed.
