To Sing Tonight

Janet Gaynor stars in "Craterian Story" at the Fox Rialto theatre today and tomorrow.

playing at the Fox Rialto theatre today and tomorrow, featuring Olive Brook and Marjorie Rambeau. "Craterian Story" is adapted from the thrilling drama by Max Martin, the strange story of a man convicted of a crime he did not commit.

Janet Gaynor Stars in Craterian Story

The accolade of four stars is the least that can be awarded "Merely Mary Ann," the latest Janet Gaynor-Charles Farrell starring vehicle which opened to an enthusiastic audience today at the Fox Craterian theatre for a four days engagement.

With a story perfectly fitted to its principals, thoroughly realistic settings, an excellently-chosen group of supporting players and the admirable direction of Henry King, a splendid background is afforded the famous film "Craterian"—and they respond to the opportunity with some of the finest dramatic and emotional work it has ever been this reviewer's privilege to witness. They exceed their apocryphal work in "7th Heaven."

BAPTIST REVIVAL LEADERS MEN OF WIDE EXPERIENCE

ational in scope, in a tent to be erected on North Central avenue between Third and Jackson streets. The meetings will be conducted by the Rev. W. E. (Bill) Shannon of Chicago, assisted by the Rev. Gid Higginbotham, Devere Penhollow of Petaluma, Calif., will conduct the song services.

Reverend Higginbotham conducted a revival series here last year at the Baptist church, and is well known locally.

Shannon is a man of wide experience in the every-day affairs of life. He was a former mayor of his home city, Berwick, Penn., a member of the state executive committee of his political party, and a delegate-at-large from Pennsylvania to the famous Progressive Convention of 1912.

Converted to Christianity at the age of 37 years, he has had an unusual experience of life and believes in salvation of the real and practical kind. His understanding of men and their needs in life is very keen and comprehensive. He is a fine example of what the Gospel can accomplish in a human life. He is a great preacher of the Word. He knows God and men and uses the Book to bring them together. He does not attract people by buffoonery, but by real preaching.

He has been engaged in evangelistic work in many of the largest cities of America and is well known throughout the United States and Canada. Associated with Mr. Shannon is Rev. Gid Higginbotham of Oakland, Calif. "Gid," as he is popularly known throughout the country is a great evangelist and powerful preacher of the Gospel. He too was a man of the world, formerly a business man of Red Bluff, Calif., and "one of the boys." He was a series of revival services will be opened in this city on Sunday, under the auspices of the Baptist church, but inter-denominational for God in an evangelistic meeting in Red Bluff some years ago and since that time he has given himself to the work in which he is now engaged.

Both these men are members of the extension department of the largest Bible school in the world, the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
