SAMS VALLEY

SAMS VALLEY, Ore., Sept. 11.—(Special)—Mrs. Mollie Duggan is having a new barn erected on her farm and contemplates a new house in the near future.

Wind which preceded the recent showers, did some damage in the pear orchards, principally among the Comice pears.

From reports from other districts the rainfall was lighter here than in surrounding territory.

Mrs. J. Bigham and son, Basil, returned Monday from a two weeks' visit with relatives in San Francisco.

Teachers from this district who commenced teaching in their respective schools Monday were Miss Frances Fitzgerald at Laurelhurst, Miss Naomi Magruder at Upper Trail, Misses Grace and Ruth Bigham at Derby, Miss Frances Wilson the upper grade at Agate and Miss Elsie Straus at Coquille in the third grade room.

Mrs. Nell McMorris and son of Seattle, arrived at the home of the former's brother, W. W. Edington Tuesday, en route to San Diego, Calif., where she was called by a son who lies in the hospital there as a result of an auto wreck. The young victim and his friend, who were on a tour through the south-west had just completed a week's visit at the Edington home before continuing to California. Miss Mary Edington accompanied her aunt and will visit her sister, Mrs. Lee Newton in San Diego.

Miss Mildred Duggan enrolled in the Catholic academy in Medford this week.

State Orange Overseer M. C. Glover, with his wife and two children visited Tuesday and Wednesday with his cousin, Ellis Garrett. Mr. and Mrs. Glover, who are prosperous farmers near Portland, were on their first vacation for many years, which they decided to take through southern Oregon. The couple made many favorable comments on Sams Valley.

The Ladies' club met Thursday for its first regular meeting since spring. Mrs. Joe Dusenberry was hostess for the afternoon.

Grandpa Holst, whose 80th birthday was recently celebrated, asked that the following letter of appreciation be extended to his friends through this column:

"The 30th of August came around again with hosts of dear friends, who come and are gone, but I must stay and watch the home place. What a nice little number of 248 people, and one and all were welcome, but due to the warm days that were then present my health was somewhat feeble. Hardly did I have strength enough to keep my mind together. Really was not able to move around as I wished, but did appreciate and enjoy it all. What joy to greet dear old friends I had not seen for years, who came for my birthday. To all who took part in it, please accept my hearty thanks. May the Lord bless one and all, and when he appears on the day of His gathering, may we, by His grace, be gathered together again, good for all eternity. Respectfully, Grandpa Holst."

BUTTE FALLS

BUTTE FALLS, Ore., Sept. 11.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoover came over from Chiloquin Saturday and returned Monday.

Would YOU Kill the Sentry who warns of DANGER?

It is the eve of battle. Troops, exhausted by forced marches, are enjoying much needed rest.

Suddenly a sentry sounds an alarm. The enemy is making a surprise night attack.

Suppose these weary soldiers killed the sentry for disturbing their rest with his warning cry.

Abundant, you say. Yet that is exactly what you do when you take pills or medicine to kill the headache which disturbs your slumber.

It is nature's warning of an unhealthy condition which may be serious.

The enemies of health are numerous. Most of them lurk within the alimentary canal.

Headache, biliousness, listlessness, insomnia, constipation, piles—all are warnings, or symptoms, of more serious trouble.

If you are experiencing nature's warning, heed it! Do not kill the sentry! Find out the cause! Delay is dangerous!

Northwest Clinic specialists in heart and endocrine and the non-surgical and non-confining treatment of rectal and colon diseases, can accurately diagnose your symptoms, treat the cause, and restore you to normal health.

Relieving symptoms but ignoring causes, kills the sentry!

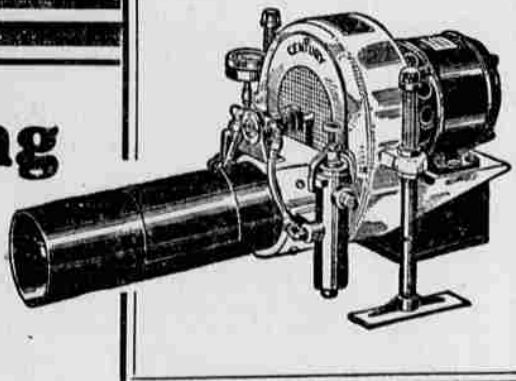

Call in person or send for free diagnostic blank and book describing this Clinic's unexcelled facilities for treating chronic ill. Reply will be mailed in plain envelope. Your inquiry involves no obligation—no embarrassment.
