ZIEGFELD GIRL IN MEDFORD FOR VISIT

Mrs. Murrel Finley Cronjager, known to the theater public as Murrel Finley, star of Ziegfeld productions, is in Medford to visit relatives before returning to New York, where she will take part in productions during the winter season. Glad to be back in Medford, although only for a short time, the blonde beauty stepped from the Shasta this morning garbed in a tailored black travel dress with a scarf "of many colors," and a black hat in the latest mode. "Like ex-President Coolidge, I have nothing to say," the Polaris star told interviewers. Shortly after her return to Los Angeles from Medford, Mrs. Cronjager will leave for the Ziegfeld studios in New York.

PLAN CHANGE FOR NAME OF HIGHWAY

Action has not been taken as yet by the Inland Empire Hotel association to bring about more extensive tourist travel on the United States highway, No. 99, W. M. Clemenson, who just returned from a committee meeting of the group in Sacramento, stated today. Among the plans formulated was that of changing the name of the Pacific highway to the National Parks highway, as practically all of the parks along the Pacific coast are reached on this route. The Inland Empire association will eventually extend as far as Canada, Mr. Clemenson stated. The organization will conduct a general meeting in 30 or 40 days to pass on the recommendations of the committee. The local manager of the Jackson Hotel attended as a representative of this district.

RUM CARRIERS TAKEN TO CITY BY WELLS

Schilling coffee The difference between the good and the best is not always much—but it is there, just the same. Invariably the best things are made by someone who refuses to make anything else. There are many good coffees—but the best is apt to come from those who refuse to make anything but the good. That happens to be Schilling—the only coffee roaster in America who refuses to produce cheap coffee even for those who are content with it. Whatever the difference between the good and the best—whether it be great or small—it is there. It is in Schilling Coffee.
