B. F. W.'s Meet for Dinner Session Tonight

The local Business and Professional Women's club will meet for the first dinner session of the fall season at the Hotel Holland this evening with the president, Mrs. Edwina Weisbar, presiding. Dinner will be served in the private dining room at 7 o'clock.

All members and persons interested in becoming members are invited. This will be the only opportunity offered for outlining the program for the coming year and any member with a favorite activity or line of endeavor she wishes to put before the club is invited to do so tonight.

Following the dinner and business session, an interesting program and social time is promised.

Y. W. C. A. Classes for Tomorrow Are Varied

The program for tomorrow at the Y. W. C. A. ranges from diet to music. The opening class, called normalizing, will be held at 7 o'clock. It will include a study of diets and exercises, and is aimed to help all society folk who wish to regulate their weight.

Study of the modern novel will also begin at 7 o'clock. This class will be open to men and women, as will the orchestra class at 8 o'clock.

An advertising class is also scheduled for tomorrow evening and commences at 8 o'clock.

CAFE PARLOR NOW ADDED TO SHASTA

Many passengers of the Shasta today were enjoying the comfort and beauty of the new cafe parlor, the latest type of car put on the Southern Pacific line. The addition was made on the Southern Pacific passenger trains today.

In conjunction with the observation room on the car is the cafe, which seats 18 people. With both the parlor and cafe in the same car, the journey through the Fullmans to the diner is eliminated.

The car has a steel underframe, which is shock absorbing, and also fireproof. Another feature of the new addition is the large windows.

BUILDING PERMITS ON INCREASE IN MEDFORD

Three more building permits were issued today, bringing the total so far this month up to 19. Mina E.
