

STATE FAIR OPENS WITH HUGE CROWD FOR RODEO EVENT

70th Annual Exposition Has Notable Fruit Displays—4-H Judging Gets Under Way Early at Exposition

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 26.—(AP)—A record opening day's attendance was seen today as the 70th annual fair opened here, featured by a wild west atmosphere on the initial three days.

Exhibits of all kinds were in place to greet the crowds, and at the last minute additional tents for livestock were ordered to house the exhibitors due here Monday from the Washington state fair at Puyallup.

Fruit displays all over the place in the agricultural building, as most of the 12 official county booths, grange and others seemed to emphasize that industry.

The rodeo program, starting this afternoon and which is a departure from the usual fair program, brought to the fair famous cowboy performers, including such riders as Hugh Strickland and Frank Studnicka, who have won outstanding honors at the Pendleton roundup and other equally famous shows.

The 4-H club judging began immediately after the opening of the fair. Thirty-five of the 96 counties in the state were represented in this department and in the boys' and girls' club work.

CLERK TO RESUME LAW COURSE AT UNIVERSITY

Otto Frohnmayer, who is taking a law course at the University of Oregon after having been graduated from that institution a year ago, returned from Eugene last evening after having registered in the law school for his second year there, and resumed his duties on the clerks' staff at the Hotel Medford today, in which position he has spent the summer.

He will take up his studies at Eugene two weeks later, as he will be unable to get away for the school year until about October 9. For a year or so past he has spent his vacations as hotel clerk at Eugene and Medford, and has become such an experienced and popular greeter behind the hotel desk, that if he ever falls down after entering law practice he will have a good vocation to fall back on.

WOMEN DRIVERS GIVEN SENTENCE ON GUILTY PLEA

Among cases disposed of in Judge Taylor's court today were those of a woman and man, each charged with drunken driving, another woman charged with reckless driving, and a man who killed a spike deer.

A sentence of 60 days in jail and a $100 fine was imposed on Josephine Carter, waitress, whose car in which was also A. O. McCoy of Ashland, crashed Tuesday night at Oakdale and Sixth streets into the car of Mrs. G. W. Ginn and daughter Peggy, badly injuring the former.

Miss Carter, who has figured under two other names since her arrest, pleaded guilty to the charge of driving an auto while intoxicated, and State Policeman O'Brien, who was on the scene of the accident a few minutes after it occurred and arrested the woman, testified that she was very drunk and failed to stop at a cross street.

The case against McCoy, who was also arrested and who has been held on an open charge since, under $500 bond, will be tried in Judge Taylor's court next Tuesday.

Thelma Williams of Central Point pleaded guilty to driving a car in an imprudent and reckless manner yesterday on the Pacific highway north of Talent, and was fined $15.

The testimony of the arresting officer showed that another woman and a man were in her car, that there was scuffling, and that Miss Williams drove on the wrong side of the road much of the time, so much so as to cause two or three other cars to leave the road in order to pass.

C. F. McCallum, employed on the ditch job at Prospect, was fined $10 and costs for being drunk on a public highway yesterday. The testimony showed that he was very drunk on the Red Blanket road near Prospect, that a Prospect officer gathered him in and brought him to Medford where he was turned over to county jail authorities.

Joe Remos of Klamath Falls was fined $50 and costs for hunting a deer without forked horns on the Greensprings mountain. The arrest was made by Deputy Game Warden Roy Parr.

HORRIBLE! We are the despair of the wholesale butchers, hard put to supply the choice cuts we insist upon. The vegetable houses dare not send us an ounce of inferior merchandise. We are the despair of the chefs who must unlearn half their knowledge to qualify here. We would discharge an employe on the spot if he knowingly prepared a poor or inferior food.
