This Man Aged Sixty-five, Once Old Looking and Gray, Looks Like Only Forty Now

GRAY HAIR DISAPPEARED AFTER USING REMARKABLE NEW TONIC

Has Made His Hair Look Well Groomed, Thick and Youthful

"I had occasion to apply for a position not long ago and I noticed the men though gray haired themselves, took one look at my gray hair which gave me an aged appearance and my chances for that job were gone. The minute folks see your gray hairs they class you as old. It isn't fair, but it's true, no matter how much a person denies it," declares Mr. Max Gabler, well known Florist of Oshkosh, Wisconsin, Route 6.

"My general health and appearance is good, but the gray hairs gave away my age (65), so I quietly began rubbing a little Lea's Hair Tonic into my scalp each night with my finger tips. I figured that even tho friends recommended it, that it was some sort of humbug, dye or pure bunk, but to my surprise my gray hair began gradually getting darker and like the rest. After using three bottles all my hair was the same youthful color, full of life and splendid looking and the change came so gradual folks seeing me/Co., Brentwood, Md.
