MINIMUM WAGES FOR COURT HOUSE WORK 40 CT. HOUR

Minimum wage scales for labor on the new $285,000 Jackson county courthouse were filed yesterday afternoon by the county court and advisory committee, as follows: For common labor, 40 cents per hour.

Skilled labor, 62 1/2 cents per hour. Brickmasons, 61 per hour. Contractors can pay any wage scale they desire above the minimum scale, but not below it.

The plans of the courthouse were adopted and the specifications, with minor changes, approved.

The county court will advertise for bids for the work the coming week, and set a date for the opening of the bids and the awarding of contracts. Actual construction is expected to start early in November.

Bids for material will be asked, and brick supply concerns of the Pacific coast have submitted samples and prices, including local supply men.

The opening work will be the excavating of the site and the draining of same.

It is expected that all the preliminary work, including the assembling of material, will be completed the coming winter, depending on weather conditions. It is estimated that the courthouse will be completed and ready for occupancy by January 1, 1933.

RECREATION CLUB DISCUSSES WORK

The Jackson County Recreation club held the regular monthly meeting at the Central Point Grand hall Wednesday night. The president, Mrs. Harry Ward, presided.

Mrs. Mabel Mack was chairman for the evening. After the regular routine of the evening, the members discussed project for the winter, deciding to take up the study and presentation of dramatics through the winter months. A committee of three was appointed to divide the county into districts, including members who represent the Granges and clubs of the county. These groups will present plays for their organizations, for which judges will be chosen to decide the winning group.

Mrs. Mabel Simms led the members in several short and peppy songs. After the grand march, conducted by Mrs. Harry Ward, the members were instructed by the chairman to compose parodies to familiar songs exemplifying the products of Jackson county. Some stumpy compositions were presented, which told, in addition to other products, the value of pears, bulbous bluegrass and ladino cheese.

The remainder of the evening was spent practicing the program for Pomona game. About 40 members were present.

HARTLEY MAKES TRIPS IN GLIDER AT AIRPORT

Cecil Hartley of Phoenix was at the Medford airport this morning with his glider, where he made a series of flights. Observers claimed that the trips made today by the youth were the most successful since he has taken up flying in his home-made craft.

The trips were made above the port, with the glider being pulled by an automobile. When an altitude of three or four hundred feet was reached, Hartley would cut the rope, glide the length of the field, and make a complete circle of the airport before landing.
